JUDGE BUXTON'S RECORD. Judge Buxton's record is not invulnerable. He has said and done things that do not show him up as an impartial McDougald be fined five cents and cos s a iministrator of justice. The very judicial ermine which, according to our neigh" bor of the Star, he has 'more respect for waich the result if he voting'. than to drag through the mire and filth of a Radical campaign' has already been soiled so seriously that 'the mud and filth you fined him five dollars and costs! of a Radical campaign' would leave but few more marks upon it. A man is judged by his acts and there is no one it to whose hands may fall either the construction or the execution of the laws whose conduct is looked to more closely sits upon the judicial bench. Judge Buxton, in times past, has shown himself as much a slave to the behests of party as ever did that archatraitor, W. W. Holden, and it argues but a poor acquaintance with the reconstruction history of North Carolina for any one to allude to the purity of the judicial ermine while in Judge Buxton's keeping. He in his war upon the people of North Carolina. Disregarding alike his oath of office his duty towards the people under the law and the high and solemn behests of the almost sacred office which he held, he himself, deliberately laid his robe of office in the mire and trampled upon it when le refused the writ of habeas corpus to those whom Holden had arrested without due process of law and confined in dark and filthy cells. The judiciary was exhausted and Holden was no more guilty of that exhaustion than was Ralph P. Buxton then a Judge of the Superior Court in North Carolina.

We do not write willly or without data and we have authority for what we say when we charge that Judge Buxton has long ago soiled, beyond redemption, the judicial ermine he wore. More than one of his descisions were severely commented on in former years -decisions on a partisan basis, in which juagment . with mcreey always seemed to lean towards offenders for Judge Bux- ac, at Jacobi's

t n's political tabernacle an ! jud ment without mercy was metered out to those who dared oppose the Republican iniquities. Here is some of the proof of the pudding We find it in the Raleigh News. It is from the Fayetteville Gazette of date July 15, 1875 Judge Bux. ton was at that time a candidate to repa resent Cumberland County in the State Convention. He was just as black then as he was in earlier years and he is just as black now as he was then:

In looking up your record, says Bartholomew Fuller, E-q, writing to Judge Buxton through the Gazette, prompted thereto by your self complacent bow of Introduction to the people of Cumberland county, I have found certain matters which may be effectively set forth under the title of 'Coutrasts,' and which will serve at present as a reply to your remark that, being debarred 'from dabbling in the politics of the day,' you have 'strictly observed the proprieties of your post ... tion in this respect.' It is well that these ast words were added, because our 'Contrasts' will show that there are other proprieties, which, f you had 'strictly observed' them, would have placed your claims upon the people on higher grounds than you can ever hope now to occupy. Please bear in- mind that I have conceded your right to demand and expect the sup port of the Radical party, and that I deny to you any claim upon Conservatives, either for their confidence or suffrages. In vindication of this assertion, let me invite your att.ntion to

At the same term W. W. Shepherd, a white man, was indicted for the same oftence upon a colored man, and pleaded they found her walking about without guilty, you fined him twenty dollars and even a limp.

CONTRAST NO. 3. Cato Potts, a colored man, has been frequently charged with stealing from merchants and others. He was indicted for larceny at Fall term, 1868; he submitted, and you suspended the judgment! He was indicted again for the same grade of crime, at Spring term, 1868, and you sentenced him for six months. Again he was indicted at the Spring term, 1872, and discharged, the prosecutor failing to appear so runs the record. Again he was up for larceny at Spring term, 1873, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced for four months. This is Cato's record.

At the same term with Potts' last sentence, Monroe Faison, a little colored boy, was indicted for stealing an axe, the prop erty of Delilah Stewart, a colored woman on Harrington Hill. CONTRAST NO. 4. Anthony McDougald, a colored man, was indicted and tried at the January term, 1874, for an assault with a deadly weapon upon E P Powers, our town marshal. A. G. Thornton, who has long been the mainstay and prop of the Radical party in this county, and who can command more votes to-day than any ten and watched more carefully than he who men 'of that ilk', was tried at spring term, 1871, upon an indictment, of which the second count charged him with 'refusing and failing to surrender the taxlists, on demand,' to the town authorities The trial was a long and tedious one, evidence was plentifully examined on both sides, and the jury found him guilty on this count. You granted a rule on the State to show cause why a new trial should not be granted, and on the argu ment of the rule you set the verdict aside, aided and abetted and sustained Holden and granted a new trial, on the ground that the defendant had not entered his ples of 'not guilty' on the record.

If I am credibly informed you took the 'back track' on this ruling at Harnett Court, which came on only three months after this decision. And the Supreme Court Reports show that at Richmond Court,in the case of the State vs McMille n and others, at fall term, 1872, the same point was raised before you. In that case you held correctly that the defendant had been tried 'as upon the plea of net guilty,' and you directed the plea to be entered after verdict, to make the record speak the truth. The defendant appealed to the Supreme Court, which affirmed your ru'ing; Judge Reade, delivering the opin ion, cites the case of State vs. Roberts, 2 Dev. & Bat 540, as express authority, and says, other authorities are abundant, You were asked to do the same thing in Thornton's case, and you refused. He moved his trial to Moore, was acquitted, and the county of Cumberland had to pay the sum of five bundred and sixty dollars,

OUR PLATFORM.

1st. We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democratic party, as illustrated by the teaching and example of the long line or Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the platform of the last Na tional Convention of the party.

21 Opposition to centralization and to that dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to the consolidated powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever be the form of government, a real despotism; no sumptuary laws; separation of church and State for the good of each; common schools fostered and protected.

3d Home rule, honest money, a strict maintanance of public faith; a currency consisting of gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand; strict maintenance of public faith, State and National, and a tariff for revenue only.

4th. The subordination of the military to the civil powers, and a general and thorough reform of the civil service. 5th. The right to a free ballot is right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States. 6th. The existing administration is the representative of conspiracy only, and its claim of rig t to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals, to intimidate and obstruct electors, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insilts the people and imperils their insti-

7th The great fraud of 1876 77; by which, upon a false count of the electoral, vote of two States, the candidate defeat ed at the polls was declared to be the President, and for the first time in Amera ican history the will of the people was set aside, under a threat of military violence, struck a deadly blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from civil war, submitted for the time, in the firm and patriotic faith that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other. It imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than was ever addressed to the conscience of a nation of freemen.

8th. We execrate the course of this ad ministration in making places in the civil sorvice a reward for political crime, and demand a reform by a statute which shall make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of the usurper, by billeting villains upon the people.

9th. The resolution of Samuel J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for the exalted place to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the leaders of the Republican party, is received by the Democrats of the United States with sensibility, and they declare their confidence in his wisdom, patriotism and integrity, unshaken by the assaults of a conmon enemy, and they further assure him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympa'hy and respect of his fellow citizens, who regard him as one who by the elevating standard of public morality and adorning and purifying public service, merits the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

10th. Free ships and a living chance for American commerce on the seas and on he land. No discrimination in favor of transportation laws, corporations or me-

11th. An amendment of the Burlingame reaty. No more Chinese immigration except for travel, education and foreign commerce, and therein carefully guarded 12th Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and the public land for actual settlers. 18th The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against cormorants and the commune. 14th. We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of the Demo c atic Congress, which has reduced the public expenditure forty millions a year : upon the continuation of prosperity at home, and the national honor abroad, and above all, upon the promise of such a change in the administration of the government as shall insure us a genuine and lasting reform in every department of the public service.
