LAURINBURG ENTERPRISE IS THE BEST MEDIUM through which to advertise Fall and Winter Goods among the people of Robeson, Richmond and Anson counties, in North Carolina, and in the border counties of South Carolina. The Enterprise has a large and increasing circulation in the Pee Dee and Cape Fear sections of this State, having obtained a large circulation in the latter during the six months it was published in Fayetteville before its return to Laurinburg, and in the former within the last few months.

Advertisements will be inserted by the month, quarter and year at reasonable rates.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. V WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1880 No. 223

We very much fear that Mahone is not all right. We don't like to see a man who insists upon being called a Democrat, hobnobbing with such people as Clapp, of the Washington Republican, and Graham, chief axe-grinder in the Radical woodpile.

With the change of gauge in the Western North Carolina R. R., Wilmington is about as far removed from the transmontaine section of this State as is Galveston, Texas. Here is something about the change; it is from the Charlotte Observer.

The gauge of the Western North Carolina Railroad is being changed from four feet eight inches and a half to five feet to conform to the gauge of the Richmond & Danville Railroad. In consequence of this there was no train over that road yesterday and there will be none to-day. It is reported here that the entire work will be finished by tomorrow. The change will necessitate a transfer of all freight over the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad at Statesville. It also gives a continuous line from Asheville to Richmond, to Beaufort on the North Carolina coast, to Norfolk (via the Atlantic, Mississippi & Ohio Railroad,) to Charleston, to Mobile, to New Orleans, and indeed all Southern points and ports. By this change the Western North Carolina Railroad becomes part and parcel of the system of railroads which form the backbone of which is the Richmond & Danville Railroad.

A Freshet.

Private telegrams received in this city to-day give information of heavy rains in the up-country. One telegram received from Fayetteville this morning at 10 o'clock said the river had risen ten feet and was still rising. A later telegram said there was now twenty feet of water.

In Distress.
Schooner Clara, Capt. Cramer, hence for New York, has put back in distress.
She cleared at this port on the 5th inst.
for New York, by Messrs. Geo. Harris & Co., with a cargo of lumber shipped by Messrs. Colville & Co. On the 10th inst. she encountered a heavy S. E. gale and sprung a leak and hence was compelled to put back in distress for repairs.

Personal.
Dr. A. J. DeRosset leaves here tonight for New York. Dr. M. J. De-Rosset's condition, we are glad to learn, has steadily improved and his father expects to return here next week, probably the latter part of the week, with the stricken gentleman and his family. It is hoped that the mild climate here will still further enhance the chances of recovery.

Mr. Melvin's Condition.
At 1 o'clock to-day the condition of Mr. James S. Melvin, who was stricken with apoplexy on Wednesday last, had not decisively changed, although it is thought by some that it has very slightly improved. We trust that we may hear better reports to-morrow. He is at his boarding-house, on Market, between Front and Second streets, where he is receiving every attention at the hands of his friends.

The Sampson Fair.
The Sixteenth Annual Fair of the Sampson County Agricultural Society will be held at Clinton on the 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th of December. General Wade Hampton will be with the people and will address them during the Fair.

The following list of Marshals has been chosen, viz: Col. John Ashford, Chief Marshal, and Messrs. H. E. Royal, G. W. Herring, Henry Faison, Henry Cromartie, J. W. Wright, J. J. McCop and T. A. Hobbs as Assistants.

We thank the worthy President, Mr.
W. K. Pigford, for an invitation to attend the Fair and the kindly wishes he expresses for our presence.

No remedy for kidney diseases heretofore discovered can be held for one moment in comparison with Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—C. A. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C.

How Happiness is Secured.
Happiness is the absence of pain or annoyance, and wherever there is pain there is disease. A pain in the lower portion of the body indicates a disorder of some kind. If there is any odor or color or deposit in the urine it means disease and requires attention at once.
We have heard many of our friends speak of the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and are convinced there is nothing so certain and valuable for all disorders of the urinary system, both male and female.

The Pound Party.

The pound party at St. James' Home on Wednesday night was a success, notwithstanding the very inclement weather.
Had it been fair, as it was last night, there would have been many more present and presents. As it is, the ladies who were in charge are not dissatisfied and they may yet give another opportunity for those who couldn't get out—so sorry you know—to come to the rescue.

Theatrical.

The engagement made by Ford & Durham, for the Opera House in this city on the 15th and 16th, has been cancelled.

Mrs. Oates has engaged the Opera House for the 24th inst. and will appear here then with a fine company.

Cyril Searle is booked for the 30th.
He will appear in "Drink," dramatized from Zola's great work, "L'Assommoir."

A Good One.

We desire to mention one conspicuous circumstance of election day at the thrifty little village of Rocky Point. Mr.
F. W. King, who, about two weeks before, had his left hand badly cut to pieces, his arm broken, besides suffering other serious injuries, had been confined in one position until the day of election, when he, at his earnest solicitation, was taken up by friends, and in great pain carried to the polls. We need more such men in Pender. Mr. King is improving and hopes to be able to go on light duty in a few weeks.

His First Visit.

Mr. John Butler, a citizen of Carver's Creek, in Bladen county, and a good Democrat, is in the city to-day. He is 82 years old—or will be in a few months —and although he has lived all of his life within 50 miles of this city, yet it is his first visit here. He is a farmer and lost heavily by the freshets last summer in the Cape Fear, and was thus compelled to buy corn here to-day, the first, he says, he has ever purchased. The old gentleman talked in on us this morning and we were glad to see him.

Something About Bananas.

Few people who see bananas hanging in the shops of fruit dealers think of them as more than a tropical luxury.
The fact is they are a staple article of food in some parts of the world, and according to Humboldt, an acre of bananas will produce as much food for a man as 25 acres of wheat. It is the ease with which bananas are grown that is the great obstacle to civilization in some tropical countries. It is so easy to obtain a living without work that no effort will ever be made, and the men become lazy and shiftless. All that is needed is to stick a sucker in the ground and it will at once sprout and ripen its fruit in twelve or thirteen months without further care, each plant having from 75 to 125 bananas; and, when that dies away after fruiting, new suckers spring up to take its place. In regions were no foot ever reaches, bananas are found in all stages of growth, ripening their fruit every day and every month in the year.

The yellow bananas come from Jamaica and Aspinwall, and the red bananas from Cuba. The yellow bananas sell the best because they grow more to the bunch. A bunch of yellow bananas average about ten dozen, and sometimes they average as many as twenty dozen, while the red bananas seldom run over five dozen. The bunches are sold at about the same price. The flavor of the bananas depends greatly on the soil in which it is raised. Jamaica is most favored in this respect.

Give to the Poor

The worthy President of the Ladies' Benevolent Association in this city requests us to state publicly through the columns of this paper that the Association is without a dollar in the treasury, and several bills yet unpaid; this, too, with the probability of a severe winter near at hand.

The poor must be provided for, the sick and needy must be taken care of.
This is but common humanity, while to provide for the poor widow and orphan who are left without protectors, as far as in you lies, is but carrying out the cardinal principles of Christianity and performing an act of Christian charity which the Divine Master evidently contemplated when He said, "the poor ye have always with you." Think of this, rich man, when with a full stomach after a hearty meal and with slippers on, you repose your body in a comfortable chair before a good warm fire and light your cigar or pipe for a smoke. Think of this, young man, when you play three or four games of billiards in an evening and smoke as many costly cigars! Think of this, young woman, when you are spending money lavishly upon some ornament for the head. Let every one think of the poor and send in some donation at once to the worthy and estimable lady in this city who is giving almost her entire time to the cause of charity.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSEN-THAL'S boots and shoes.

Catarrh Sometimes

commences with a cold, but its cure always commences with the use of Sage's
