"MAN WANTS BUT LITTLE HERE
BELOW,
NOR WANTS THAT LITTLE LONG." So said the poet; but I call on you Starving, Hungry, Cassius-like looking people to meet me in solemn conclave and pronounce the Poet a Fraud and a—; well, I won't say it. You all know we want

Perversions!
Cause we all ain't Doctor Tanners.
Then the great question arises where can they be found?

SEVENTEEN THOUSAND

will be put up to-morrow.
A quiet and pleasant home is insured to all mothers that use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup for their little ones. It contains nothing injurious.
How shall we get the young men to church? asks a religious weekly. Get the girls to go, brother, get the girls to go.
Everybody can get suited with Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S
Hardware Depot.
Mr. J. W. Zimmerman has been confined to his home by sickness for the past week. His condition is said to be very critical.
The water in the river has fallen very rapidly and there is hardly enough on the shoals to float the steamer over. Yesterday the steamer North State dragged over the shoals near Fayetteville.
Rice birds are plentiful in the fields and hunters are kept busy shooting them.
The birds are very destructive to the crops and it is estimated that they consume about one-tenth of the yearly yield.
Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st. If.

The only way to shine, even in this false world, is to be modest and unassum-ing. Falsehood may be a thick crust, but in the course of time truth will find a place to break through. Elegance of language may not be in the power of us all but simplicity and straightforwardness are.
When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan.
Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards.
Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices.
Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

Bully Mashed.
Bobt. Merrick, a colored laborer on the wharf of the New York steamer, was caught by a gang plank this morning as the Benefactor was moving off and was very badly mashed. It is thought that his right leg is broken just below the thigh, and that he received some internal injuries. He was put on a dray and carried to his home where medical attention was summoned. Merrick is said to be one of the best hands employed by the steamship company and was discharging his duty when caught by the plank.
My life was saved by Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—E. B. Lakdy, Selma, Ala.

The Closing Scene.
The mammoth ratification demonstration of two days' continuance was fittingly closed last night by able speeches from North Carolina's distinguished senior Senator, Hon. M. W. Ransom, and our talented young Elector at Large, Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, of Raleigh.
By 8 o'clock the benches and surrounding space about the speaker's stand were all filled by an eager, untiring crowd of interested auditors, noticeable among whom was a large number of ladies. Senator Ransom was eloquently introduced by Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, and by his magnificent presence alone claimed the attention of the vast assembly before uttering a syllable. He began without passion and disdaining even his usual eloquence to present certain of the important issues now riveting the attention of the entire country in a manner which, though plain and practical, was yet highly illustrative and exceedingly statesmanlike. In touching upon national af-airs and the aggressions of the Republican party upon every theory of constitutional government and the trampling under foot of every constitutional safeguard of the people, he spoke from a Southern standpoint, of the gratitude due from Southern men to Northern Democrats for their uncessant labors in their behalf and in the cause of good government. In this connection the distinguished speaker called attention to the fact as the result of their unflinching efforts of the progress and onward march of the great Democratic party now in a majority of both branches of Congress where thirteen or fourteen years ago both houses were intensely Radical, and in a popular majority in the country of more than 250,000 votes; not only a solid South but having actually more than a majority in the Northern States.
The speech of Senator Ransom was interrupted before its conclusion by a show of rain, but upon announcement by the chairman of the meeting quite a large portion of the large concourse of people adjourned to the City Hall, where though nearly prostrated by the intense heat, the Senator was compelled by the audience, who would accept no withdrawal, to conclude his address. In the hall he presented the claims of General Hancock to our support in a surpassingly eloquent manner. His classical illustrations here were very fine.
We regret that General Ransom's physical condition told so greatly upon his strength last night, but with all the depressing influences thus bearing upon him he acquitted himself like the statesman he is.
At the conclusion of this address Mr. F.
H. Busbee, who was announced to share with Senator Ransom the honors of the evening, ascended the stand, amid the applause of the audience. Though the hour was late, and Mr. Busbee announced that he had no purpose of detaining them to repeat what had been already told, and with such hearty effect, still as he proceeded he was betrayed by the enthusiasm of the crowd into making quite an eloquent and tasteful address. He had the misfortune to claim the attention of the people late in the order of this extended feast of good things, but he made his mark most handsomely. We look upon our young Elector at Large as one of the most intellectual young men in the State, with a future of brilliant political possibilities before him. He has a very fine conception of the art of stump speaking which he is carrying most excellently well into successful practice. His labors in this cavass in our State will do the Democratic cause great good.
With Mr. Busbee's speech closed these great ratification ceremonies, the like of which has never before been enjoyed in such numbers and with such enthusiasm and with so many distinguished speakers at any one time in the history of this section.

To Morrow Week.
One week from to-morrow is the time set apart for the execution of Stephen Richardson. He will be launched into sternity from the same gallows on which Allan Mathis expiated his crime. The doomed man is receiving spiritual instructions from pastors of his own election.
You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

All Over With.
With last night the two days of ratifying and speech-making have ended. It was, as we have previously stated, the most successful affair of the kind ever known here and probably in the State.
To the distinguished gentlemen who were with us and who addressed as the thanks of our people as a community are due.
There are others, too, to whom our people are warmly indebted and those are the gentlemen of the committee and the marshals. The best evidence of the eminence of their efforts is found in the success they attained. They worked well and faithfully and successfully, and on all sides have we heard them warmly complimented.
The Crops.
We are sorry to learn that the cotton crop in Onslow county is cut short, probably one-fourth, from the results following on the recent heavy rains. This information is from a gentleman who farms in that county.
We also learn that the corn crop in the Holly Shelter section has also been considerably damaged by the rains but to what extent our informant could not state.
A Pleading Incident.
There is a very pleasing incident connected with the visit of the Pender county delegation to Wilmington on the steamer John Dawson which has not yet found its way into print. When the steamer reached Meares' Bluff, on its way to the city, the United States flag was run up, amid immense and hearty cheers, and our young friend Scott Robinson, of Black River Chapel, was called for vociferously by the crowd. He responded to the call, and a gentleman who was present tells us that he made a happy, pleasing and eloquent little speech, one that would have done credit to an old campaigner.
There were about one hundred of these gallant sons of Pender on the steamer and the hearty enthusiasm with which they were received here was but a graceful tribute to gallant and determined a community of true and zealous Democrats as can be found anywhere in North Carolina.
The Bone and Muscle producing Malt, the Nerve quieting Hop, the superb Malarial antidote Quinine, and other precious ingredients, combined without fermentation, are the ingredients of 'Malt Bitters', prepared by the Malt Bitters Company.

City Court.
Charles King, colored, an inmate of the Work House, or at least a supposed inmate, as he has been sentenced there for a term, who was arrested on the streets Tuesday night with a large rock in his hand just after a gentleman in the Democratic procession was struck and cut very badly on the head, was arraigned this morning before the Mayor. The testimony of several gentlemen proved that the defendant was caught with a rock in his hand at or near the place from which the missile was thrown which struck the party referred to above. The Mayor ordered the prisoner to be confined in a dark cell for thirty days.
Andrew Johnson, another colored boy about 15 or 16 years of age, who was arrested by a couple of gentlemen last night while the Democratic crowd was moving from the stand to the City Hall with a rock weighing 2 1/2 pounds in one hand and while in the act of picking up another, was arraigned upon the above charge this morning. The witnesses—one of whom was a peace officer—explained to His Honor that this thing had been indulged in by the negroes or negro boys ever since 1868 whenever the Democratic party had a demonstration of any kind, and that the citizens were beginning to think they had endured it quite long enough, and they did not propose to submit to it any longer. The Mayor then ordered the last named defendant to be imprisoned in a dark cell for fifteen days.
His Honor, in passing sentence, said he was determined to ferret out and break up such violations of the peace and he proposed to preserve the peace, no matter which party was making the demonstration or enjoying the jubilee.

Mails collected from street boxes every day at 3:30 p. m.
A Polite Request.
We have been asked to state that the torchbearers in the late procession who have not yet returned their campaign lamps to the different Wards from whence they obtained them, are now politely requested to bring them back, so that the lamps may be held in reserve for another occasion of a similar kind.
Send Them to the Poor House.
The poor demented colored woman who roams about the streets, known as "Crazy Kitty" should be taken care of by some one. To-day she appeared on the streets bareheaded and only one thin garment on, which partly concealed her body.
Her condition to-day approximated nullity, too closely for decency's sake,— "Joshua the First" is also a person worthy of charity, made so by his infirmities, and he likewise should be taken care of. Why cannot they be sent to the Poor House?

The Shoe of the Future.
It is said that an entirely new shoe has a top of fine patent leather stitched on in a scollop. It laces with a narrow ribbon, has a broad heel and small toes, and, indeed, have all the dressy shoes and boots now made. A novel boot has a black cloth top stitched on with a scollop, but with white stitching, the effect of which is very dressy and yet not too conspicuous when the shewiness of the light and checked cloth tops so much worn is considered. The very general liking shown for the Oxford tie has brought into favor a lower cut shoe than was previously worn, and like the button boot these now button more often than lace.
The open 'sandal' boot with intersections of lace is much used for evening, though it failed to find favor at first, and to prove this the observer will find that a star-like radiating inlet piece on the step of kid slippers and shoes is beginning to be looked upon with liking.
Anything that displays a pretty stocking is liked and will be liked for home and evening wear. Red kid shoes and slippers for home wear are trying to make their way to the front, and, such is the passion still unabated for red, that they will succeed is predicted.

Voice of the People.
HILLSDALE, Mich.
R. V. FIERCK, M. D.: I had a serious disease of the lungs, and was for a time confined to my bed and under the care of a physician. His prescriptions did not help me. I grew worse, coughing very severely. I commenced taking your Medical Discovery, which helped me greatly. I have taken several bottles, and am restored to good health.
Yours respectfully,
JUDITH BURNETT.
