times by their gentle stillness but oftener by continued uproarious crying, induced specific influence quiets the little one, being compelled to be in Morganton on Monday. We were glad to make his ac-

Postage on Newspapers.

The superintendent of the foreign mail division of the post-office department, ha-discovered that the international regulations in regard to the postage on newspapers mailed to foreign countries in the postal Union, or to the United States from those countries, is one cent for two ounces, instead of four cents for two ounces, as has been heretofore charged. An order making this change in rates was issued by the department recently.

Mr. Shackelford.

There is a pretty general regret expressed that our gallant standard-bearer in this Congressional district could not be with us at our grand ratification. We trust, however, that Mr. Shackelford will come before us soon and let us hear him on the great issues of the day. If he could manage to be in Wilmington on the 9th of September, the day when Coup's circus is to appear here, he will find a large crowd ready made to hear him.

Curiosities of Life.

Lay your finger on your pulse and know that at every stroke some immortal passes to his Maker; some fellow being crosses the river of death, and if we will but think of it, we may well wonder that it should be so long before our turn comes.
Half of all who live die before seventeen years. Only one person in ten thousand lives to be a hundred years old, and but one in a hundred reaches sixty years.
The married live longer than the single.
There is one soldier to every eight persons, and out of every thousand born ninety-five weddings take place.

What Vance Says.

The Charlotte Observer has interviewed Senator Vance since his return to Charlotte on Thursday morning. In speaking of the grand ratification meeting held on Tuesday and Wednesday, the Senator remarked to the reporter that, "the meeting was a successful one in every way, though the weather was insufferably hot, especially so when he spoke in the afternoon. He was struck by the superior intelligence of the audience and was told that it was largely composed of delegations from the neighboring counties—men who had come especially to hear the issues discussed—so they spoke not to the people of New Hanover only, but to the whole country contiguous thereto, and he believes that some good work was done. Gov. Vance does not know where he will speak next, but thinks it likely that he will go to Virginia shortly, as he has received urgent invitations to do some work in that State, and indeed he is already announced to speak at several different points. However, if the Executive Committee decide that he is needed at home, he will not leave his own State."

Purge out the morbid humors of the blood, by a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS, and you will have clearer heads as well as bodies.

Handkerchief Dresses

French manufacturers have given great variety to the mouchoir or handkerchief patterns so popular during the summer for gingham dresses, and have introduced them for autumn and winter.
They have woven the finest wool and silk mixtures into squares like handkerchiefs, with the center plain or in small checks, while the border is the gayest Madras plaids; or, to be more exact, the border is formed of lines or stripes of many bright colors, which cross each other at the four corners of the square, and these corners form the plaids which are the stylish feature of the new mouchoir woolen goods. Plum, peacock blue, bronze, and myrtle green are quiet colors most used for the centers of these thick woolen handkerchiefs, while brilliant hues are in the borders. A great deal of red and yellow is in these borders; but, instead of being the glaring red and yellow of bandana handkerchiefs, these colors are toned down into what is called old red and gold. Twilled plaids like Sarah armure goods in bird's-eye patterns, plain woven homespuns, and cloths of good weight are brought out in these designs. Ladies who prefer black dresses to those with colors will wear mouchoir dresses that are entirely black.
The center of each square is black as saura wool, and the striped border is silk, with satin lustre.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Plow, parties in want of this celebrated Plow can now have their orders filled at JACOBI'S HAR-ware Depot, No. 30 S. Front st. u.

City Court.

Mollie Lewis, colored, from Paddy's Hollow, was arraigned this morning before the Mayor upon the charge of disorderly conduct. The interview with the Mayor benefited the city treasury $2.00 and the defendant was permitted to depart in peace.

First of the Kind.

Mr. T. B. Henderson received in this city yesterday a car load of Irish potatoes from Tennessee. They came loose in the car, and we are informed that it is the first shipment of the kind ever received in this city. They ordinarily come barrelled up.

Old John Robinson.

John Robinson's circus is billed to appear in Raleigh early next month. It is coming in behind Coup's and will come down the W. & W. R. R. as far as Goldeboro, and then go up the N. C. R.
R. to Charlotte, after which it is to work down the Carolina Central to Wilmington. At least, this is the programme which has been mapped out to us.

A Runaway.

A horse, attached to a buggy, the property of Mr. B. F. Mitchell, took fright this noon near the corner of Front and Red Cross streets, and dashed madly down Front street to Market where the animal fell, throwing the driver, John Carver, out over the horse's head. He quickly regained his feet and grabbed the bit and succeeded in checking the animal.
Strange to say that the driver, horse nor buggy were in no way hurt.

Chloral Applied Externally.

Chloral hydrate is now employed physicians with considerable success in neuralgic pains and in cancer of the breast, and this, in some instances, when other sedatives and narcotics have notably failed to give relief. The mode of application practised in such cases is by the saturation of folds of lint of the size of the part to be treated, brought into close contact, then covered with three or four layers of lint covered with oil-silk or spongio-piline wrung out of hot water.
The application to raw surfaces requires, of course, special care in manipulation.
The strength of the solution is about four drachms to sixteen ounces of water, and the addition of a small quantity of glycerine is found advantageous.

Nearing the End.

Alice Kelly, the poor, debauched, degraded white creature, who has been so often mentioned in police reports, was arrested on the wharf this morning, about 6 o'clock, in a state of beastly intoxication by Officer Francis James and conveyed in a cart to the Guard House.
When arrested the prisoner was lying near the cap of the wharf with her feet hanging over near the water. Last night the same depraved, forsaken outcast was found by some of the street hands lying directly across the rails road track, and was removed from her perilous position by these parties. It would seem from the circumstances connected with this woman's arrest, together with the fact of her being found on the Railroad last night that whiskey and the devil have almost accomplished their infernal work, and the last act of a fallen woman's life, which is so frequently suicide, had been contemplated by the unhappy wretch. Not being in a condition to appear before the Mayor this morning the case was continued until Monday.

For Our Lady Readers.

Among importations of early fall goods are quantities of fine, all-wool plaids, in bright colors or plain dark grounds.
The infinite variety which has prevailed in fashion for several seasons past, is repeated in the new autumn styles.
Wide belts of saddle girth canvass, fastened with straps of leather and buckles, are worn with all sorts of demi-toilet costumes.
At present it is the high fashion in Paris to make the corsages of evening dresses high in the neck, but with very short or no sleeves.
The plain skirt with full unlooped back drapery is American in origin, but it is gaining in favor on the other side of the Atlantic.
Two bouquets are worn on the corsage, one at the waist on the left side, the other at the neck, also on the left side, high and far back.
Very young ladies have adopted the fashion of wearing large embroidered and lace-trimmed collars, just like those worn by small children.
New night robes have deeply shirred pointed yokes back and front, while the large bishop sleeves are also shirred into the arm-holes, and at the wrists.
Jersey webbings of plain stockinet and in all colors to match the grounds of plaids and damasse novelties, are in the hands of manufacturers for the fall trade.

A Great Enterprise.

The Hop Bitters Manufacturing Company is one of Rochester's greatest business enterprises. Their Hop Bitters have reached a sale beyond all precedent, having from their intrinsic value found their way into almost every household in the land.—Graphic.

We thought yesterday that the backbone of Summer had been broken, but it has stiffened up mightily since then. To-day, at 3 o'clock, the thermometer registered 92 degrees, the same for that hour almost every day this week.

Capt. R. M. McIntire left here this morning for the Northern markets for the purpose of purchasing his Fall and Winter supplies. He tells us that he is going the round's this time of the carpet manufacturers and that it is his intention to make a specialty of that branch of the business.

Dear Sir—My wife, who had been ill good.

Yours truly,
THOMAS J. METHVIN,

Dr. R. V. PIERCE:
Dear Sir—My family have used your that is claimed for it. It is the best of all preparations for women complaints. I recommend it to all families.
