Look out for frauds at the ballot-box! Remember Indiana!
Governor-elect Plaisted has just returned to Bangor from an extensive campaign tour throughout the State, and he declares as his candid opinion that Maine will next Tuesday elect the Fusion electoral ticket.

The registration in Cook County, Ill., which includes Chicago, will foot up between 86,000 and 87,000. In one precinct there are 1,600 voters, many of whom will be unable to cast their ballots with the limited facilities provided by the Republican board.

Look out for fraud everywhere—not only in the city but in the country. Examine well and closely every ticket and see that the names are right on each. There is no villainy that our opponents will not stoop—we beg pardon, rise,—to accomplish. Be on your guard.

Brigham Young, a son of the late Joseph A., eldest son of Brigham Young, ended a protracted spree Tuesday night at Salt Lake by taking a dose of morphine, which resulted in his death on Wednesday morning. He was 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

The Democrats of Baltimore on Wednesday elected eighteen of the twenty members of the City Council and the Republicans one. There was Republican opposition in the Second Ward and in the Sixth each party polled 1,022 votes. About half of the full strength of each party voted. The Democrats cast 23,250 votes, the Republicans 14,666 and the Independents 664—a total of 38,580.

If the Republican party was not lost to all sense of honesty and decency it would be a pitiable spectacle to see the man who has occupied the position filled in this country by Gen. Grant going round the country on an electioneering tour, vilifying Hancock, traducing the people of the South and landing a man whom he knows to be in every way utterly unworthy. Alas! how have the mighty fallen!

If the Greenbackers are determined to "rule or ruin" they are going to work in the surest way possible. There is no earthly chance for them to elect their ticket. There is not a man on it, in Federal, State, or County affairs, who will be elected. But they will poll a certain vote, nevertheless. It is impossible for them to succeed with their own ticket but they may help elect a Republican. Let them all pause and consider these facts.

FRAUD! FRAUD!! FRAUD!!!

Democrats be on the Alert.
The Democratic Executive Committee of this county should be prepared to prosecute, to the fullest extent of the law, any bribery, intimidation or fraudulent votes that may be practiced in this city in the coming election. That there have been three hundred men, voters, in the First Ward, who have come to man's estate in that Ward since the last election, it is preposterous to suppose, yet if our correspondent Fidette is to be believed, and he is a gentleman of unquestioned veracity and integrity, there have been that many new votes registered, most of whom are black, in the above named Ward, since the time referred to. We do earnestly hope that the villains who instigate, as well as the actors in a fraud of this kind will be pursued, in this instance, to the bitter end. Let not only the Committees but every Democrat in the city be alert and on the look out for fraudulent votes at the coming election. Let a Committee of Democrats from every Ward in the city attend at the polls in the First and Fifth Wards on election day and let us see if we cannot catch the rascals who are perpetrating these outrages upon the liberties of the citizens of this country. The Democrats of this city should move in earnest about this matter. Once caught in their villainy, we think an honest jury can be found somewhere in this judicial district to mete out justice to the men who have dared to perpetrate such an outrage.

A Special Term.
His Honor Judge Meares has ordered a special term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county, to be convened at the Court House in this city, on Monday, the 29th day of November, 1880. This is to anticipate the regular December term, in order to prevent the meeting of the Superior Court, which meets on the first Monday in December, and the Criminal Court from coming in conflict as regards the time of holding their sessions. By the way, we think that Judge Meares, or the County Commissioners, or whoever has this matter in charge, could easily afford to give the newspapers the advertisement upon the subject. It would not break the county or injure its finances very materially. The circular that is stuck up at the Court House may not be seen by half the parties interested. Of course the newspapers are going to publish the fact anyhow, but then it is right to treat the papers, which have contributed so largely to the reform movement and aided so materially in bringing about honest government, and stopping the big leak holes, in this way? A man who lives in the country and is a subscriber to a newspaper has a right to suppose that if any important change of the kind referred to should be made, it will be duly and officially announced in the daily papers published in the city.

City Court.
Alice Ransom, colored, was arraigned upon the charge of disorderly conduct. The evidence in the case was to the effect that defendant was charged with returning one pair of shoes less than she received from Mr. Sternberg, which defendant had been employed by the lady of the house who hires her services, to carry for Mr. Sternberg for her employer to look at. Mr. Sternberg charged that defendant failed to return the shoes and defendant claimed stoutly that she had paid for them, applying ugly epithets to Mr. Sternberg, at Mr. Shrier's shoe store, where Mr. S. is employed, and reiterating the same in the Court Room. His Honor ordered defendant to pay a fine of $10 or be incarcerated in the city Prison for ten days. From this defendant took an appeal, and was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $50 for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. But being unable to give the bond she finally concluded to pay the $10 and depart in peace.

The First Ward Meeting.

According to the changed programme, due notice of which was given in the REVIEW yesterday, as well as by printed circulars, the First and Second Ward Clubs held a joint meeting, near Boney Bridge, in Brooklyn, last night. The Cornet Concert Club escorted the speakers to the stand and furnished delightful music for the occasion. Major Jno. W. Dunham, president of the Second Ward Club, introduced the first speaker of the evening, Mr. John C. James, in a most graceful and handsome manner. Mr. James upon taking the stand explained that his speech was intended for the Second Ward Club, before whom he had been invited to speak, but by special arrangement, thinking that it would advance the cause we all held so dear, the committee had concluded to change the programme and hold a joint meeting of the two Wards. Having thus explained his presence in the First Ward Mr. James commenced his speech, which was one of argument and sound reasoning from beginning to end. The speech was replete with logical deductions, and his allusions to the candidates in the field happy and appropriate. His tribute to Hancock, not so much to his soldierly qualities and his achievements in war, for that, he said, belonged to the North, but his reference to his civic record which was peculiarly a part of the South's history, we thought handsome indeed. At the conclusion Mr. James received the congratulations of his friends, those who were responsible for his presence there, and in this he felt repaid for the trouble and labor of the evening. Loud calls were now made for Shackelford, and Mr. J. I. Macks, in a peculiarly appropriate manner, then introduced our gallant standard-bearer in this district. Mr. Shackelford took the stand amidst loud cheers and hurrahs, which gave substantial evidence that he had won his way into the hearts of the Democrats of this vicinity. Mr. Shackelford's speech was about one hour in length and was most heartily received and frequently applauded throughout. Mr. Shackelford's two speeches, the one night before last and the one last night, we honestly believe have added votes to the Democratic side, and we have not the slightest shadow of a doubt but that he will, if God spares his life, be the next Representative in Congress from the Third Congressional district. This, too, seemed the impression of his hearers last night.

Mr. D. H. McLean made the concluding speech and was introduced to the crowd by that sterling young Democrat, Robt. H. McKoy, Esq., a worthy scion of a noble Democratic house. Mr. McLean's speech was thought to be by many a happier effort than the one he delivered the night previous, and was enthusiastically received and cheered. The Third district is rich in having such an able and eloquent elector, and Harnett should be proud of her worthy and gifted son—Dan Hugh McLean.

Insurance Companies should be compelled to give the proprietors of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup a royalty, for with this valuable remedy thousands of risks have been made good, which otherwise would have terminated long ago. Price, 25 cents a bottle.

How He Proves It.
A young Democrat in this town who is "death on figgers," has found some very conclusive evidence of the fact that Garfield did get that $329 from Oakes Ames. He works on the principle that "figures never lie." He takes, to start with, Garfield's age, which is 49. Multiply this by 2 and multiply 329 by 2 and the united product is 758. Divide this by 2 and then subtract the age, 49, from the quotient, and you have 329. Now you see it, don't you?

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes. 1w

There are but two more week-days left between this and the day of election. Let's all resolve to put in a good two-weeks' work in those two days. Let every man who is not sure that his name is on the registration books see for himself that it is there, and let each urge at least one other to do the same. Remember, none but those who come of age on that day can register then.

Much Better.
We are pleased to learn that Dr. M. J. DeRosset's condition has improved very materially, although it must be said that the chances of his ultimate recovery are not very marked. At the last accounts, received a day or two since, he was really much better. He was able to read a little and to converse, although his utterance is still very indistinct. He is attended by Dr. W. H. Hall, formerly of this city, instead of Dr. Hammond, as we have previously stated. Dr. Hall is the regular physician, although Dr. Hammond has been called in occasionally and has exerted his skill to the utmost in behalf of the afflicted gentleman.

Monday Night.
We understand that it is proposed to have a grand demonstration in this city on next Monday night and that arrangements are now progressing to that effect under direction of Hon. A. II. VanBokkelen, the Chairman of the Committee. Among the speakers who are to be present on that occasion is Hon. A. M. Wadell, Mr. G. J. Boney having received a dispatch from him to-day to the effect that, if alive on that day, he would be with us. Let the demonstration be a tremendous one.

MR. EDITOR:
On examination of the registrar's books of the First Ward it will be seen that nearly three hundred names have been registered without a certificate showing change of precinct. Of course, many of these are young men, who have become of age since the last registration was taken, and are entitled to register, but it is unreasonable to suppose that any such number as this is composed of that class. Isn't it also unreasonable to suppose no such number of men failed to vote somewhere at the last election; and isn't it the duty of the registrar to refuse registration to any person apparently between twenty-five and forty years of age, unless he produces a certificate from the registrar of the precinct in which he last voted? If not, in my opinion, the object of the law is virtually defeated.
