Does a person become stone blind who is petrified with astonishment?
Everybody can get suited with a Pocket

The Hancock, English and Jarvis Club will meet at the City Hall this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. J. K. Mellibenny left this morning for Raleigh to be in attendance upon the organization of the State Pharmaceutical Society.

The period of teething is the most extra attendance and occasional doses of The pathway of a new comet has been omer, which will make its appearance about 1881. Get your glasses ready.

A valuable horse, the property of Mr.
Amos Perry, died very suddenly last evening on Second, between Princess and Chestnut streets. It was being taken to a veterinary surgeon for treatment when it died. It is thought that the animal was poisoned.

The Bone and Muscle producing Malt, the Nerve quieting Hop, the superb Malarial antidote Quinine, and other precious ingredients, combined without fermentation, are the ingredients of 'Malt Bitters,' prepared by the Malt Bitters Company.

There is an ordinance somewhere on the books in regard to cattle roaming the streets within certain limits. Why is it not enforced? Will those who are charged with the execution of the city ordinances try and answer this question?

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite

Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards.
Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices.
Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

What is nice for bathing suits? Inquires a lady. When young a closely cropped head and a sunburned back constituted the chief features, but perhaps the style has changed since then.

Recall your missionaries from heathen lands to preach peace on earth, good will amongst men, to the politicians who are trying to keep alive the passions and hatreds of the civil war among the American people.

He was a little verdant or he never would have said: Perhaps we had better walk on till we come to a settler where we can sit together. Oh! no, she said sweetly; you sit down in the chair and I will be the settler.

Do you think it will rain this week?
The river is still full of trash, floated off by the freshet.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office stood at 84 degrees.

A very sensible article on the cultivation of tobacco in this section will be found on the second page of this issue.
Read it.

It is a noticeable and pleasing fact that the hucksters and their stands are cleared off the sidewalks after market hours. Now enforce the cattle ordinance and have the streets looking less like a filthy cow-pen.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Postponed.
The meeting of the Hancock, Jarvis and Shackelford Club has been postponed until to-morrow night, at 8 o'clock, at Mund's Hall. The Club is doing good work and will continue to work until the sun goes down on election day when their efforts will be crowned with victory.

All Aboard!
We trust that it will be a fair day tomorrow and so do the many who have made up their minds to attend the excursion to be given on that day on the Passport, under the management of the ladies of Front street M. E. church. The boat will leave her wharf at 8 1/2 o'clock and will run to Smithville and the forts. Resfreshments will be served on board at reasonable prices.

Smack Fishing.
Mr. John Flowers will commence smack fishing at the rocks and wrecks off the bar at the mouth of the river on Monday next. His schooner rigged yacht Arlette has been remodeled for the business and Mr. Flowers expects to bring fish to this market alive in the wells in his boat. He has a capacity for one hundred bunches and in the near future our citizens can get their pig fish alive and pickling.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Show, parties in want of this celebrated Show can now have their orders filled at JACOB'S Har-ware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st.

At the Sound.
If the rain will only hold up long enough to admit of it there will be a jolly good time at Oak Grove to-night. Mr.
Schutte will manage it in his usual good style. There will be some very nice concert music furnished by an Italian band, and also dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock.
One beautiful feature of the affair will be the display of five hundred Chinese lanterns. A clear evening would doubtless see the grounds thronged with pleasure seekers.

The Camels are Coming!
The circus is coming, variously, not only one but possibly five; Coup's, John Robinson's, Forepaugh's, Hamilton's and the Great Eastern. It has now been three years since the staid pater-familias has smelt the sawdust or the children have seen any animals other than the equine, bovine, canine, feline and quinine species. We can promise all of them a full tent and a general good time.
Just some right along; don't wait for an invitation.

News from Columbus.
Capt. V. V. Richardson, of Columbus, the worthy Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of this Congressional district, is in the city to-day to attend a meeting of the committee which was held this morning, at 11 o'clock, in the Reading Room of the Purcell House.
From Captain Richardson we learn that the crops in Columbus which, up to the time of the recent heavy rains, gave promise of the most abundant harvest yield ever known in that section, have now begun to show signs of rust, i. e. in the cotton, while other crops are more or less damaged also by the deluge of water which was poured from the clouds for the past three weeks.

Politically old Columbus is all right for Hancock, English, Jarvis and Shackelford and the balance of the Democratic ticket. One good thing about this staunch old Democratic county is, that she never gives forth an uncertain sound.

Medallions of all kinds are worn, either

Simply Absurd.
An old story is being revamped—somthing that Prof. Kerr is alleged to have said, that Wilmington and Morehead City are only about ten feet above the level of the sea. If Prof. Kerr did say that he is a well, a mistaken man.
There are parts of Wilmington which are thirty feet above the level of the river at ordinary high tide, and nineteen-twenty feet of the area of the city is ten feet or more above the river. The low portions are the water ways and they are, as a rule, from three to five feet above the water. How much the river level here is higher than that of the ocean, at the bar, we do not know. Prof. Kerr should go to work and measure some more localities.

A Chance for You.
The following, which we clip from the Raleigh News, will be of interest to some of our readers: Samuel J. Fall, general agent of Emigration for the State of North Carolina, in Great Britain, Wellingboro, England, would be glad to hear from any one in the State who would be willing to let land on shares, finding house, implements, etc. He has a number of respectable, working farmers willing to come, but without capital. Also mechanics, brickmakers and others. Address him as above; give full particulars, terms offered, etc.

Caught at Last.
Prince Swain, Jr., a highly colored gay Lothario, has gotten himself in a scrape. He has been employed by a gentleman living on Wrightsville Street, and being anxious to come to town on Monday night took a piece of rope with a horse attached to one end of it from the stables, connected with one of the boarding houses. The hostler missed the small piece of rope—and horse, about 11 o'clock and notified Mr. Nathan Meyer that his rope and horse were gone. About 4 o'clock a. m. the hostler, who was lying in ambush, discovered the Swain riding the horse up to the gate when after dis-mounting he turned the horse into the lot and tried to steal away. The facts were reported to Mr. Meyer who, upon reaching the city swore out a warrant before Justice Gardner and the gay Lothario was brought to this city by Deputy-Sheriff Morris. Swain was bound over in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. We learn that Swain has been practicing such tricks before and was once before detected after having taken a horse out of a stable and driven him to town and back again.
It is said that Swain is also given to 'borrowing' other people's clothes without their consent and after wearing to return them. On one occasion he borrowed, in this way, a handsome full dress suit of black broadcloth and then 'borrowed' a horse and came to town and danced all night and returned them about daybreak.

The latest new book is entitled: 'A Woman After All.' This should be sufficient to put every bachelor on his guard.

It very frequently happens that the girl who has the most bang to her hair has the biggest holes in her stockings.

The wife of every fashionable undertaker expects to receive a valuable and costly present from her husband at the close of the watermelon season.

A good looking woman appears to glide through life as easily as a boy slips down on a greased banister. An ugly woman has to thump and bump through like an empty barrel on a spring freshet.

combination so complete and perfect.
We cannot speak of it too highly. It is such a gem as fits a pupil for life and for death.
Under its guidance he is sure to tread always the path of duty, virtue and honor.

Virginia Military Institute
LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.
Session Opens 1st Sept'r.

THE REPORT of the Special Board of Examiners for 1875 closes thus:— In conclusion, your Committee cannot too highly commend what has seemed to them the marked and distinguishing features of this Institution, the happy combination of the military system of instruction with the departments of science and of literary culture, and the more ennobling culture of the heart and soul. Nowhere else have we seen this combination so complete and perfect.
a gem as fits a pupil for life and for death.
