Large Democratic Gains in the Next House Expected.

The National Democratic Committees sub-committees on documents and printing had a meeting at headquarters yesterday. The committee men present were Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania; Abram 8 Hewitt, of New York ; W L Scott and Mr Boyer, of Pennsylvania. A partial arrange ment was made for the orreulation of documents during the campaign, and its was decided to distribute at once the campaign text book for speakers and campaign lives of the candidates. The Finance Committee held its 1866

General Duncan S Walker, Secres tary of the Committee, returned yesterday from Washington, where he has been attending to the aff irs of the Congressional Comm ttee. The General says that news of the progress of the Presidential campaign received at Washington continues to be extremely favorable and that accounts from the doubtful Congressional districts indicate a large Democratic gain in the next House. The Democrats of the Twentieth Ohio District expect to wicot their candidate in the place of Townsend, the present member, who is strongly opposed in his own party and strong hopes are entertained of seating a Democrat in place of Gens eral Weaver in Iows, where a coalition has been eff-cted between the Democrate and Independents,

The Democra ic Congressional Committee met at the Gilsey House yesterday. There were present Senator McDonald, of Indians; Sentor Wallace, of Pennsylvania; Senator Whyte, of Maryland; Representatives Hunton, of Virginia, and Singleton, of Ile linois, and General Walker the Secretary of the Committee. The reports as to Congressional contests recently received at Washington were read to the committee, and much gratification was expressed at the prospect for the next Congress and at the entirely unanimous working of the Presidential competential the hearty cooperation exising between the National and Congressional committees.

dence No 28 First place, Brooklyn, and was buried yesterday afternoon. The fu neral services, which occurred at the house, were attended by near relatives of the family only. Mr Saxe, who has him self been long an invalid, was not able to leave his bedroom. The death of his wife has filled his friends with serious apprehensions fer him. John D Saxe and Charles G Saxe, his two oldest sons, who are in business in Albany, came to Brooklyn on Menday to attend the funeral. an invalid and could not come to the city. The services began at 2 o'clock. The Rev Dr Bancroft, of Christ's Chapel, read the lessons and made a short prayer. The Rev George G Saxe, a Methodist clergyman and cousin of Mr Saxe, made a brief address praising the unselfishness and devotion of the lady who is dead. Mr Saxe, he said, in several of his works had drawn his best woman, both as to loveliness of person and beauty of moral character, so plainly after his wife that friends always recognized the portraits. Among those present at the services were Judge B weil, a cousin of Mrs Saxe, Dr Bloodgood, of the navy, and E W Keyes. The burial was at Green wood, Mrs Saxe was flity nine years old and WASHINGSON, Aug. 4-Admiral Wy man, who went to Santiago de Cuba to investigate the alleged in dignities offered the America flag in Cuba waters by the Spanish gunboat Canto, resched Washington this afternoon. After calling upon Commodore Jeffers, Acting Becretary of the Navy, the Amdiral visited Mr. Evarts and explained to him in detail the position of the Canto at the time of the interception of the American schooners Merritt and Newcembe, as laid down upon the charts prepared by the officers of the Canto, Admiral Wyman says that the Spanish authorities made no secret of the matter, but freely extended to him the privilege of examining the report of the commander of the Cato, and unequive cally disavowed any ine stional manit to our flag or the commission of any act at variance with the usages of civilized countries.
