The thermometer stood at 94 degrees in this office to-day at 3 o'clock.

Save your money and buy your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price's.

This section was visited with a delightful rain last night, which proved a blessing to the farmers.

Salt provisions of whatever kind are said to lose more of their saltiness by being soaked in sea water than in fresh.

Dip a new broom in hot water to make it durable. To keep a broom from getting stiff and hard, hang it in the cellar way.

We are informed that the Hancock, English and Shackelford Club of this city now numbers 45 members. Good! Keep the ball rolling!

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The County Commissioners are in session this evening for the purpose of hearing complaints in regard to tax assessments.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

A special meeting of Howard Relief Fire Engine Company, which the honorary members are particularly invited to attend, will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Cus'omer—"Why are 'Malt Bitters' so popular?"

Druggist—"Because, as a Food Medicine, they enrich the blood, harden the muscles, quiet the nerves, perfect digestion."

Nobody likes to be nobody; but everybody is pleased to think himself somebody. And every body is somebody but when everybody thinks himself somebody he generally thinks everybody else is nobody.

Sleep and plenty of it must be had by the Baby, and if its rest be broken or prevented by attacks of Colic, Stomach or Bowel Disorders give at once Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which will relieve the pain, induce refreshing slumber and consequent health.

Struck by Lightning.
Saturday noon the residence of Mr. W. P. Canaday, on the corner of Market and Seventeenth streets, was struck by lightning. The telephone wire leading into his house was severed in two places and some of the wood work of an unfinished room caught fire. No damage was done either to life or property. We also learn that a telephone at the residence of Mr. F. W. Foster was burned out by lightning about the same time.

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan. Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

An Opinion of Ours
While in Goldsboro a few days since we stopped at the Bonitz House, which is a well kept hotel of which Mr. William Bonitz, brother of J. A. Bonitz, Esq., of the Messenger, is the proprietor. The house is large, commodious and airy, and our young friend, Mr. R. L. Prempert, son of our townsman, Mr. H. C. Prempert, is ever in readiness to attend to the wants and comfort of those who may make the house their home while in Goldsboro.

A Valuable Horse Shot.
A valuable horse, belonging to Mr. W. P. Oldham, had the misfortune on Thursday last to get one of his legs broken. It was set and the animal kept in a sling and applications of ice made to the wounded part until the swelling and fever seemed to have materially mitigated but to-day there were such evidences of suffering that he was shot to put him out of his misery.

Tearing Down.

The cooking stalls and booths at the western end of the old forty legs, alias old Market, were torn down this morning by order of the Mayor. Sergeant Davis has charge of the work of demolishing the old disgrace.

Window Glass—all sizes at Altaffer & Price's and Blinds, Builders' Bar, are, &c. Low at JACOBI'S.

City Court.

Mayor Fishback had only one case for his consideration this morning—that of a colored man from the seashore, who was arraigned upon the charge of selling unsound fish. His Honor pronounced a judgment of $10 fine. This finished the business on the docket, and the Mayor stepped down and out of the Court Room.

Joint Special Meeting.

The Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit are to meet to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in joint session. We understand that several prominent citizens are invited to meet with them. The object of the meeting, we understand, is to confer relative to a proposition that the city should subscribe a certain amount to the stock of the Carolina Central Railroad.

Full Metal and Walnut Show Cases, all styles and sizes, at ALTAFFER, PRICE & CO'S.

Personal.

Capt. H. Brown and J. T. Patrick, of Wadesboro, are here to-day and will remain here several days for the purpose of canvassing the city in aid of the Dixie Floral Fair, to be held at Wadesboro on the 28th and 29th inst. We bespeak for these gentlemen the kind consideration of our people.

Mr. Jerome C. Horner, of Oxford, who has been in our city for a week past in the interest of his excellent school, will leave here to-morrow morning on his return home. While in the city he has been the guest of Colonel B. R. Moore.

Old Friends.

Mr. E. A. Brown, a native of Wilmington, but for many years past Agent of the Southern Express Company at Columbia, is here to-day on one of his short and rare visits to his old home.

Mr. John Banks, also a Wilmington boy, but now doing business in Georgia, on the line of the Macon & Brunswick R. R., is also here on a short visit to his relatives and friends and favored us with a call this morning.

Plows, Shovels, Pitchforks, Spades, Rakes, Trace Chains, Plow Lines, &c. For the lowest prices, go to JACOBI'S.

Interesting Decision.

The State Treasurer has just rendered a decision to the effect that "if a party owns United States Treasury notes, not placed in bank to his general credit, they are not taxable, but national bank notes so held are taxable, and should be listed as money on hand." The case of the Supreme Court of North Carolina in Ruffin vs. the Commissioners of Orange, at the June term, 1873, is cited. The Treasurer maintains that the opinion of the court, as rendered by Justice Roade, clearly sets forth that money, whether national bank bills or United States Treasury notes, deposited in bank to the general credit of the owner, assumes the nature of a solvent credit, and must be listed as such.

Ready mixed Paints, strictly pure White Lead, Colors, Brushes, Window Glass, &c., at JACOBI'S.

Some Heavy Mementoes.

It will be remembered that some time last December a gentleman by the name of Buck, from Baltimore, who was an agent for the Bush Hill Iron Works (rolling mills), of Philadelphia, appeared here and went to Fort Caswell, where he examined the old guns at that point. Finding them made of such material as would work in a rolling mill he purchased 26 guns and 2 mortars from the Government. Afterwards, these 26 guns were put on a lighter, when she capsized and 19 of them were lost overboard. Recently 17 of these were recovered and those, together with 2 mortars, have been shipped to Philadelphia on the schooner Imogene Dierly, which cleared today for that port by Messrs. Harris & Howell. The guns were taken from Fort Caswell spiked just as they were left by the Confederates when they evacuated and blew up the fort. They are very heavy and average 6 tons of 2,240 pounds each or 13,440 pounds. The spiked guns were raised by Mr. G. Ross, under a contract with the Bush Hill Iron Works.

Death of Mr. Prigge.

We regret to learn of the death of a venerable resident of this section, Mr. George Prigge. He died last night at Fairfield, a plantation a few miles North of the city, which Mr. Prigge has cultivated for several years past. He was 81 only a day or two, but we have not learned the exact nature of the disease of which he died, although it is reported that it was owing to exposure in the sun.

Mr. Prigge was probably between 60 and 65 years of age. He was at one time a merchant in Wilmington and did a large and prosperous business, but met with reverses a few years previous to the war. He was a kind, genial man, and there are many here who will grieve to learn of his death.

Not Because of His Republicanism.

Our friend, Capt. Ashe, of the Raleigh Observer, is informed that our strictures against Gov. Holden were not on account of the politics he has professed since the war, nor yet of the traitorous part he played towards the people of this State, and of the Confederacy, during the last days of the war but because of the fact that he is what he is, a man who has been disgraced and degraded from the highest office in the State and forever debarred from holding office thereunder.

His crime was against the people of the whole State; he conspired with thieves, murderers and cut-throats against the dignity, peace and welfare of the State and the lives and property of the people; he suspended the writ of habeas corpus and placed the lives of men and the virtue of women at the mercy of the scoundrels Kirk and Bergen; he was hand-in-glove with John Pool and Lindsay and was doubtless a fellow in the scheme by which Governor Graham was to be "lost"; he took one of the purest and ablest and best of men, Judge Kerr, now gone to his rest, and threw him into a dungeon to be companioned by negro thieves and barn burners, and God only knows what else he would have done, with habeas corpus suspended, the right of a trial by jury refused, the Judiciary exhausted and drum-head court martials the order of the day had not Judge Brooks, a Federal Judge, stood in the gap to ward off his unrighteous wrath from the people of this State.

This is but a part of the record of the man who has been highly honored by the N. C. Press Association. Any one of the Republican editors of the State might have been selected to fill this position and the REVIEW would have opened not its mouth. For other locals see fourth page.

THOMAS H. MCKOY,

A GAIN APPEALS TO THOSE who are indebted to Boatwright & McKoy to come forward and make settlement. I need the money. You must all know that it is actually necessary that I should settle up the old business. Please don't delay.

I trust that a duty you owe to yourselves will not allow this appeal to go unheeded.

To one and all who owe the firm of Boatwright & McKoy, I ask, won't you please come forward and settle?

I have, and am receiving daily FRESH

GROCERIES. Would be pleased to supply everybody. Will give prompt customers all the credit they require. One good turn deserves another; then, if I sell to you on a credit, and deliver your goods promptly, I think you should pay for them in a reasonable time, I appeal to you. Am I right? THOMAS H. MCKOY.

P.S.—It may be that some over sensitive persons may take exceptions at the above.

If they do, I now bow and say, no offer ce is intended. I am sure one and all, if they will throw aside prejudice and bring their better judgment to bear, will say

McKoy is right, and we ought to pay promptly our old accounts due Boatwright & McKoy. My desire (outside of my interest) is to make friends. I have thrown my banner to the breeze, and if fair dealings, small profits and treating my fellow man justly, will accomplish what I intend then I will continue to be as we have been,
