Dr. Janeway, Gen. Hancock's physician, says: "He is in the very prime of life and has, with his splendid constitution unimpaired by any excesses, and his good, regular habits, a chance of living twenty years yet. You can't worry him through politics or otherwise into an early grave. He has got too much vitality and good sense to succumb to anything of the sort."

The Macon Telegraph & Messenger says: It is whispered that Little Alex will enter the Senatorial contest for the vacant chair in the Georgia delegation. If the reports are true in reference to election of members, the Legislature is largely for Brown. Mr. Stephens would no doubt be the most formidable opponent to Governor Brown, but as matters now stand, there seems to be no doubt of Governor Brown's election.

In the late annual stockholders' meeting of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, it was shown that, including its leases, the company now operates 2,400 miles of rail. The road earned no less than 17 per cent. net profits last year, and declare cash dividends to the amount of 8 per cent. The net earnings were 43.41 per cent of the gross receipts. It was resolved to increase the stock of the company by a dividend of 100 per cent.

At Windsor, Mo., on Tuesday, twenty thousand Democrats assembled on General Hancock's farm and formed a procession five miles long. Over the speaker's stand was the motto: "Liberty—A free vote and a fair count."

By the late census the total population of Florida is 271,764, against 187,748 in 1870. This exhibits an increase of 84,016 inhabitants, or a fraction less than 45 per cent. The two races compare thus: Whites, 143,821; negroes, 127,943, showing 15,878 excess of the former.

Here is a very small chapter of Radical rascality. It is only one of many that will be told. It is from the New York Sun's Columbus (O) special in yesterday's issue of that paper:

The Republicans carried everything with a high hand to-day. The police acted in the most partisan manner, and were aided as far as possible by the Federal officials. Mayor Jacob called out the First Regiment, Ohio State National Guard, and kept them under arms all day. Strange negroes were voted by the hundreds over and over again, and when Democrats demanded their arrest they were either taken away from the polls by the police and released after turning the first corner or taken before United States Commissioner Hart, who held court in the office of the Chief of Police and by him released to go and repeat again and again. Besides, the Republicans were provided with any amount of money, which they used most lavishly. The vote polled was enormous, and is far in excess of any ever cast here.

The more the matter is investigated, the more certain is it that Gen. Grant's recent interview with the political preacher, Dr. Fowler, relative to Hancock, was nothing but an emanation of spite and malevolence. We published yesterday an article on the fourth page wherein it was proved by the records that Grant's assertion in regard to Hancock having a "Presidential bee in his bonnet," because of having received one vote for President in 1864, was absolutely false, inasmuch as no such vote had been cast, nor, indeed, was Hancock's name mentioned in connection with the nomination at that time, and now the New York Truth, an independent paper, has discovered the real cause of Grant's malevolence. Here it is:

The special dispatch from Washington, published exclusively in our columns yesterday, stating that President Lincoln had requested General Hancock to take command of the army of the Potomac, has received ready popular acceptance. From the same source we are again assured of its absolute accuracy. The command of the army of the Potomac was offered to General Hancock before General Grant was thought of for the position.

We need not repeat the assurance, however. Truth was the first to give the fact to the public, and with it we gave an interview with General Hancock himself which fully corroborated it. Now let us have the correspondence, and there will no longer be a question that the Democratic candidate was misrepresented in the interview purporting to have been had with Grant.

THE RETURNS.

At this writing, in the forenoon, we are not disposed to retrace our steps from the position taken by us yesterday. We said then that we believed that the Democrats have carried Indiana and we know nothing now to induce us to change that opinion. On the contrary, we are the more confirmed in what we said then.

The latest dispatch received here last night, and published in the Star this morning, is signed by Mr. English, and in it it is claimed that the Democrats in Indiana have elected a majority of the State ticket, Congressmen and Legislature, thus securing the reelection of a United States Senator.

If this is such very good news for the Republicans we would like to know what they would call bad news. The election of Porter, the Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana, seems to be conceded. That is a matter of very little importance to the Democrats outside of Indiana, as compared with the success of the Legislative ticket. One is simply a matter of State, while the other is of National importance.

As for Ohio, we had hopes, but no expectations, and are therefore not disappointed at the result. That frauds and rascalities were practiced in both States no candid man can doubt.

We expect full and more decisive news before going to press. Such as it is, it will be found on the first page of this issue.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12, 1880. At this writing nothing is known here of the voting in Indiana and Ohio, but I can tell something of the influences which Democrats in the two States have had to fight against. I do not suppose the average Cabinet Officer, like Secretary Sherman or Attorney General Devens, has more influence than any other man on the stump, but the official reports and acts of those officials, as officials, do have an influence of the kind. For instance: Secretary Sherman's continuous stream of one-sided, partial and dishonest "statistics," prepared at the request, and under the direction of a Republican politician, have vastly more weight with the people of Indiana and Ohio, where they were sent by the ton, than any speech Sherman could make. So the simple fact that Attorney-General Devens had detailed two noted Washington detectives for service in Indiana and Ohio, whose duties were popularly believed to be to intimidate Democratic voters, has a wider influence in those States to-day than all the speeches the Attorney could make in his lifetime. The negroes and roughs who have been sent on to vote the Republican ticket feel perfectly secure, while the Democrat who has been naturalized, or who in any way has doubt of his rights, feeling that the Attorney-General's official is watching him, naturally refuses to vote. If either Ohio or Indiana shall be carried to-day against this official influence, I shall consider that a victory has been gained over the worst element ever known in our recent politics.

But whatever the result may be, the fight has been one of the people against official influence and money almost as much as it was in Maine. Complete victory to-day means almost a full sweep of the Northern States in November. Defeat in the two doubtful States means a great fight.

All the Governors from Maine to California are being written to by the managers of the National Fair Association of this District, requesting co-operation in future meetings. The idea is that a central Fair may from year to year be made useful in giving the several States a more full knowledge of each other's natural, and manufacturing productions. The potatoes and lumber of Maine, the fruit and wines of California, and the cotton mills and tobacco of the South are sold here in large quantities. It is thought the making of this a central place of exhibit, with executive or Legislative sanction from all the States, would not only have a happy effect on internal traffic, but by making all classes acquainted with each other, help to bring about the good fellowship which all patriotic people desire.

THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

The following we clip from the Charlotte Observer. It comprises the entire ticket which is to be voted on at the election in November. It is very important, and should be read very carefully by all: The following is the Democratic ticket as it must be voted throughout the State. There are nine boxes, and one ballot must be deposited in each box. Voters must see to it that each ticket is placed in the right box. One ticket, for Presidential electors, is as follows: FOR ELECTORS OF PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES: JAMES M. LEACH, of the fifth congressional district. FABIAN H. BUSBEE, of the fourth congressional district.

THOMAS JERNIGAN, of the first congressional district. HENRY W. BRYAN, of the second congressional district. DANIEL H. McLEAN, of the third congressional district. WM. F. GREEN, of the fourth congressional district. FRANK C. ROBBINS, of the fifth congressional district. DAVID A. COVINGTON, of the sixth congressional district. THEODORE F. KLUTZ, of the seventh congressional district. JAMES L. GUDGER, of the eighth congressional district.

Then follows the State ticket as follows: For Governor—THOMAS J. JARVIS, of Pitt. For Lieutenant-Governor—JAMES L. ROBINSON, of Macon. For Secretary of State—WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS, of New Hanover. For State Auditor—WILLIAM P. ROBERTS, of Chowan. For State Treasurer—JONATHAN WORTH, of Randolph. For Attorney-General—THOMAS S. KENAN, of Wilson. For Superintendent of Public Instruction—J. C. SCARBOROUGH, of Johnston.

Next, the members of Congress for their respective districts are to be voted for therein only—that is, each voter voting for but one candidate, in a separate box, as follows:

FOR CONGRESS, 1st District—LOUIS C. LATHAM, of Fitt. FOR CONGRESS, 2nd District—W. H. KITCHIN, of Halifax. FOR CONGRESS, 3rd District—JOHN W. SHACKELFORD, of Onslow. FOR CONGRESS, 4th District—WILLIAM R. COX, of Wake. FOR CONGRESS, 5th District—ALFRED M. SCALES, of Guilford. FOR CONGRESS, 6th District—CLEMMENT DOWD, of Mecklenburg. FOR CONGRESS, 7th District—ROBERT F. ARMFIELD, of Iredell. FOR CONGRESS, 8th District—ROBERT B. VANCE, of Buncombe.

Another ticket, to be like the Electoral and State Executive tickets, voted throughout the State, is as follows, requiring a box, also:

For Judges of the Superior Court: FOR JUDGE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT: R. T. BENNETT, of Anson.

FOR JUDGE OF THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT: JOHN A. GILMER, of Guilford.

The fifth ticket, to be voted throughout the State, is for or against a proposed amendment to the constitution of the State in relation to the public debt. This requires a separate box.

The sixth ticket, also general, and requiring a box, is on the proposed constitutional amendment relative to the deaf mutes, the blind and the insane of the State. The seventh ticket, requiring a box, is for Senator (or Senators) and Representative (or Representatives) in the General Assembly. The eighth ticket, to be deposited in a separate box, will have on it treasurer (in counties having this officer), register of deeds, surveyor, coroner and sheriff. [In cases where the clerk of the superior court is to be elected to fill unexpired terms, this officer will also be voted for on this ticket.] The ninth and last ticket is for township constable, each township electing its own constable.

The following persons cannot vote: Minors, idiots and lunatics; persons who, after conviction, or confession in open court, have been adjudged guilty of felony or other infamous crime, committed after January 1, 1877, unless restored to rights of citizenship by law.

Subject to the foregoing exceptions, all males born in the United States, or naturalized, who have resided in the State twelve months next preceding the election, and ninety days in the county, are qualified to register and vote in the precincts where they reside.

Those who shall have arrived at the age of 21 years since November 5th 1878, will of course have to register; and all those who shall have removed from one precinct or township to another since that date, will have to register anew. Persons who registered for the November election, 1878, and have since changed precinct must, upon presenting themselves for registration, produce a certificate from the registrar in the precinct to which they registered, stating that their names had been erased from his book.

"Pa," asked little Blogders of his parent, "what is paper made of?" "Lies!" roared the elder Blogders, who is running for office. "Lies! Infernal, outrageous, villainous lies!" And the innocent boy wrote it down that way in his composition.—Burlington Hawkeye.

A young man with an umbrella overtook an unprotected lady acquaintance in a rain storm, and extending his umbrella over her requested the pleasure of acting as a rain-bow. "Oh!" exclaimed the young lady, taking his arm, "you wish me to be your rain-dear." Two souls with but a single umbrella, two forms that stepped as one.

"Any good shooting on your farm?" asked the hunter of the farmer. "Splendid," replied the agriculturist, "there's a drive-way man down in the clover meadow, a cloth peddler at the house, a candidate out in the stock yard and two tramps down in the stock yard. Climb right over the fence, young man, load both barrels and sail in!"—Burlington Hawkeye.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. In diseases of the pulmonary organs, a safe and reliable remedy is invaluable. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL is such a remedy. It is a scientific combination of the medicinal principles and curative virtues of the finest drugs, chemically united, of such power as to insure the greatest possible efficiency, and uniformity of result. It strikes at the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarrh, the effects of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacious, soothing, and helpful. Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures or syrups, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now offered, which, as the contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to disappoint the patient. Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous to experiment with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, while so trifled with, become deeply seated or incurable. Use AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is of acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation and fine ingredients will allow. Eminent physicians, knowing its composition, prescribe it. The test of half a century has proven its certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.
