It is estimated that there were 10,000,000 votes cast in the late election, more than one-half of which were Democratic.

Latham's majority in the First District is reported as 600. The News and Observer thinks that this is a low estimate and so do we.

Yesterday's News and Observer says: Seventy-one counties that cast in 1876 200,588 votes and gave Vance 7,492 majority, now gives Jarvis 4,228 majority. The other twenty-three counties, casting in 1876 32,690 votes, gave Vance a majority of 5,626.

Gen. W. R. Cox has 1,313 majority in the Fourth District. This, too, notwithstanding the fact that there are several black counties in that district. The Fourth has done famously and her people deserve the success they have achieved. Gen. Cox will make a splendid Representative.

Lighter Snagged and Sunk.

We learn that while the steamer D. Murchison was en route to this city from Fayetteville with a couple of lighters in tow, late yesterday afternoon, one of the lighters, when at a place called Kelly's Cove, about fifty miles distant by the river from this city, ran on a snag and sunk. Fortunately the load on the lighter consisted of 300 bales of cotton only, consequently there can be no material damage to the cargo. The steamer Hurt, which had previously arrived here, went to the Murchison's assistance last night and the Wave left for the scene of the disaster this morning.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Magistrate's Court.

Alexander Stewart, colored, sued out a warrant against officer Edward Griffith, of the police force, and had him arraigned before Justice Gardner this a. m., upon the charge of assault and battery, on election day. Stewart, who is undergoing sentence in the city prison for riotous conduct on that occasion, had to be brought before the court on a writ of habeas corpus, in order to give in his testimony, but the case, with $6.70 costs attached, was decided against the plaintiff, which will, no doubt, cause him to serve out another term of imprisonment as soon as his present term expires.

Rice birds are about played out. Not so with those Scotch soles at ROSENTHAL'S. They last for ever.

The Lecture Season.

Now that the season for political speaking has passed perhaps the public will give its attention to the consideration of literary addresses. With a view to gratifying the public taste in this direction, and for their own benefit besides, the Wilmington Library Association are preparing to have a series of lectures delivered this fall and winter. Among those who have been invited and have accepted the invitation we hear the names of Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates and Rev. Dr. Wilson, of this city, and Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Raleigh. We also learn that the Lecture Committee are contemplating sending invitations to the Rev. Moses Hoge, D. D., of Richmond, and the Rev. Chas. F. Deems, D. D., LL. D., of New York. Surely when so much talent is employed there ought to be some good speaking, and no doubt there will be.

The Planets in November

The November nights are full of interesting planetary incidents. Venus and Jupiter are so situated in regard to each other that they form the most attractive feature of the sky in the early evening. Soon after sunset Venus peeps from her hiding place and hangs like a lamp suspended by golden chains, softly shining in the twilight. At the same time, and before any other stars are visible, Jupiter rises slowly in the east, gorgeously brilliant against the dark back ground of the sky. As Venus sinks towards the horizon Jupiter mounts towards the zenith, and the planetary play may be watched for an hour. Jupiter is now the more brilliant, but his lustre is waning, and he will soon be eclipsed by the radiant queen of the stars, who, before many moons have waxed and waned, will reign without a rival. Jupiter and Venus will be delightful to watch, as one advances and the other recedes over the celestial road. The clear and crisp November nights are inspiring to star gazers, for besides the aspects of the planetary brotherhood, so personal in interest to the dwellers on this little planet, the sky is alive with clustering constellations, including some of the most radiant stars that twinkle in the Northern concave.

WOLF! WOLF! WOLF!

A PART OF THE EASTERN BAPTIST Association having withdrawn fellowship from me, I propose, on Wednesday and Thursday nights next, at the City Hall in Wilmington, to discuss those points which they call heresy, and I cordially invite the public and especially the ministers of all denominations, to come and listen and prove if they can upon which side of the question the heresy is subject to be: what and whose is God; is heaven a locality or not; what is the soul who hath immortality; what and where is the punishment of the wicked. Tickets free. nov 8-11 REV. JOSEPH P. KING.

TIMELY ADVICE

ON

FALL CLOTHES!

YOU ARE THINKING OF YOUR Clothing for Fall; what it shall be; how and where you shall get it.

COME AND SEE ME.

Come and see me or drop me a line, saying what you want as near as you can. If you are here you can see for yourself, try on what you like, and go home with the old clothes in a bundle. That is very easy, and nothing can be more satisfactory.

NOT A STRANGE PLACE.

It isn't as if you were going to a strange place. The chances are you've been here before, and know something of my ways. Perhaps your neighbor has been here, and has told you it was a good place to go to. Perhaps you have only read that I sell a good many clothes, and say to people who buy them: Bring them back if you don't find them every way to your liking.

Now this is really why I am not a stranger to any one; because I deal with everybody as with a neighbor, and expect him to come right back if he has cause of complaint.

IF YOU DON'T COME.

But suppose you don't come. How am I going to sell you just what you want to buy, without your seeing things beforehand? Try; write; say about how much you want to pay for a Business Suit, Overcoat, or whatever you want; say what your occupation is; say anything that has any bearing on what we ought to send you. It will not take me two minutes to guess what you want; if I don't guess right, that's my loss, not yours.

HAVE YOUR OWN WAY!

Perhaps you want your clothing made to your measure. Did you suppose that I make to measure a quarter million dollars worth of clothing every year for people I never saw and never expect to see? You may be very certain that I have a way of doing such work without much risk of a misfit; for a misfit, you know, comes right back to me. I am pretty careful about making blunders when I've got them all to make good.

MY WAY!

My way of doing business is to make the buyer welcome, at the outset, to all the advantage and all the guarantee he can ask for.
