Railroads vs. the American Union.

The suit of the railroads, to enjoin the American Union Telegraph Company from erecting telegraph poles and wires on the property of these roads along the track, was heard at Chambers to-day by His Honor Judge McCoy, from 12 o'clock till 2 o'clock this afternoon. His Honor rendered his decision in favor of the Telegraph Company; counsel for the roads then took an appeal which the Judge, under the statute, refused to grant. It is understood, however, that the railroads will go before the Supreme Court for a hearing upon a writ of certiorari. Major Chas. M. Stedman and Mr. Junius Davis are counsel for the railroads and Messrs. Russell and Ricard and McRae and Strange for the Telegraph Company.

Journalism in North Carolina.

It seems, judging by the published proceedings, that our neighbor, Mr. Kingsbury, of the Star, was placed in nomination before the Press Convention at Asheville for the position which was afterwards assigned to W. W. Holden, that of preparing a sketch of journalism in North Carolina. Mr. Kingsbury's name was afterwards withdrawn and Holden was chosen. If there is any difference in point of ability it is, to our candid thinking, in favor of Mr. Kingsbury and yet the name of a good Democrat, one who has worked for long years for the benefit of his party and who has never voted other than the Democratic ticket, is set aside to make room for one who has been solemnly convicted of high crimes and misdemeanors against the State—a disrobed priest who can no longer minister at the political altar—a man marked and branded as a traitor to his people.
It is proper to add here that, on enquiry, we learn that Mr. Kingsbury, who is, by the way, not a member of the Press Association, was not aware that his name was to be brought forward, and knew nothing of the matter at all until the proceedings appeared in the Raleigh papers.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st. W.

Gov. Jarvis at Burgaw—Celebration of the Fourth—Hancock Club, &c.

Notwithstanding the frequency of articles of notice which your kindness extends to us through your valuable columns, we feel that we cannot refrain from asking you to let your readers know something of the good time we had here on yesterday, the 5th of July.

In response to previous announcement a large number of persons of both sexes met here for the purpose of celebrating the glorious old 4th of July. It was indeed surprising to see so many of our people out on so short notice and it being the busy part of the busy season; but anyway they came and every township was represented to a greater or less degree; and by the time the people from the different sections had greeted each other with the usual congratulations, the sudden firing of cannon forcibly reminded them of scenes and deeds of more than one hundred years ago.
After the firing of several guns, the ringing of the town bell announced that the hour for the ceremonies had arrived and the large crowd went to the Academy, where the exercises were to be held.
Dr. W. T. Ennett, the chairman of the committee of arrangements, called the meeting to order and said the exercises would be opened by prayer by Rev. Geo. W. McMillan.
Mr. Bruce Williams, in a few prefatory remarks, spoke of the important and leading stand the patriots of North Carolina took in the great struggle which resulted in the separation from the mother country and the blessings of liberty we now enjoy, and then read the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. The National Declaration of Independence was then read by John R. Paddison, Esq., both of which were received with much applause.
Dr. Ennett then introduced the orator of the day, Mr. George A. Ramsay, of Burgaw.

Mr. R. briefly recounted the deeds of heroic valor performed by the patriots of Classic Greece and Imperial Rome, and contrasted them, and the motives that impelled them, with our Washington and the immortal band of veterans and the sacred principles for which they fought. He earnestly urged his countrymen to watch and guard those principles. He told them that if they would protect and preserve the holy principles for which our fathers died and died their long departed spirits with the holy angels above would look down from the battlements of heaven and say they had done well.
He made a fine impression upon his audience and by several very happy and pleasing flights of oratory held it spell bound with very enlivening effect. He seemed to call forth and impart the true spirit of patriotism which can alone be seen by sweeping away the ashes of about one hundred years ago. Long will his effort and the glories of the day be remembered. Linked together as they are,

The Glorious 4th Day of July!
A LITTLE MORE THAN A CENTURY ago, when freedom could scarcely find a hiding place in this country, it was PATRICK HENRY, a good Grocerman, a Mechanic, a Horny-handed Son of Toil, who dared to look the British Lion in the face and proclaim it.
Bully for Patrick. He was a true patriot, as all good Grocermen are. I have been inspired by the memory of the eminent and illustrious Patriot and Grocerman, on this OUR FOURTH DAY OF JULY.
