See a woman on horseback in another column, riding near Speer's Vineyards, with a bunch of grapes from which Speer's Port Grape Wine is made, that is so highly esteemed by the medical profession for the use of invalids, weakly persons and the aged. Sold by Druggists.

A New Vessel.

The three masted schooner Alfaretta S. Snare, Captain Swan, from Baltimore, with a cargo of corn, has just arrived here. The Snare is a brand new schooner, measuring 252 tons burthen, and this is her first voyage to any port.

Magistrate's Court.

Before Justice Mills Fanny Woodward, Lizzie Wiggins and Lizzie Johnson were arraigned upon the affidavit of A. F. Davis for an affray at the Long House. Lizzie Wiggins was discharged and the other defendants found guilty and sentenced to pay fine and costs.

Another Flag.

A Hancock, English and Shakerford flag was raised at Kelly's Cove, in Bladen county, on Saturday last, in the presence of a large and enthusiastic concourse. Speeches were made by Dr. Lucas, Mr. R. P. Allen and Mr. N. A. Steelman, Jr. There was much enthusiasm manifested on the occasion.

A Pleasant Affair.

Friends to the number of two score assembled last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. David, in this city, to partake of the bounteous refreshments spread for them there, in honor of the celebration of the silver wedding, in New Haven, Conn., of Mrs. David's elder sister. It was a very pleasant affair and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were so fortunate as to be there.

The case of Fowler and Vick versus Kerchner and Boatwright, in relation to the old Journal Publishing Company which has been before the Superior Court at Raleigh this week and which excited so much attention, was decided by the jury in favor of the plaintiffs. The defendants have appealed to the Supreme Court.

Excursion.

Our citizens are offered one more opportunity this season to take a trip to the Blackfish Ground, the Forts and Smithville. The Ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church will give an excursion on the steamer Passport on Wednesday next. Refreshments will be served, and the fare has been put down to very reasonable rates.

Young Men's Democratic Club.

It has been thought advisable by many to organize another Hancock and English Club in this city, and to that end Mr. E. A. Oldham has taken the matter in hand, and all young men who desire to become members will either leave their names with him or at Jewett's book store. He wishes us to state that only those who intend to take an active interest in the organization are desired. They want young men who not only 'mean business,' but will 'perform business.'

Has Returned.

Mr. Julius Hahn, who was among the first of our merchants to go North this season, has returned here, having completed his purchases. He tells us that he has bought largely and that he has lots of pretty and cheap things as well as unusually full lines of regular standard goods. He will communicate with his patrons through the columns of the REVIEW in a few days.

Purge out the morbid humors of the blood, by a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS, and you will have clearer heads as well as bodies.

Unmailables.

Unmailable matter, directed as follows, remains in the postoffice in this city: Letters for Rand, Avery & Co., Boston, Mass.; Lea More, Bule Hill, I Co.; Nathan Townsend, Niger Depot; Daniel Brown, McDowell Station; Coca, Polly & Co., Richmond, Va.; Lizzie Dupree, Burgaw, N. C.; Henry Brown, Dupret Gorias; H. R. Kornegay, Kenansville, N. C. Papers for Mary F. Hill, Malden, W. Va.; Mr. P. Williamson, Philadelphia Penn.

Knights of Honor.

The third annual session of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor in this State was held in Asheville beginning on Tuesday last. Thirty-seven lodges were represented, Mr. H. P. West, P. D., being the Representative for Carolina Lodge, No. 434, of this city. Mr. N. Jacobi and Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, Past Dictators, were also in attendance. Those gentlemen have returned to the city and from them we learn that nearly every lodge in the State was represented.

The annual report of G. D. Theo F Klutz shows the order to be in a healthy and flourishing condition in the State. The lodges during the last twelve months have increased from 25 to 40, with a membership twelve months ago of 855 as against 1,502 on the 30th of June last, while the finances of the Grand Lodge are in an exceedingly healthy condition.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz: Grand Dictator—Dr. W. H. H. Cobb, of Goldsboro. Grand Vice Dictator—J. M. Spragins, of Tarboro. Grand Assistant Dictator—Dr. R. F. Lewis, of Lumberton. Grand Treasurer—S. C. Scofield, Davidson College. Grand Reporter—P. C. Carlton, of Statesville.

Grand Chaplain—Rev. L. A. Bixie, Mt. Pleasant. Grand Guide—N. Jacobi, of Wilmington. Grand Sentinel—Jordan Stone, Asheville. Grand Trustees—J. C. Buxton, of Winston; G. W. Blount, of Wilson; L. C. Hains, of Lexington.

Representatives to the Supreme Lodge, which meets at Minneapolis, Minn.—P. C. Carlton, with Theo F Klutz as alternate. The next meeting of the Grand Lodge of the State will be held in Raleigh, on the fourth Tuesday in August, 1881.

City Court.

The Mayor held an unusually large levee this morning, but the explanation may be found in the fact that there was a larger docket than usual.

The first case called was C. Loftin, colored charged with disorderly conduct, $10 fine or fifteen days in the City Prison was the sentence pronounced by the Court and defendant went below.

Scip Hill, colored, charged with being drunk and down, was told to go and try and do better.

Alice Kelly, with a similar charge as in the foregoing case, was likewise released.

A precocious colored youth by the name of H. Thomas, of the same stamp as those now undergoing sentence in a dark cell for throwing rocks at a Democratic procession, was brought up on the charge of cursing and abusing a white lad, and sent to a cell for fifteen days.

Mary Eliza Lively, colored, was arrested and arraigned for assault with a deadly weapon upon Joseph Gallagher, white. The testimony of Officer Pette-way, who made the arrest, was in substance that he met Mr. Gallagher on the streets before day, between 3 and 4 o'clock, on Sunday morning, bleeding very profusely and that he was informed by the wounded man that he had been badly cut with a knife by a negro woman named Mary Eliza Lively, whereupon he proceeded to the house where defendant lived and arrested her and brought her and the wounded man both to the Guard House.

The testimony of officer Tom Mayer was then introduced and he stated that he saw both parties together in Paddy's Hollow on Saturday night and that Gallagher appeared to be trying to get away from the woman and told him (Mayer) so.

Fanny Brewington, colored, who lives in close proximity to the defendant, in Price's Alley, near Fourth and Castle streets, testified that she heard Mary Eliza Lively ordering the man out of her house on Saturday night and threatening if he did not leave to cut the d—n — out of him.

The injured man had his wound dressed by the City Physician shortly after he reached the guard house; The stab was made under the right nipple and came very near being a fatal cut. His Honor bound the defendant, who, by the way, is an old offender, over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $200. She was then committed to the custody of the Sheriff who in default of bail committed her to the safe keeping of Dan Howard, the colored Jailer for the county of New Hanover.

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan. Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

The Rocky Point Democrats.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the democracy of Rocky Point township was held at Rocky Point on Saturday last, in accordance with previous notice. A Hancock, Jarvis and Shakerford Club was organized. Thomas J. Armstrong, Esq., was elected President by acclamation, Messrs. W. F. Robitzsch, Jesse B. Bowden, James Corbett, James West, brook and C. J. Miller, Vice-Presidents. Dr. E. Porter, Corresponding, Mr. John E. Durham, Recording Secretary, and Mr. Sterling Allen, Treasurer. A suitable constitution and by-laws were adopted.

The Club already numbers most of the Democrats of the township and is in fine working trim. It will meet once in every two weeks.

A New Shoe Store.

Messrs. A. & I. Shrier have concluded to open in this city, about the middle of September, a first-class boot and shoe store. The establishment will be located in the handsome Repton building, on Market street, between Front and Second, now under lease by the Messrs. Shrier. This store is being fitted up in a very becoming manner, and will soon be ready for the reception of stock. The trimmings will be mostly of black walnut and when completed it will prove to be one of the handsomest shoe stores in the South. Mr. A. Shrier goes North to-morrow and will make the tour of the Northern markets. He will not only buy boots and shoes, but an unusually large and handsome stock of Fall and Winter clothing.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

Yesterday he showed us a letter from P. L. announcing a complete change of programme after October, viz:

MOVING DAY.

WHITE SULPHUR, VA., Aug. 23, 1880.

REV. AND DEAR LUTHER—I think it would be the thing just now to let it go that may possibly change their present quarters for more eligible and roomy ones sometime about October.

P. L. Bridgers & Co.,

20, 22, 24, 26, and 28 North Front St.,
Wilmington, N. C.

The price of Bacon and Butter, Flour and Lard, Cheese and Potatoes, Whiskey and Wine and such like bulky articles, which we have a large supply, are going up, but we retail them at our old rates, buying large supplies and paying cash. I think it will pay to sell liberally, the heavy things, and broken parcels of every kind, as to be ready to march in light marching order.

Yours faithfully,
P. L.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1.

The undersigned hereby assumes, temporarily, charge of the Wholesale and Retail Department.

During the next thirty days extraordinary inducements will be offered to cash customers, and for approved city papers, especially in exchange for Heavy Groceries and broken stock. Determine to astonish the natives, and compete for trade with foreigners, we hereby announce a Great and General Reduction of Prices in the above, if application be made to us personally and within thirty days.

Very respectfully,
LUTHER.

Ever since which announcement, one would think from the looks of things, that it was Martin himself who had risen from the dead, and another "Diet of Worms" had reassembled at the stores of
