Fall Stock.

CROWN & RODDICK
45 Market Street.

DESIRE TO INFORM THE PUBLIC generally and Wholesale Cash buyers in particular, that we are full up with the Cheapest Line! OF Dry Goods that has ever been offered in this market. NO BUYER visiting this city will do himself justice by passing our door, as we are underselling the market in many of the regular staple lines.

We have marked down all goods that belong to Summer wear and are offering Many Special Inducements to our patrons.

We would call particular attention to the following GENTS' DOGSKIN DRIVING GLOVES Slightly spotted, 75c. Worth $1.00.

Calicoes!

New Fall Calicoes at all prices in beautiful designs.

Bleached and Unbleached Cottons!

We have laid in a very heavy stock of the above and are offering them at lower figures than ever. We have all the popular brands. Cur 4 4 Bleaching at 10 cents per yard is without any exception the best value ever offered.

Linen Handkerchiefs.

A Job at 10 cents. These goods require no comment.

Give us a Call!

BROWN & RODDICK,
45 Market St.

New School.

I HAVE DETERMINED TO OPEN A First-Class Male School in this city about the 1st of October next. Fall particulars will be given on my return to the city.

School Books.

I HAVE NOW ON HAND a full supply of School Books and School Stationery. Teachers and parents will find it to their advantage by first calling at HEINSBERGER'S.

The Life of General Winfield S. Hancock. Personal, Military and Political. By Rev. D. X. Jenkins, D. D., and Frank H. Norton. For sale at THE LIVE BOOK STORE.

Notice.

MY PATRONS and the public generally are respectfully notified that I have secured the services of Jas. E. King and William Douglas, two of the best workmen in the State, who will hereafter be found at my shop, ready to serve them all.

Removal.

I HAVE REMOVED from my old stand on Front street to the convenient and commodious store on Market street, recently occupied by Capt. Conner, and next east of Lippitt's corner, where I will be prepared this Fall to offer the handsomest stock of goods in my line ever brought to Wilmington.

Window Glass—all sizes at Altaffer & Price's.

Don't forget to look out for the grand street parade of Conner's circus on Thursday.

Save your money and buy your Building Supplies from Altaffer & Price's.

A valuable horse, the property of Capt. T. J. Sutherland, died on the road between this city and Middle Sound on Sunday last.

It may be some consolation to our friends to know that Turner's Almanac promises very rainy weather on Friday next.

Mr. John M. Robinson has removed his hat store to the store on Market street, next East of Lippitt's corner, lately occupied by Capt. Walter Conner.

Capt. K. W. Price, acting Chairman of the County Executive Committee, has called a meeting for to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock, at the office of Mr. F. H. Darby.

The cost of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is only 25 cents. A bottle will convince even the most incredulous of its excellence.

R. K. Bryan, Esq., of the Fayetteville Examiner, arrived here this morning from Fayetteville and has gone through to his family at Topsail Sound.

The wind is from the East today, but that fact seems to have but little effect on the thermometer, which stood at 90 degrees at 3 o'clock. At 8 o'clock this morning it was 86, and at 11 o'clock at 88.

Capt. R. M. McIntire has returned to the city from his regular Fall visit to the Northern markets. He bought largely and expects to sell ditto. He promises that the patrons of the Review shall hear from him in a few days.

The river is now uncomfortably low. Steamboatmen are complaining bitterly and are suffering much inconvenience by the low stage of the river. There have been some rains in the interior, however, and relief may be near at hand.

Window Glass of all sizes, Doors, Sashes and Blinds, Builders' Hardware, etc. Low prices at JACOBI'S.

As announced in our advertising columns, Jas. H. Carraway has secured the services of two excellent barbers and hair cutters, James E. King and William Douglas. The first named has many friends here, he having been in the business in Wilmington for many years, since which time he has resided in Greensboro.

We shook hands this morning with Gas Kosenenthal, who has just returned from the Northern Markets with his stock of boots and shoes. His search for the best and the prettiest and the cheapest was patient and thorough and he bought largely in Philadelphia, New York and Boston. He is just receiving the first installments of his new stock, and will talk to our readers in a day or two.

My life was saved by Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—E. B. Lakely, Selma, Ala.

Magistrate's Court.

Sam Larkins, colored, was up before Justice Gardner to-day upon the charge of assault and battery, and ordered to pay fine and costs. The same defendant was then arraigned upon a peace warrant, and judgment entered against him, in which he was ordered to give a bond for good behavior, failing to do which he was turned over to the custody of the Sheriff.

Senator Bayard

In view of the fact that Senator Bayard may return by this route in a few days would it not be a good idea to try and induce him to stop here and give us a talk? What say our people? and what say the Democratic Executive Committee? It is true that we have recently had a grand demonstration, and it is equally true we believe, that another, at even a trifling cost, would do good. The entire cost of the ratification meeting was but a little over $300, when everybody expected that it would cost at least $600. If it is possible, let us have the old Roman with us. There are people who would go hundreds of miles to hear him.

A city correspondent, whose note is just at hand, expresses the same desire as we have given utterance to above. He further suggests that an effort be made to get Senator Bayard to accompany Senator Bayard as far as Wilmington. We second his suggestion but would remark that if anything is to be done it should be done at once. Senator Bayard passed through here last night on his way to Columbia and may be expected to return to-morrow night, if he takes this route, on his way back.

Since the above was in type we have learned from Capt. Price, Acting Chairman of the County Committee, that the Committee have had some correspondence with Senator Bayard, desiring him to stop here on his way to or from Columbia and give us a talk and that he has refused, saying that he cannot accept the invitation now, owing to a press of engagements elsewhere, but that he is to return to North Carolina in October and that he will then visit Wilmington.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI Hardware Depot.

The Jewish New Year.

Yesterday was known among the Jews as Rosh Hashanah, the New Year's Day of the Israelites. The opening of the year is observed with special services by the orthodox Jews. These services were held by those of the faith in Wilmington in their synagogue yesterday. During the day the places of business of the devout Israelites were closed. Yom Kippur or 'Day of Atonement,' will fall on the 16th of September. It is the great fast day of the Jews. However a Jew may fall back on the faith of his fathers—two habits link him to his Church; one is to pray for the repose of the souls of his dead parents on the anniversary of their death. Yom Kippur is a very solemn fast for 24 hours. The fast is complete, not even water being allowed. It begins at sunset on the preceding day, and with solemn ceremonial. A favorite and powerful Jewish tradition is that Rosh Hashanah closes the year's record, and thence to Yom Kippur angels scan and dispute the record, but on that day the status of every Jew is fixed for the new year. From the services of that day every Jew is believed to go forth with a conscience pure toward God, having forgiven all enemies and sought also God's forgiveness for all transgressions. In a newness of spirit, reconciled to both God and his fellow men, the Jew closes the solemnity of Yom Kippur, which he began with a religious service, with a mind eased of offense toward his Creator.

Purge out the morbid humors of the blood, by a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS, and you will have clearer heads as well as bodies.

Speaking at Burgaw.

In accordance with announcement, Mr. J. H. Currie, of the commercial firm of Woody & Currie, of this city, addressed the people of Fender county, at Burgaw, yesterday. There was a very intelligent audience in attendance, to whom Mr. Currie spoke for something more than an hour in an address replete with practical common sense and wisdom, to which his hearers listened with evident profit, enjoyment and instruction. We expected to have taken copious notes of his speech for publication in the REVIEW, but after his exordium became aware that we could give only a synopsis of his remarks. This is unfortunate, for there was not a word which he uttered but should be read and pondered upon by every patriot who has the least regard for the welfare of his country or is aware of the vital interests which are now at stake before the people. He was listened to with profound attention, was frequently interrupted by a hearty applause, and his effort cannot fail of working beneficial results. He treated of all the subjects which are now engaging the attention of the political world, National, State, Congressional and local, urging upon the people in eloquent language the duties and perils of the hour, and we must feel that his words went home to the hearts of his listeners. We feel well assured that if his words are heeded and acted upon there will be no doubt as to the result in Fender.

The Young Men's Hancock, Jarvis and Shackelford Club will meet at the City Hall court-room to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock.

The Fete Champetre intended for Oak Grove, at Wrightsville Sound, to-morrow evening, has been postponed until next Wednesday evening, when extensive preparations will be made to entertain the large number of guests expected then.

City Court.

Mingo Hill, colored, not the venerable Mingo, Superintendent of Pine Forest cemetery, but a youth of wild proclivities, was arrested last night for being drunk and disorderly and resisting the police. The Mayor ordered sentence to be entered against the defendant of $10 fine or ten days in the C. P.

Everybody can get suited with a Pocket Knife, also Table Cutlery, at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The Monument to Dr. King.

The monument which the friends of the late Dr. J. Francis King proposed to erect to his memory has arrived here and has been removed to Oakdale Cemetery, where it is to be erected. It is of beautiful marble and will be a very attractive structure. It weighs nearly 18,000 pounds and when upright will stand nearly 18 feet high. It is a graceful tribute to one whose memory will long remain green in the hearts of those who have mourned him.

McClammy Will Be There.

Capt. Buxton speaks at Burgaw to-morrow, as we announced yesterday that he would. He has at his heels one or two lesser lights who will perhaps "jingle de chorus." Maj. C. W. McClammy was in town to-day and has been induced to reply to the gallant Captain. He will be at Burgaw to-morrow and will demand a division of time. If this is conceded we all know how the result will be. Poor Buxton! He may well be sorry that he abandoned the ermine, soiled though it was.

Improving.

We are glad to be able to report that Captain Jno. N. Masfitt, who suffered the loss of his right thumb several days ago at his residence, on Wrightsville Sound, is now steadily improving. The agony that this valiant Confederate cruiser endured while the doctors were manipulating the surgical knife and saw was never depicted, we are told, in his countenance, notwithstanding he refused anything like anaesthetics. One would have thought the "old sea dog" was contemplating a pleasure cruise in a fine steam yacht. So much for nerve, and that's the kind most have been displayed when the gallant ship Florida, commanded by this same heroic old Confederate, ran the gauntlet of the enemy's whole fleet in Mobile Bay.

County Commissioners.

We gave in yesterday's issue the proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners up to the time of our going to press, at which point a recess was taken until last night, when the following transactions were recorded:

The Treasurer presented his account for the month of August, showing balances on hand—for the general fund account, $12,200.62, and for school fund, $6,783.34; balance due on special fund account, $791.24.

The Treasurer also submitted his annual report, which was examined and found correct.

The following is a list of jurors drawn for the first Monday in October—Criminal Court:

S. P. Collier, F. A. Newbury, John D. Nixon, Isham Quick, L. Brunhild, E. W. Rue, C. C. Ketchum, Preston Spriggs, W. H. Clark, H. W. Bryant, J. W. Taylor, Edward Howard, W. E. Springer, Joseph McLeur, W. R. Tallaferrro, John T. Flowers, R. A. Kingsbury, J. T. E. Love, D. C. Love, J. H. Chabourn, Jr., W. I. Gore, W. H. Montgomery, G. N. Moore, D. M. Bryant, C. M. Harris, Wm. Kellogg, Abram Moseley, T. B. Sykes, R. P. Hall, J. G. Darden.

The Chicago Times says: Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is highly endorsed by ministers, judges, physicians, surgeons, by men of literary and scholarly distinction, and by individuals in all the walks of life.

Off for Europe.

Mr. D. P. Ormes, Superintendent of the Telephone Exchange in this city, has been ordered abroad. He will leave here to-morrow morning for Washington City en route for New York, at which port he will sail on the Thursday of next week, the 16th inst, on the steamship City of Brussels for London. He is to have charge of the work of erecting telephonic lines and organizing exchanges in London, Glasgow, Dublin and other cities in Great Britain, on the completion of which he will settle in London as Superintendent of that division. Mr. Ormes is a very clever gentleman and has made many friends here who will part with him with much regret. The Exchange in this city will be placed in charge of Mr. W. H. Stirling, Manager of the Western Union office in this city, until Mr. Ormes' successor is appointed.

Arousing Its Readers.

An alarm of fire at midnight is a startling thing, but not half so startling to many who hear it as would be the sudden knowledge of their own dangerous physical condition. Thousands of thousands are hurrying to their graves because they are carelessly indifferent to the insidious inroads of disease and the means of cure. It is the mission of H. H. Warner & Co., with their Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, to arouse men to a sense of their danger and then cure them.—Memphis Appeal.

IN MEMORIAM.

Fell asleep at noon of the 4th inst., in the 62d year of her age, Mrs. MALVINA E. BRINKLEY, relict of the late William E. Brinkley.

"Gone home! The door through which she vanished
Closed with a jar, and left us here alone;
We stand without, in tears, forlorn and banished—
Longing to follow where one loved has gone!"

Like a silent river whose death renders it noiseless, was the true merit of the subject of this simple notice. Gentle, retiring, and unobtrusive in manner, affable and loving in disposition, her influence, both abroad and within the sacred precincts of home, was like the sunshine of a Summer's day, shedding its brightness upon every thing, and keeping the hearts of those who knew and loved her best, in the serenity of perpetual daylight. One felt the better for having fallen under this rare and gentle influence. Stricken with a languishing, but painful disease, her suffering, especially during the last few weeks of her life, was almost beyond description, but no murmur ever passed her lips; patient, gentle, self-sacrificing, as had been her lovely life, so was also her serene and peaceful death. Long months before the messenger came, she knew and greeted him, set her course in order and trimmed her lamp, and although she knew not the hour of her Lord's coming, whether in the morning or at noon, or in the last watch of the night, she was ready when the summons—"Lo! the Bridegroom cometh!" fell upon her dying senses, and with steady feet, and lighted lamp, she passed noiselessly in and the door in the household, a night of sadness and sorrow, missing one so cherished, so precious. But God has promised to be with us in trouble. "He will remove no earthly good, without leaving us a greater." He can brighten the darkest hour, ever causing the sorrowing to be glad. O mourner! at the grave of your loved one, pause before the fresh-made mound, and think of that glorious announcement: "I am the Resurrection and the Life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live!" And as the fast gathering tears fall upon the sweet flowers, love's last tribute, who can bear untroubled the thought that your loved one is triumphing in the blessed fulfillment of the prediction—"O Death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?"

"Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!"
