Row in the Fifth Ward.

A difficulty occurred in the Fifth Ward yesterday afternoon, which at one time threatened to be a very serious af. tair. A man by the name of C. H. Grant and a colored individual, commonly known as Pot Hooks, we hear were the chief promoters and the immediate | Saunders, 299; Norment, 162 .- Hancock, cause of the disturbance. Grant, who is 301; Garfield, 159. a white man, has figured quite conspicuously in our courts heretofore, and is regarded as a very turbulent character. Mayor Fishblate, we understand, at tempted this man's arrest, when the fel low placed his hand in the Mayor's collar and resisted the arrest, but two policemen immediately seized the individual and he was taken to the Guard House. The negro boy, Pot Hooks, was arrested for hurling a brick at Officer Elward Griffith, which narrowly missed hitting that officer on the head. Both parties were charged with inciting a riot, and but for Mayor Fishblate's prompt and decisive conduct at the time the re sult might have been very serious. We have heard that in an instant more Mayor Fishblate would have shot Grant, as he was in the act of drawing his pistol when the fellow was seized and held as a prisoner by the two policemen. The crowd of rioters then attempted to rescue the prisoner, when the Mayor ordered the officers to use their clubs, which order was obeyed and the prisoners safely conducted to the Guard House where they

A Centennial Vote.

Mr. John D. Walker, Sr., of Whiteville township, Columbus County, who was born in 1781, and is consequently 99 years of age, went to the polls yesterday and voted, like a patriot, the straight Democratic ticket. We doubt if there was another instance in the United States of a man voting at such an advanced age. Born during the Revolutionary war, and before the adoption of the Constitution, he has lived to see the little belt of thirteen colonies that bordered on the Atlantic coast stretch westward until the continent has been spanned and the Pacific has become our western boundary.

The vote is quite full. The State ticket is undoubtedly elected by a good majority, but there is nothing definite as yet. Shackelford and Cox are elected. meagre, but there are losses there, in consequence of frauds. Wake probably elects Smedes to the House, and gives Buxton 300 majority. S. A. A.
