Fashion Notes.

Ribbons have become real works of art.

Solid dark colors prevail in the latest styles of hosiery.

All dresses for little girls are now made high in the neck.

Long pins of jet, shell or gold and tiny Japanese fans are worn in the hair.

Silk handkerchiefs should be washed with borax in tepid water with little or no soap, and ironed before becoming dry.

A good way for ladies to employ their old worn laces this Winter will be on the large collars and fichus which will be worn.

Whole cloaks are now made of chenille, which, for this purpose, is very thick, and sometimes powdered with gold or steel.

The most elegant dinner cards are mounted on thick satin ribbon, which is the same on both sides and fringed at the ends.

Small ornamental pockets made of Autumn leaves are worn on day dresses, and are "tasty" and likely to meet with favor.

The color of ferns can be preserved, we are told, by dipping them in strong brine colored with verdigris—in short, by pickling them before drying.

So much money has been lost in furs during the last four exceptionally mild Winters that there is not much effort to produce novelty in design in this direction.

Affectionate husbands who think of presenting their wives with Christmas gifts will be glad to know that cream-colored satin, embroidered in amber beads of two shades, costs only $50 a yard.

Gentlemen's visiting cards are growing smaller, though always considerably less in size than those used by ladies.

Among the latest caprices in breast-pins are rustic bars forming a fence broken by a gate, through which or upon which is crawling a mouse or rat.

The old-fashioned albums in which one writes a sentiment or a quotation have been revived in England, along with other old-fashioned things, and are now produced with all the old extravagance of colored paper and pretty pictures and engravings.

The Third District. The following is the vote of this, the Third Congressional District, in 1876, when Col. Waddell's majority over Canaday was 1,728, Vance's 2,235 and Tilden's, 2,371.

We give herewith the vote for Congressmen, and by counties: Bladen—Waddell, 1,356; Canaday, 1,414.

Brunswick—Waddell, 994; Canaday, 1,052. Carteret—Waddell, 1,109; Canaday, 711.

Columbus—Waddell, 1,412; Canaday, 766. Cumberland—Waddell, 2,185; Canaday, 2,129.

Duplin—Waddell, 2,144; Canaday, 1,266. Harnett—Waddell, 1,037; Canaday, 741.

Moore—Waddell, 1,328; Canaday, 1,200. New Hanover—Waddell, 1,554; Canaday, 3,045.

Onslow—Waddell, 1,229; Canaday, 543. Pender—Waddell, 1,151; Canaday, 1,264.
