We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:

The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.

Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.

Personalities must be avoided.

And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents, unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Death of Mrs. Whitaker.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Minnie E. Whitaker, wife of Rev. R. H. Whitaker, of Raleigh, Editor of the Friend and Templar. Mrs. Whitaker was in the 38th year of her age. She was a native, we think, of Federal Point Sound, in this county. She was a lady of literary acquisitions and tastes and in early life contributed to various papers under the name of Minnie E. Ray. Of late years she has assisted Mr. Whitaker in the editorial department of his paper.

What other preparations fail to do, Hall's Hair Renewer surely accomplishes. It renews the hair and especially restores its color when gray and faded. As a dressing it is unsurpassed, making the hair moist, soft and glossy. The most economical preparation ever offered, its effects remain a long time, and those who have once made a trial of it will never use any other. -Advertiser and Union, Fredonia, N. Y.

Virginia Military Institute LEXINGTON, VIRGINIA.

Session Opens 1st Sept'r.

THE REPORT of the Special Board of Examiners for 1876 closes this:

In conclusion, your Committee cannot too highly commend what has seemed to them the marked and distinguishing features of this institution, the happy combination of the military system of instruction with the departments of science and of literary culture, and the more ennobling culture of the heart and soul. Nowhere else have we seen this combination so complete and perfect. We cannot speak of it too highly. It is such a system as fits a pupil for life and for death. Under its guidance he is sure to tread always the path of duty, virtue and honor.

In Explanation.

In the communication published by us yesterday on the "doctor question," now agitating the good people of Pender county, there were some expressions which we regret. Of course we do not acknowledge any responsibility for the views or the language of our correspondents, but at the same time we must insist that all discussions carried on in our paper's must be conducted in language devoid of personalities. Had we been aware at the time of the expressions used, the article would never have appeared in our columns. We make this statement in justice to the author of the article signed "Invalid," who is as honorable a gentleman as there is in Pender county.

Stephen Richardson Found Guilty of Murder—Sentence of Death.

The Jury which was impaneled to try the case of Stephen Richardson, colored, charged with the murder of his mother-in-law, Lucy Phinney, in this city on the night of the 19th of July last, after being out all night came into Court this morning, at 9 o'clock, and stated through their spokesman, Mr. E. J. Lilly, that they had agreed upon a verdict. The prisoner having been brought into Court the verdict of the jury was then made known and the word, guilty! which was recorded by the Clerk as it was pronounced by the Jury, sealed the doom of the prisoner at the bar. The Solicitor, Col. Moore, then arose and prayed the judgment of the Court. The counsel for the defense asked a postponement by His Honor until they could have a short conference as to what further action they should take in the matter. This request was granted by the Judge, and Messrs. E. S. Martin, Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., F. M. Fremont and W. B. McCoy retired for a brief consultation into the jury room. The Court in the meantime suspended business and awaited the presence of the counsel. In about half an hour the counsel for the defense returned and stated through Mr. Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., that after a full and free consultation among themselves they had come to the conclusion that there was nothing more that they could do. They felt that they had discharged their duties conscientiously and would therefore not interpose an objection to the prayer of the Solicitor that judgment should now be passed upon the prisoner. His Honor then said, "Stephen Richardson, stand up. You have been charged, arraigned and tried for a most heinous offence by a jury of your countrymen, you might almost say by a jury of your own selection, for according to the laws of North Carolina, a prisoner in New Hanover county can almost make his own selection of the jury which is to try him. You have been represented by able counsel, who have shown great ability and learning in the management of your case and the verdict in this case is a righteous one. You have had a full, fair and impartial trial. The evidence has been positive, convincing and overwhelming. The threat which you used that you would kill them all or eat your breakfast in hell just before you struck the death blow which slew Lucy Phinney proved your intention. In the last quarter of a century," continued the Judge, "I know of but one case that has transpired in this county which will compare with this for its diabolical character." His Honor here stated that he referred to the case of David Martin, the negro boy who killed little Willie Carter and commenced cutting him to pieces immediately after his death.

His Honor now warned the prisoner that there was no hope for him, and that it would be well for him to look after his future interests in the next world. If the Bible teaching is correct," said the Judge, "there is a final judgment hereafter and if the Bible teaches the truth in another instance there is to be a future punishment also. You may obtain pardon hereafter for the crime committed in this world if you apply yourself unceasingly now and in earnest during the few remaining days that are left you on this earth, and to that end you shall have free communication with ministers of the gospel to assist you in making ready for that final judgment hereafter. The sentence of the law and the judgment of the court for the crime of which you have been found guilty is, that you will be remanded to the jail, from whence you came, there to remain until Friday, the third day of September, Anno Domini 1880, and on that day, between the hours of 11 o'clock in the morning and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, be taken from the jail by the High Sheriff of this county and conveyed to the common place of execution and there hanged by the neck until you are dead. And may the Lord have mercy upon your soul!" After the sentence of the court had been passed the Solicitor arose and stated to His Honor that information had reached him that notwithstanding the fair and impartial trial and the verdict of the jury in this case that it was said the execution of the law would fail and the sentence of the Court not be carried out, as Richardson's friends intended to rescue him. The Solicitor then said he would ask His Honor to make an order upon the County Commissioners for an extra guard for one month, in order that an efficient and faithful watch might be kept upon the jail for the Still Another.

It never rains but it pours. We learn from good authority that John O'Brien's Inter-Ocean circus will visit this city sometime during the season. Well, come right along Johnny and show us what you can do. Variety is the spice of life and we like the spice and circus too.

Personal.

Prof Th. Von Jasmund, who has been teaching German and French in this city for the past two years, will leave for Oxford to-morrow where he goes to fill an engagement in the Horner School. Prof. Von Jasmund has made many warm friends during his short sojourn in this city who will be sorry to see him leave.

Last of the Season.

Forwarded is, forwarded, and Capt. Harper notifies the community that the last blackfish excursion of the season will be given on Tuesday next, on his fine seaboat, the Passport. Capt. Harper knows just where the rocks lay and excursions always have plenty of fun hauling in the feisty tribe. See ad, in another column.

Water Works.

Aldermen Foster, who was appointed a committee of one at the recent meeting of the different trade organizations and from the Board of Aldermen has taken steps to gather all the data as to cost and best system of water works for this city. He has written many letters explaining the location of the city and the geography of the surrounding country. He thinks that if Wilmington will have a system of water works during the next twenty years it will be constructed during the next two years.

Capt. Drane.

We learn from the Macon Telegraph & Messenger, of a recent date, that Capt. Henry M. Drane, formerly President of the Wilmington & Manchester R. R., has resigned the position he has so long held as General Freight and Passenger Agent of the Macon & Brunswick R. R. The resignation to take effect on the 15th inst. We do not know the circumstances, under which Capt. Drane has felt compelled to resign his position but the Telegraph & Messenger records the fact with much regret.

Venor's Prophecy.

Mr. Henry Venor writes from Montreal, Canada, making the following forecast of August weather. It should be remembered that his calculations are for more northern latitudes: Heat will in all probability extend through the first half of the month of August, and equal if not exceed the heated term of July. August will likewise be characterized by severe storms and heavy showers of rain, or in places hail; but on the whole the month will be comparatively a dry and hot one in Canada and the bordering United States. A cool to cold term with frosts may occur between the 15th and 20th days, after which heat may again be expected up to September 1. The month will resemble that of the year 1876. I already foresee very early and severe cold, with snowfalls in October.

The Ratification.

The General Committee met yesterday at the City Hall for the purpose of perfecting the arrangements for the Grand Ratification which is to be had here next Tuesday week, the 24th inst.

A resolution was passed requesting the Presidents of the different Ward Clubs to call their organizations together Thursday night next, for the purpose of arranging for the procession.

The following speakers have accepted invitations to attend and will be here: Gov. Jarvis, Senators Ransom and Vance, Judge Fowle, Hon. J. M. Leach, F. H. Busbee, Esq., Jno. W. Shackelford, Esq., and D. H. McLean, Esq.

Arrangements have been made by the Committee with all the railroads centering at this place, for special rates to visitors. Two cents per mile each way, or four cents per mile for the round trip will be charged; the steamboats will also convey persons who may wish to attend for one fare the round trip.

A general invitation is extended to all Democrats throughout the District and State to attend, and it is expected that many will be present.

Fresh Mackerel.

A school of genuine mackerel were captured by the Hawlett seine off Masonboro Inlet yesterday and were brought to market for sale. What they were doing so far South can hardly be accounted for. They are identically the same kind as are caught off the shores of Massachusetts and compare favorably with our pig fish in quality, flavor, etc.

Arrested.

Isabella Robinson, a mulatto woman, who is quite a character and carries her fancy parasol raised high over her head in sunshine or cloudy weather, was arrested by order of Mayor Fishblade this afternoon and lodged in the Guard House, upon the complaint of Simon Richardson, colored, for disorderly conduct. Isabella will tell her innocence at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning before the Mayor.

Masonic Ceremonies.

The ritualistic ceremony of the Masonic fraternity will be held over the body of the late P. W. Fanning, at Oakdale Cemetery, on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The mortal remains of the deceased were consigned to mother earth on yesterday, but the beautiful ceremonies as prescribed by the Masonic ritual were not held on account of the heavy rain which was falling at the time. The grave was filled up but left unfinished until such time as would be appointed for the ceremonies.

Prisoner Escaped.

Delaware Moore, colored, was arrested in Paddy's Hollow this morning by Police Officer Bryant, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The prisoner went quietly along until he reached the gate of the City Hall yard when he suddenly struck Officer Bryant two blows. Officer Bryant held on to the prisoner until his (Moore's) shirt gave way when he took leg ball down Third street. At or near the corner of Market street he was captured and carried back to the Station House, where he was locked up in a cell, and, by the way, the same cell in which his brother, Primus Moore, died when incarcerated for drunkenness about eighteen months ago. It was reported that Richardson, the convicted murderer, had escaped, and persons were seen running from every direction towards the jail, and soon the thoroughfare in the vicinity of the City Hall and County Jail were thronged with panting humanity. It was soon ascertained that the doomed man was securely hogged in the jail and the crowd dispersed.
