Philadelphia, has made upwards of $20,000,000 in business, and says that judicious newspaper advertising is one of the keys of his successful business life. He advertises in about 50 different papers in Philadelphia alone.

The Raleigh Observer truly says that the grand ovation which our people are according to Gov. Jarvis must inspire him with enthusiasm, and add greatly to his zeal in the campaign. Wherever he goes the people, regarding him as the representative of the glorious Democratic party, turn out en masse to meet him, and do him honor, for if ever a people ought to be organized, North Carolinians owe it to that party which has rescued them from terrible evils, and restored to them the blessings of self government, and given them an economical and honest administration of public affairs.

In his speech at Columbus, Mr. Hayes scolded Baine and the stalwarts who propose to raise the bloody shirt again. Speaking of the South, he said: "National prosperity increasing there, race prejudices and antagonisms have diminished, the passions and animosities of the war are subsiding and the ancient harmony and concord and patriotic national sentiment are returning."

This is in effect Gen. Grant's testimony as regards the condition of the South. It is what Garfield, too, would have said a year ago. It is on the strength of such evidence as this that a bloody shirt campaign is to be built. Let them try it. They are welcome to all they can make out of such an issue as this. If that is the only card they can play they might just as well throw up their hands at once.

HANCOCK'S CHANCES IN OHIO.
 A New York special to the Cincinnati Enquirer says: Judge Hoadly, of Cincinnati, visited Gen. Hancock to-day, and also called at the National Democratic headquarters. There he said: "I wish to be understood as saying emphatically that Gen. Hancock's prospects in the Backeye State are bright. I can promise a certain victory for the Democrats in the presidential election if they will do their duty in the ordinary work of the campaign."

THE FLORIDA ORANGE CROP.
 The increase in the orange crop of Florida within the past six years has been most remarkable. In 1874, says the Baltimore Sun, the orange plantations were very few; the larger ones not exceeding four. Now they are numerous on Indian river, Orange lake, on the Upper Ocklawaha and Crystal rivers, while the St. John's river is lined for two hundred miles with valuable groves. In 1874 the entire crop was represented by 2,500 half barrel cases. It has risen since then by the following gradations: In 1875 the crop was 10,000 half barrel cases; 1876, 15,000; 1877, 31,000; 1878, 75,000; 1879, 200,000. The superior quality of the Florida oranges makes them in greater demand than any of the imported oranges. Even those of Havana are less sought for by reason of their being less pulpy and of inferior flavor.

HILLSDALE, Mich.
 R. V. FIERCE, M. D.:
 I had a serious disease of the lungs, and was for a time confined to my bed and under the care of a physician. His prescriptions did not help me. I grew worse, coughing very severely. I commenced taking your Medical Discovery, which helped me greatly. I have taken several bottles, and am restored to good health.
 Yours respectfully,
JUDITH BURNETT.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug 17, 1880.
 I am unable to learn what the Democratic Committees here think of our prospects at this writing, none of the officers or members being in the city, but it is certain that everybody else in Washington is sure of success. I talked last night with a gentleman—an ex-soldier—who has just returned from Pennsylvania, where he spent two weeks among our comrades. He gives the same report as do all the other Republican ex-soldiers, who having determined to support Hancock, have gone among their soldier friends in his interest. He says that a vast majority of those he saw were earnestly for the General. Similar assurances come from other sections. Party affiliations seem to have no effect. Men who voted twice for Grant, and then for Hayes, speak of voting for Hancock as a matter of course. All the information received here, I repeat, is favorable. Some of the Maine men express doubt as to the result in September, but none as to November. From Ohio the same is true. After consideration of all the week's reports—including those received by the clerks in charge at Democratic Congressional Committee Headquarters—I think there is reason to hope for much better results than are generally anticipated. I expect to see Maine, Ohio and Indiana solidly Democratic at the September and October elections, and that Vermont will in September astonish every Radical living. Allow me space, for the first time in years, to put prophecy in print.
 A report was received here last night, but not generally believed, that Hon. Proctor Knott, of Kentucky, had been killed by a political opponent. Mr. Knott was—in, I hope—the kindest man in the world. But for his fight against Baine—a fight few men had the courage to make as he made it—this representative Kentuckian would have had an influence in Congress which has hardly been exceeded by that of any other man since Clay's time. The power of Baine, in and around the Capitol, has for four years been used effectually against Knott, and in a measure has been successful. The great skill and ability necessary in pushing to prominence a charlatan like Eugene Hale, and in so managing the affairs of a corrupt public life as to escape actual dismissal from public service was sufficient to inflict irreparable injury upon the gentleman who I trust incorrectly is just reported dead. GURDGE.

Harbor Island Light—Citizens Protesting Against Its Removal.
 Pursuant to a call the citizens of Carteret county assembled in large numbers on Cedar Island Aug. 12, 1880, to take some action in regard to the abandoning of Harbor Island Lighthouse. The meeting was called to order by Capt. Joseph Lupton, who nominated Geo. W. Day, Esq., for Chairman and W. H. Phillips as Secretary.
 The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in a few brief remarks. He was followed by Capt. John J. Lupton in a few well-timed and pertinent remarks as to the dangers attending all navigators of the inland waters of North Carolina with no light on this dangerous Bar, and moved that the Chairman appoint a committee of five to draft resolutions expressing the sentiments of the people in regard to the action of the officials in discontinuing this important light. The Chairman thereupon appointed Messrs. Lupton, Emory, Styron, Goodwin and Gaskill.
 During the absence of the Committee the meeting was addressed by Capt. Joseph Lupton, Capt. Emory and others, as to the importance of this light. The Committee returned with the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:
 Whereas, We the citizens of Carteret county in public meeting assembled do most earnestly protest against the action of the Lighthouse Board in abandoning Harbor Island Lighthouse, situated near the Bar and only entrance to Core Sound, and whereas, by this action of the authorities the lives and property of many of our citizens are exposed to imminent and deadly peril, (as the depth of water on this Bar is 7 feet and is only 200 yards in width) especially in stormy and heavy weather. Therefore, be it
 Resolved 1st, That we look upon the action of the Light House Board in discontinuing or abandoning Harbor Island Light House as an outrage and infringement upon the owners and navigators of vessels through the inland waters of North Carolina.
 Resolved 2nd, That we, as navigators and owners of vessels, expect and demand some protection for our lives and property at the hands of the general government, as we pay into the Treasury of the United States all the revenue that is required of us by law.
 Resolved 3rd, That we respectfully call the attention of each and every one of our Senators and Representatives in Congress to this glaring piece of mismanagement and that they use their influence to have this Light continued or a new Light House erected near this intricate and dangerous bar.
 Resolved 4th, That the Secretary forward the proceedings of this meeting to the Wilmington Review and Star, Raleigh News and Observer, Newbernian, New North Star and Ocean Wave of Beaufort with the request that they publish the same and that he also forward a copy of them to each of our delegates.
GEO. W. DAY, Chairman.
W. H. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

Barbecue and Speaking at Freeman's Roads.
 The Democratic voters of Ransom township met at Freeman's Roads on Saturday, 14th inst. The object was to form a Hancock and Jarvis Club. The club was duly organized, fifty good old Democrats coming forward and enrolling their names for the support of the regular nominee, G. B. Robeson, Esq., was elected President. The club was ably and eloquently addressed by Capt. D. O. Allen and D. S. Cowan, Esq. Hancock and English were highly eulogized.
 A very interesting feature of the occasion was a barbecue which was given to those present by the citizen of the neighborhood and to which ample justice was done after the speaking was over with.
 The Secretaries were requested to make a brief report of the proceedings of this meeting to the Democratic papers of the city. Respectfully,
JOHN D. LEYD,
M. M. B. DEVAUX,
 Secretaries.
 The Star will please copy.

OUR PLATFORM.
 The following is the Platform of the Democratic party adopted at the National Convention held recently at Cincinnati:
 1st. We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democratic party, as illustrated by the teaching and example of the long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the platform of the last National Convention of the party.
 2d. Opposition to centralization and to that dangerous spirit of encroachment which tends to the consolidated powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever be the form of government, a real despotism; no sumptuary laws; separation of church and State for the good of each; common schools fostered and protected.
 3d. Home rule, honest money, a strict maintenance of public faith; a currency consisting of gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand; strict maintenance of public faith, State and National, and a tariff for revenue only.
 4th. The subordination of the military to the civil powers, and a general and thorough reform of the civil service.
 5th. The right to a free ballot is right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

6th. The existing administration is the representative of conspiracy only, and its claim of right to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals, to intimidate and obstruct electors, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people and imperils their institutions.

7th. The great fraud of 1876-77, by which, upon a false count of the electoral vote of two States, the candidate defeated at the polls was declared to be the President, and for the first time in American history the will of the people was set aside, under a threat of military violence, struck a deadly blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from civil war, submitted for the time, in the firm and patriotic faith that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other. It imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than was ever addressed to the conscience of a nation of freemen.

8th. We excrete the course of this administration in making places in the civil service a reward for political crime, and demand a reform by a statute which shall make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of the usurper, by billeting villains upon the people.

9th. The resolution of Samuel J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for the exalted place to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the leaders of the Republican party, is received by the Democrats of the United States with sensibility, and they declare their confidence in his wisdom, patriotism and integrity, unshaken by the assaults of a common enemy, and they further assure him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow citizens, who regard him as one who by the elevating standard of public morality and adorning and purifying public service, merits the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

10th. Free ships and a living chance for American commerce on the seas and on the land. No discrimination in favor of transportation laws, corporations or monopolies.

11th. An amendment of the Burlingame treaty. No more Chinese immigration except for travel, education and foreign commerce, and therein carefully guarded.

12th. Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and the public land for actual settlers.

13th. The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against corporators and the commune.

14th. We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of the Democratic Congress, which has reduced the public expenditure forty millions a year; upon the continuation of prosperity at home, and the national honor abroad, and above all, upon the promise of such a change in the administration of the government as shall insure us a genuine and lasting reform in every department of the public service.
