"Ole Missus married Will de Weaver," but the thing stopped "right thar." There are no happy results to chronicle.

The Readjusters met with a signal defeat in Virginia. The Democrats fought the fight of its own merits and they have won a gallant victory.

The defeat of the Hon. John Goode in the Norfolk, Va., district, is a calamity to be deplored. We can sympathize with our friends there in the loss they have sustained.

The influence which an ably-edited newspaper is able to exercise on the public mind is well illustrated in Chatham county. Some very able articles appeared in the Chatham Record in opposition to the proposed insane amendment to the constitution and the result is that the said amendment was defeated in that county by more than a thousand majority, both parties voting against it. Chatham also acquitted herself handsomely on the general and State tickets, the majorities ranging from 300 to 500. Jarvis gains 100 on the Tilden majority and Cox, for Congress, has 400 majority. The entire county and legislative ticket is elected. Chatham gave Tilden 251 majority.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT.

New Jersey, California and Nevada Democratic.

The Senate Democratic and the House Republican.

(Special to Daily Review.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4—3:40 p. m.

The latest news here is that the Democrats have carried New Jersey, California and Nevada. Oregon is still to hear from. The other Northern States have gone for Garfield.

The indications now are that the Senate will stand 39 Democrats to 37 Republicans and the House 146 Republicans, 141 Democrats and 6 Greenbackers.

Next Tuesday.
The Old Plantation minstrels will give another entertainment in this city on Tuesday next. The company is composed of home talent and their last performance was superior to many travelling troupes. The young gentlemen deserve much credit for their proficiency and should be encouraged by our citizens.

Personal.
Mr. J. E. Duke, who has for several years past served as clerk at the hotels in Raleigh, arrived in this city yesterday and is now in command of the office at the Purcell House. Mr. Duke fully understands his business and will, no doubt, prove a valuable acquisition to the staff of mine host Cobb. We are glad to see Mr. Duke with us and welcome him to Wilmington.

Board of Canvassers.
The Board of Canvassers of New Hanover county met to-day, in accordance with the law, at the Court House at 12 o'clock, to canvass the votes taken at the recent election in the different precincts of this county, and to declare the result. W. B. McKay, Esq., from Harnett township, was made Chairman and the Register of Deeds, J. E. Sampson, Clerk of the Board. The oath was then administered by Justice John L. Cantwell to the Chairman and Mr. McKay administered the oath to the Board. The canvass of the votes commenced shortly after the organization of the Board, but at this writing, 3:30 o'clock, the canvassing of the vote was not more than half through. The result, of course, is already known, and this is only a form which has to be gone through with according to law.

Mr. Nath'l Jacob having been appointed agent for the Atlas Press, orders in want of this celebrated Press can now have their orders filled at JACOB'S Hardware Depot, No. 10 S. Front St.

City Court.
The case of C. H. Grant and Edward McFarland, alias Pot Hooks, colored, continued from yesterday, was called for trial this morning. Edward McFarland, charged with disorderly conduct, throwing a brick at a policeman and resisting police, was fined $50, and in default of payment of same was sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment in the City Prison.

The case of C. H. Grant, charged with inciting a riot in the afternoon of election day and resisting arrest, at the instance of counsel, was continued until Tuesday morning next, at 10 o'clock. M. London, Esq., appeared for the defence F. H. Darby, Esq., City Attorney, and Col. D. K. McRae are counsel for the prosecution. The defence claims to have a cloud of witnesses, some sixty in number, which counsel said it would take at least two days to get through with. It was in consideration of this fact the case was ordered continued.
