

What the Dissent to a Fusion Electoral Ticket in that State Amounts to.

Mr W A Cromwell, of Maine, who is one of the electors on the union ticket just formed arrived from that State yesterday. He says that the convention at Portland on Tuesday was practically unanimous in its adoption of the union electoral ticket. The opponents of union were Solon Chase and thirteen others. Of these eleven were Republicans who had voted for Davis and had come into the convention for the purpose of preventing harmony.

Fighting the war over Again.

Providence, Sept 22.—The Republicans here seem to have adopted a tactic within the past week. They began the campaign by denouncing mud throwing, and were quite conservative until recently, when they launched out into strong abuse and bitter sentiment. Col. H J Spooner said on Saturday that Hancock was a rebel in Union garb, Ex-Gov. Van Zandt says Hancock is a rebel at heart and to night Col Daniel Ballou said that the South hated New England men, and new England men ought to appreciate that fact; also that he considered the institutions of the country were in danger from Southern ideas, and rather than have these institutions pass into foreign hands, he believed the people of New England would prefer to see the soil resume its original sterility, and our towns and cities turned into a howling wilderness.

Such are the arguments made here by the Republicans. Meanwhile the Democrats are quietly receiving large accessions to their ranks. Three more companies of Hancock Guards were formed to night, and over 200 new names were placed on the roll.

Hancock Pioneers in Eastern Connecticut.

NORWICH, Conn., Sept 22.—Nearly 1,000 Hancock pioneers marched in procession to night. The city was gay with flags, streamers, skyrockets, colored and electric lights. The streets were blocked with the crowd. Three Hancock banners were raised. It was the largest Democratic demonstration ever seen in this Republican stronghold.

CAROLINA

Monroe Enquirer: Receipts of cotton for the week ending last night 654 bales. Receipts for the month 1,075 bales, being 603 bales more than up to this time last September.

Goldsboro Messenger: The Congressional Convention of this district will be held in this town on Tuesday of next week. Mr B L Stith has left second crop peaches on our table. They are, however, very small. The flavor is good. The first crop was early large peaches.

Charlotte Democrat: A highway robbery was committed near Salisbury on Wednesday last, by three discharged men of Robinson's circus. They got in company with a countryman who had sold some cotton, and after drinking together, they knocked him down, tied a suspender round his throat, and robbed him of about $40.

Snow Hill Advocate: Mr Wyatt Churchill, of our county, informs us that with a fifty saw gin and a five horse power engine, he can gin fifteen thousand pounds of seed cotton in one day. —Our young townsmen, Mr D S Carraway, having completed his medical studies in this place, and not being peculiarly able to attend lectures has obtained a position as traveling agent of the News and Observer to make money to attend next Fall.

Durham Recorder: The new brick mill of John Shields was burned last week, rumor says, in a somewhat singular way. Some one shot at a water bird from one of the upper windows of the mill, and the wadding, blowing back on the roof, ignited it. The mill was probably the most substantially built in the county, and was comparatively new, and was located on or near the site of the old Shields Woolen Mill, on Eno, about 8 miles from Durham and Hillsboro. We learn there was insurance on the property, which probably does not cover the loss.

Raleigh News & Observer: Everybody is up to the eyes in business, Raleigh never had a finer trade. —More people have gone North from North Carolina this year than ever before, save during the centennial year. This is one good result of low fares. —Excursion trains are to run on all the roads to the colored fair next week. It will be a big thing and there will be hundreds of white visitors. Our people, one and all, feel a lively interest in the industrial progress of the colored race. —Mr Eaton Bledsoe yesterday sent to the Republican county executive committee his declination of the nomination for the House from this county. He appears to have been led to take this step by the discussions in the party in Raleigh township, there being hundreds of bolters in East Raleigh and Oberlin.

Charlotte Observer: A bet of $200 against $150 that Hancock would be elected the next President of the United States was made in the city yesterday.

day. —Arrangements were made yesterday afternoon for Gen Leach to speak in the opera house to-morrow night. He will no doubt have a large crowd. —Gov Vance spoke at Harrisonburg, Va, on Monday. A special dispatch says a large crowd was present and the speaker handled the assistant Republicans with gloves off, showed up the affiliation of Mahone with the Republicans, and that he never intended to accept any proposition of compromise that did not allow Garfield negroes to name a Democratic electoral ticket. Powerful was the impression created. While Vance was speaking John Wise was addressing a crowd of Julyers, Republicans and negroes in the court-yard.

Chatham Record: Mr. John M Burnett, of this county, informs us that he has raised a pumpkin this year that measures four feet 7 inches in circumference. —Eleven persons were baptized last Sunday by Rev G P Moore, at Rock Spring Church, about two miles north of this place. —Yesterday, the residence of the Messrs. Luke Bros., at Lockville in this county, was accidentally burned up. It is said that $800 in gold and $1,000 in paper currency was burned with the house. No insurance. —Mr Richmond Jones, of this county, informs us that he found a reptile last week that was about six inches long, had eight horns and twelve legs! He opened the reptile's mouth with a stick and spit tobacco juice into it until the creature commenced to vomit and turned over and died. —One day last week two men were digging a well near Clover Orchard factory in Alamance county and met with a terrible accident. It seems that they were in the well preparing for a blast, which went off accidentally and blew them out of the well, disfiguring and mutilating them in a horrible manner. One of them, named Joe Vincent, it is thought will die from his injuries.

Purge out the morbid humors of the blood, by a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS, and you will have clearer heads as well as bodies.

dollars due by note dated October 1st, 1875,
