Fall Stock.

BROWN & RODDICK
45 Market Street.

DESIRE TO INFORM THE PUBLIC generally and Wholesale Cash buyers in particular, that we are full up with the Cheapest Line!

Dry Goods

that has ever been offered in this market. NO BUYER visiting this city will do himself justice by passing our door, as we are underselling the market in many of the regular Staple lines.

We have marked down all goods that belong to Summer wear and are offering

Many Special Inducements to our patrons.

We would call particular attention to the following

GENTS' DOGSKIN DRIVING GLOVES
Slightly spotted, 75c. Worth $1.50.

Calicoes!

New Fall Calicoes at all prices in Beautiful designs.

Bleached and Unbleached Cottons!

We have laid in a very heavy stock of the above and are offering them at lower figures than ever. We have all the popular brands. Our 4-4 Bleaching at 10 cents per yard is without any exception the best value ever offered.

Linen Handkerchiefs,
A Job at 10 cents. These goods require no comment.

A Large Party,

FORMERLY RENT PAYERS, tired of landlord rule are now on my monthly instalment list. Every dollar heretofore paid by them for rent now goes to purchase a home and not where the woodbine twineeth. Under the instalment plan no rent is paid, thereby avoiding a steady drain on family resources and enabling parties to secure comfortable homes and to become their own landlords.

Loss of Life.—Thousands sink into an early grave by not giving immediate attention to a slight cough which could have been stopped by a 25 cent bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The jewel of a servant girl is the one who hangs all of her mistress' embroidered underwear on that portion of the line most conspicuous to the neighbors' eyes.

You can buy No. 1 Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The meeting at the City Hall this afternoon is devoted mainly to the water works question. There is a majority report in favor and a minority report against the water works but without a vote as we close.

Where is that crowd going? To ROSENTHAL'S, to buy boots and shoes.

Clothing and Shoe Leather.
Mr. A. Shrier has returned to the city after a month's absence among the Northern markets. He tells us that he has bought very largely and calculates upon a splendid trade this fall. His purchases were in boots and shoes as well as in clothing and furnishing goods. He will be heard from in a few days.

The New Freight Agent.

Mr. Sol Haas, the General Freight Agent under the combination which has recently been entered into between the Richmond and Danville Railroad, the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line, arrived here today and formally assumed charge of the office in this city. The following are the roads included in the combination: Richmond and Danville; North Carolina; Western North Carolina; Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta; Richmond and Petersburg; Wilmington and Weldon; Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta; Northeastern; Cheraw and Darlington; Cheraw and Salisbury; Seaboard and Roanoke; Raleigh and Gaston; Raleigh and Augusta Air Line; with the Carolina Central to hear from.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

Home Amusement.

A very pleasant entertainment is in prospect for next Thursday evening, at the Opera House.—The Old Plantation Minstrel, composed of young gentlemen residing in Wilmington, will make their first public appearance in an entertainment which cannot fail to give pleasure. The orchestra is under the management of Prof. Riemann, and Mr. A. Prempert is the Manager of the Troupe. Reserved seats may be had now at Heinsberger's.

Delegates to the Episcopal Convention.

Rev. Dr. A. A. Weston, rector of St. James' Church in this city, leaves in the morning to attend the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church which assembles only triennially, and this year convenes at St. George's Church, Stuyvesant Square, New York, on Wednesday, the 6th of October. That is, the opening services will be held in the above named church, but the convention is to be held in Holy Trinity Church, corner of Fourth Avenue and Forty-Second street.
Dr. A. J. DeRosset, Sr., Warden of St. James' Church, is also a delegate, but will probably not leave here until next week.

City Court.

James Hostler, colored, was arraigned for being drunk and down in the street, and for carrying a concealed weapon in violation of law. Captain Goodman of the night force testified that he found defendant asleep in an alley last night and had to procure a cart to carry him to the Guard House and that after reaching the Guard room, upon searching the prisoner, found a six shooter (which was here exhibited to the court) loaded, and upon the prisoner's person. Defendant implored pardon for the offence of being drunk, and averred that he would not have had the pistol but for the fact, that he had picked it up as he was going out from behind the bar, and would not have done so, if he had not been intoxicated. The Court replied that drunkenness was no excuse for crime, but that defendant would be released from the charge against him for drunkenness upon payment of costs. Upon the charge of carrying a concealed weapon defendant was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $200 and was committed into the custody of the Sheriff.

Celia Osborne, colored, was arraigned for using loud and boisterous language and cursing and abusing Mr. P. Blumh. Ordered to pay a fine of $5 or be imprisoned for ten days. Defendant appealed from this decision but afterwards withdrew the appeal and submitted to payment of costs in the case.

D. W. Kennedy, colored, charged with stealing a bar glass from A. C. Wessell, on North Water street, was recognized to appear tomorrow morning at half past 9 o'clock on account of absence of witnesses.

Thomas Tarpey, a white man with a decidedly nautical appearance, was arraigned upon the charge of forcible trespass. Minerva Reed, a very deaf colored woman, being sworn, testified in substance that she was aroused last night while asleep by a noise at her door, as if some one was trying to prize it open; that thinking it was old Uncle Joe, the head steward or cook, she called him to know what he wanted. That she afterwards found out it was not 'Uncle Joe' but the prisoner at the bar; that he said he wanted to come in after a man that was in there and represented himself as a policeman. The witness here said that she was terribly frightened and told him that she was nothing but a poor sick woman. A piece of iron was exhibited in Court which witness said that the prisoner was armed with. The witness further testified that the man cursed and swore terribly until old Uncle Joe, being aroused, came down and she ran up stairs. Joseph McFarland, an elderly colored man, with a long white apron on, then took the stand and corroborated the statement of previous witness. The next witness called was Mr. Walter Rutland, a young gentleman boarder at Mrs. Thos. Morrison's boarding house on Front street. (Note. The disturbance all occurred on Mrs. Morrison's premises, but the testimony did not furnish the fact as the question was not asked.) Mr. Rutland testified that he was aroused about 4 o'clock this morning by the noise down stairs and the screaming of the woman. Witness stated that the woman, Minerva, came to his window and turned the blinds and asked him to come out and drive the man off; that he commenced to dress immediately, and in the meantime had opened door in the passage to communicate with some one outside who had asked what was the matter, when the prisoner at the bar walked into his room. Witness then colored the intruder and led him down stairs and at the front door met two policemen, who, hearing the noise and screams, had come to ascertain the cause. The trespasser was turned over to the policemen, who took him to the Guard House.

Officers Stone and Mayer testified that they had made the arrest. When asked by the Court if defendant was drunk, witnesses in turn stated that he had denied having drunk anything. Defendant was then told to stand up and state what he had to say for himself. Having done as he was told, the prisoner stated that he was a sailor from Boston, Mass.; that he came here on the schooner Joseph Fardwell on Saturday last, came ashore that night and drank some beer, and got drunk; and that was all he knew about it. The Mayor remarked, as he had done in a previous case, that 'drunkenness was no excuse for crime,' and bound the defendant, Thomas Tarpey, over to the next term of the Criminal Court in the sum of $200, in default of which he was committed. Court then adjourned.

Business Changes.

There promises to be a great many changes in business circles this October as well as an unusual number of changes of residences. Of the business changes in contemplation and already made we mention the following: Messrs. Lamb & Parmalee have opened in the new building of the Navassa Guano Co., on Water Street. The Produce Exchange will be removed to the building lately occupied by Newbury & Chaaten. Messrs. Newbury & Chaaten have removed nearly opposite their old stand on Water street, Mr. D. O'Connor will remove in the new building a few doors west of his present office on Princess street, and Mr. John D. Bellamy will occupy the office vacated by Mr. O'Connor. Messrs. Hanks & Bates and C. P. Remsen have exchanged locations on Second street. Mr. M. O. Cole will remove from Currie's Block to the store next north of Mr. A. Lessman, on Second street, and Mr. F. Johnson will occupy the store vacated by Mr. Cole. Mr. T. H. Smith has removed to the store on Front street under the Holmes Hotel building, which was recently purchased by him, and Mr. R. Thorburn will occupy the store vacated by Mr. Smith on Market street. Mr. A. Shrier is opening a shoe store in the Repton building on Market street. Mr. D. A. Smith has removed his 5c and 10c store next north of his furniture store on North Front street and Messrs. P. L. Bridgers & Co. will occupy the store vacated by Mr. Smith. Capt. J. M. Robinson has removed his hat store to the store recently occupied by Capt. Coney on Market street and Mr. John Werner has removed to the store vacated by Messrs. F. M. King & Co., on Market street. Capt. John L. Boatwright is having the store vacated by Capt. Robinson and Mr. Werner, on North Front street, converted into one and will open a large grocery establishment there. Messrs. F. M. King & Co. have removed to the store two doors South of their old stand, on Market street. Mr. H. C. Prompet has removed one door South of his old stand, on South Front street, to the office lately occupied by Dr. Jno. T. Schonwald. Dr. Schonwald has removed his office to that of his father, on Princess street. Mr. Godfrey Hart has removed to the store one door North of Mr. Geo. Myers, on South Front street. We will add to this list from time to time and as fast as the removals are made.

Mr. Nath'l Jacobi having been appointed agent for the Atlas Flow, parties in want of this celebrated Flow can now have their orders filled at Jacobi's Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front st.

State Sunday School Convention.

The third annual meeting of the State Sunday school convention will be held in the Presbyterian church of Salisbury on Wednesday and Thursday, the 27th and 28th of October, 1880. The State committee urges executive committees of county associations, and the executive committees appointed in unorganized counties, to send delegates and forward full reports. These reports should embrace a statement of the number of schools, teachers and pupils in each county, and the number of volumes in libraries, and amounts contributed during the past year for the support of the schools. Each evangelical denomination in a county is entitled to one delegate to represent it. This gives each county as many delegates as there are evangelical denominations in the county. All the evangelical ministers in the State are entitled to seats as corresponding members, and are cordially invited to be present.
