The Horner School
 See in another column the advertisement of the old and well-known Horner School at Oxford, N. C. The catalogue which is before us shows a good patronage. A very complete curriculum of studies is set forth, and the school seems to offer the best educational advantages on very moderate terms. Patrons having sons to educate would do well to send to Mr. J. C. Horner for a copy of the catalogue.
 You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heat-

Remember it!
 For the next thirty days the entire stock of goods at HAHN'S, 38 Market st., will be sold at a sacrifice to make room for a Fall and Winter stock. Mr HAHN'S goods are very pretty and, it will be remembered, are all new. He opened with an entire new stock three or four months ago, and has since then renewed his orders. He now intends laying in a full and complete stock of Winter goods, and for this reason offers his Summer stock at a great sacrifice.

New Mail Wagon.
 Burwell Amy, the contractor for conveying the mail in this city between the Postoffice and the various trains, has put on a new regulation wagon. It was built by Messrs Gerhardt & Co. in this city, thus keeping that much money at home instead of sending it off North. It is a very handsome piece of work, strong and durable, too, and handsomely painted and decorated. It is the first U. S.
 Mail wagon ever run in this city.
Severe cyclone.
 During the prevalence of the cyclone which passed over Matthews, on the Carolina Central Railroad, a few days ago, a young lady was severely injured by the falling of the limb of a tree. We regret to learn that her life is despaired of.
 The cyclone is described as having been one of unusual severity. Trees were torn up, barns blown down, a house burned to the ground, a man was killed outright by a falling timber, and now a young lady is said to be dying from the effects of injuries sustained.

 Minnie Rhodes, colored, was arrested upon a peace warrant issued, upon the affidavit of Julia Cohen, also colored, and brought before Justice E. D. Hall, who bound the defendant in the sum of $50

 Minnie was then arrested upon a charge of assault and battery made by the party who caused her first arrest. Guilty was the judgment and one penny and costs was the penalty attached to the ofense, and they were paid.
 Minnie then retaliated and had Julia arrested for an assault and battery, but the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutrix.

A Subject of Interest to Merchants as well as Farmers.
 We are glad to learn, from a friend who is well informed upon the subject, that the people in the country, and particularly in the locality of Topsail Sound, are getting aroused as well as interested upon the subject of tobacco culture, and that they purpose holding a meeting of all the family in that vicinity in a short time to inaugurate measures looking to the speedy introduction of the tobacco plant and the growth of it on their farms as one of the chief products of that agricultural community. We learn also from the same gentleman referred to above, and who was reared in a tobacco growing section of the Old North State, that the farmers in the vicinity of Wilmington have been advised not to cultivate the tobacco known as the Orinoco, or such like tobacco as is grown in the up country, as the soil and climate in this latitude are not adapted to it, and may cause a failure with the producers, which will retard the movement of a regular growth of the article for years to come. The tobacco suited to our soil and climate in this section, we have been told by the same well informed person, is what is known as Cuba tobacco and is used in the manufacture of cigars.
