The Fourth at Burgaw.

We have no report of the Fourth of July celebration yesterday at Burgaw, although we had good reason to expect one. From a passenger who came down the road yes erday on the 1.80 P. M. train, we learn that there was a very large at tendance and that Gov. Jarvis was there, true to his promise. There is no doubt of there having been a good time yesterday at Burgaw.

Fire.

Yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock, kerosene oil lamp exploded in the bed room of the residence of Mr. John Wil kins, on Wooster, between Ninth and Tenth streets. The flames ignited the bedding and the fire was well under way when discovered. No general alarm was sounded but there was considerable anxiety in the neighborhood. Mr. Wilkins loss is about thirty dollars, but had not the fire been extinguished as promptly as it was the loss not only to Mr. Wilkins but others in the neighborhood would have been great.

Dropped Dead.

A horse which belonged to James Bry colored, and was one of a pair harnessed to an old fashioued shop wagon, was taken sick yesterday morning shortly af ter leaving the stable and dr pped dead on the corner of Seventh and Market streets. The wagen was loaded with ladies and gentlemen who as ticipated pleasant day at the Sound but who were deprived from going on account of the death of the horse, as it was impossible then to procure another.

City Court.

John Brown and Henry Howard, colored, were arraigned this morning upon the charge of being disorderly and using loud get out. The Restless claims a foul stayed at home and drank ice water and and boisterous language on the streets, the first named being also charged with cursing and swesting. This all happened on the corner of Sixth and Mulberry streets, according to Sergeant Davis' testimony, who made the arrest, on Saturday night about 10 o'clock. The Mayor, after listening to the evidence, remarked that he was determined to enforce the order recently given to the Chief of Police in reference to this matter of loud and boisterous conduct and cursing and swearing on the streets, and he would therefore impose a fine of $10 on John Brownor ten days' imprisonment, and $5 fineor five days' imprisonment, upon Henry Howard. This cleared the docket and the Court adjourned.

A Prolific Yield.

R. W. Collins, Esq., living near Burgaw, in Pender county, planted last year an ordinary filed pea which he found in the road, from which he raised and gathered the extraordinary number of 2,310 peas. The pea is what has been known, heretofore, as the "Tennessee Crowder," but in view of the enormous yield, together with the big Democratic majority which will be rolled up in the State in November it will, hereafter, be known as the "Hancock and Jarvis pea." We must not omit to state that the fowls had gathered a portion of the peas before Mr. Collins was aware that they were ripe enough for harvesting; but the numbel which we have stated as gathered by him can be vouched for by some of the best citizens of Pender county.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of County Commissioners met yesterday afternoon at 21 o'clock. Present, Col Wm L Smith, Chairman, Commissioners II A Baggs, A J Grady, Jas A Montgomery and B G Worth.

The Race Yesterday - Restless Carries the Champion Flag.

Yesterday Wrightsville Sound and beach was thronged with persons drawn thither by the boat race, which was annonnced to have started at 12 o'clock. but which began on a falling tide at or about 2 o'clock. There were quite a number of ladies present and the race was very interesting, it from no other cause from the 'dra wbacks, fouls and casualties' The wind was fair from the Southeast at d the yachts started in the following order : Spray..................2b.....1m.....4ce

Ripple ..... .2h... 4m... 53s The run down the channel was i teresting and the relative positions of the yachts were changed and rechanged. When the race was half run the Bessie Lee was withdrawn on account of a foul, which disarranged some of her rigging. We have been unable to learn anything satisfactory to any one relative to the race. The Lizzie claims to have been jammed against the banks and had to come about to avoid a collision while she had the right of way. The Ripple claims almost the same, aid on account of the low water while coming about she was caught in the 'pocket' the yacht ordering her failed to follow, as prescribed by the laws of the Club. The Flit did not like to be ruled out and claims that the fouls were not her

The yachts came in at the finish in the following order:

torre u ree er acri
Restless	3b	49m20s
Spray	3h	55s 42s
Flirt	8b	46m
Lizzie	8b	49m238
Ripple	3h	50m

By an unanimous vote of the Judges, Messrs. W. L. Jewett, A. R. Campbell and Wm. Latimer, and the Regatta Com mittee the Flirt was ruled out for fouls and non compliance with the rules of the Club, and the Champion flag was given to the Restless, she being the second boat in at the finish. The time actually

1	taken to sail the race is as follows:
	Flirt. 1h42m87  Rest ess 1h47m85  Lizzie 1h45m57
	Rest ess 1h 47m 35
	Lizzie1h45 m57
	Ripple
	Spray1b63m,54
	The yachts sailed beautifully and it i regretted by all that the accidents, fouls, etc., occurred. Persons in whose judge ment we have great confidence, tell us that it would be a very difficult matter to find four yachts of their class that are smarter and swifter than the Flirt, Restless, Ripple and Lizzie.

Bishop Alkinson.

We greatly regret to learn that Bishop Atkinson is now seriously ill at the residence of his son, Dr. Robert Atkinson, in Baltimore. The Bishop, it will be remembered, finding his health very much improved, went to Baltimore, about two months ago, in the hope of receiving a benefit in the change. There was a marked benefit in the course of a month or so, so marked, indeed, that the Bishop was looking forward to a return to North Carolina, and a summer among the mountains, when he was again prostrated, On last Friday night Col. John W. Atkinson received a telegram from his brother telling him that the Bishop was much worse and sinking rapidly and urging him to leave at once for Baltimore. This was impossible as there was no train at night and Col. Atkinson proposed leaving the next morning, at 6:50 In the meantime he telegrarhed for furs ther information and early on Saturday morning, before train time, came the reply, that the Bishop was better and that Col. Atkinson had best wait until Tuesday morning before leaving. This morning therefore, Col. A. left here for Baltimore. There has been no further information relative to Bishop Atkinson's condition and these facts leads us to believe; what we so ardently hope, that there is a still further improvement in his condition.

Across the Water.

We learn that our worthy townsman Alex Sprunt, Esq., sailed from New York yesterday on the steamer Devonia, of the Anchor Line, en route for the hills of his own native Scotland, where we learn our friend proposes spending the remainder of ganize c'ubs for the political campaign this warm season. Mr S, we believe, will make his first halt after his disembarka tion, at Edinboro town.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Hea' ing s oves at almost any price at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

On the Passport

The excursion given yesterday or board the Passport by the Young Catho lic Friends' Society was one of the most successful on record. The boat was full but not too full for enjoyment. The run down the river was a very pleasant one and while some of the excursionists stop red at Smithville, others went to For Caswell and still others went to sea. The beat returned here late in the afternoon with a tired but happy crowd.

The Fourth in Wilmington.

Yesterday, celebrated here as Fourth, passed off in a remarkably quiet and orderly manter. There was no public display yet everybody enjoyed the near the London buoy, and dragged day. Some went to Smithville, some to mittee. for seven minutes before she could the Sounds, some to the Lake and some and was made to come about while kept cool. We have yet to hear of a disaster or an accident to mar the enjoyment

Good Crop Prospects.

Mr. David S. Williams, of Rockfish township, in Duplin county, was in our fice for a few moments this afternoon, and he reports the cotton crop in his neighborhood as being unprecedentedly good. He is a practical farmer and he says that he has never seen better cotton crops than new flourish in his vicinity He reports the corn crop as having been stunted by the continued dry weather, but that it is now doing well.

State Republican Convention,

The State Republican Convention meets in Raleigh to-morrow and H Scott, Jos E Sampson, S H Manning, W P Canaday and Geo W Price, delegates from this county, left here this morning for attendance. The carcase—we mean caucus—it will be carcase in November-will shake and rattle its dry bones to-morrow they meet at high noon and a high old time they will have of it getting the burial clothes ready for the funeral of all of their hopes, which is appointed for the second day of next November.

THE YOUNGEST ESTABLISHED Gro-L cery House in Wilmington! Commenc. ing business only a few years ago, in the will the weather be to-merrow? This midst of the most terrible panic ever known in this country, in the course of three years article is perfectly reliable, and should be in only, by economy in the use of our investments, and skill in business, we have built up one of the best Retail Grocery Establishments south of the Potomac, with a reputation for fair dealing, in elligence, liberality in business, choice selected articles in our line, and success in trade, that are the envy and the astonishment of the "old and experienced Groceries," our competitors. Every dollar we have now invested, amounting to thousands and thousands of dollars, is the fruit of our own unaided exertions. We have not had to borrow money to meet losses. We have no bad debts. WE PAY CASH for all our purchases and trust anybody that can make us safe. The stock of Groceries and the good will at
