A Large Party,

FORMERLY RENT PAYERS, tired of landlord rule are now in a monthly installment list. Every dollar heretofore paid by them for rent now goes to purchase a home and not where the woodbine twine.
Under the installment plan no rent is paid, thereby avoiding a steady drain on family resources and enabling parties to secure comfortable homes and to become their own landlords.

Extraordinary Dispatch.

The British brig Signal, consigned to Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, which entered at the Custom House, in this city, last Tuesday, began discharging ballast on Wednesday at noon, shifted wharf and loaded and cleared for Bristol today at 11 a. m. with 2,780 barrels resin.
All of this was done within 36 hours of daylight, which looks as if Capt. Williams is a pushing shipmaster.

Personal.

Mr. F. H. Darby, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, has returned from the mountains, much improved, we are glad to see, in health.

Mr. Thos. A. Darby, formerly of Wilmington, but now of Battenville, Fla., and a large miller and turpentine farmer in that State, is here on a short business visit. He comes to obtain laborers for work on a new railroad line on which he has a share in a contract. He is looking very well.

A North Carolina Boy in Florida.

Some eight or ten years ago, Mr. Chas.
B. Rogers, a Chatham county boy, left his home at Pittsboro for Florida with no capital save a cool and steady head and willing hands. To-day, we understand he is one of the most prominent business men in that State. He is located at Cedar Keys, where he does an immense business, both in dry goods and groceries. He has three large warehouses and sells about $200,000 worth of goods in a year and has a No. 1 credit everywhere.

THAL'S. Pump sole boots and shoes for

A Correction.

Miss Lou Stewart claims that we were not exactly correct in a clipping from the Newbern Net Shell, published by us a few days since in the State News column.
Inasmuch as the paragraph seems to have created a wrong impression among her friends, we cheerfully correct it. She says she has no idea of leaving Wilmington, but that it is her intention to establish a branch of her business in Newbern, the main depot being located here. She will open in a new and eligible location in a few days with an excellent stock of hair working goods, notice of which will be given through the papers.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's Magazine for October opens with A Chapter of American Exploration, by William H. Rideing, describing the perilous journey of Major Power and his party through the wonderful canons of Colorado with numerous illustrations that add materially to the interest of the text. Seven Weeks a Missionary, by Louise Coffin Jones, is a narrative of some curious experiences in the island of Hawaii, very different from those of the ordinary traveller and throwing a much stronger light on the character and condition of the native population. A pungent paper on Americans Abroad, by Alain Gore, holds to ridicule the general tendency of our countrymen, and more especially of our countrywomen, whether traveling or resident in Europe, to depreciate the customs and manners of their native land and admire everything foreign. Mrs. Helen Campbell describes her studies in the Slums with a pathetic little story, from real life and L. Lejeune completes in a second paper his panoramic survey of the history and characteristics of Horse Racing in France.
Glimpses of Portugal and Portuguese is an admirably written and well illustrated article. Mrs. Hooper gives an account of the great French tenor, Roger, with extracts from his diary, containing anecdotes of Jenny Lind. The serial of Adam and Eve has reached an exciting crisis. There are several short stories, one of them by Ouida, poems by Phillip Bourke Marston and Dora Reed Goodale, and the usual variety of short papers in Monthly Gossip and Literature of the Day.

Is It Possible

that a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Pothu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.—

Why They Failed.

The package of papers, for Burgaw, from the issue of the DAILY REVIEW of the 28th inst., left the Postoffice here all right but was returned to us today without a wrapper and endorsed on the back, 'Returned for address.' We presume that it must have broken open in the bag, or on the mail car, and hence the intelligent mail manipulator, instead of looking for the wrapper, returned the entire package to us. It is forwarded by this mail. We mention these facts for the benefit of our subscribers at Burgaw who have doubtless been "cussing" us for somebody's else's fault.

Suspicious.

A gentleman in this section reports to us a fact which may probably be worth investigating by some one. He says that last Spring there came into his neigh-hood a colored man and woman, the former claiming the latter to be his wife, who had in their possession a number of very fine articles of dress and fancy goods which they have since been disposing of by degrees. Some of the goods, our informant thinks, must have been worth originally a dollar a yard. They came to his neighborhood from Onslow county, and it is thought that they hailed originally from the Newbern section. There are reasons for supposing that the goods were stolen from some store in that part of the State. It might be well for our Newbern contemporaries to look into this matter.

In Demand.

Our distinguished fellow-citizen, Col.
Duncan K. McRae, is in receipt of invitations, almost daily, from different parts of the State, requesting his presence at some political gathering. We saw it stated in the Goldboro Messenger yesterday that Col.
McRae was expected to deliver a speech at Mt. Olive, in Wayne county, on the 7th of October. We immediately sought the Colonel out to know if he contemplated going, and was informed that he had received no invitation to speak at Mt. Olive.
Col. McRae further says that it will be impossible for him to be at the above named place on the occasion referred to, as he is compelled to be at Greene county court at that time, but that on Saturday, the 9th day of October, if the people of Mt. Olive and Wayne county want to hear what he has to say against the Credit Moblier stock holder, De Goyler pavement bribe taker and the Electoral Commission fraud—James A. Garfield, he will tell them with pleasure. Col. McRae did not express himself exactly as we have done, in his remarks to us, but we know he will tell the plain truth in his speech, and consequently we have only anticipated him a little.

Col. McRae has also received an invitation to deliver the regular annual address at the Raleigh State Fair on the 19th of next month. But this invitation, we are informed by Col. McRae will be compelled to decline from force of circumstances over which he has no control.

The State Fair.

Owing to a press of matter during the past few days, we have omitted to acknowledge the receipt, from Capt. C. L.
Denson, the Secretary, of an editorial invitation to attend the State Fair, which is to be held in Raleigh next month, from the 19th to 23d inclusive. Capt. Denson writes:

"It is gratifying to report that our prospects for a Fair valuable to the interests of N. C. and successful in every point of view were never so bright as at present.
With abundant crops and increased prosperity and in good spirits the people manifest by their prompt interest and our large correspondence, that our next Fair will surpass anything in the history of the Society. The displays of fine stock and the variety of machinery will be a great feature on Wednesday, and the trials of speed throughout the week are on an extensive scale."
