ALL PERSONS are forbidden to harbor my wife, Sarah Jane Tatom, or in any manner provide her with food, raiment or shelter, as she has left my house without any provocation. I shall prosecute to the utmost extent of the law any person who aids her in any above particulars.

nov 23-2d&w M. W. TATOM.

Turpentine Hands.

I CAN GIVE EMPLOYMENT, at fair wages, to a few good TURPENTINE HANDS, to work in South Carolina. I will engage for box cutting season, or from now until Christmas, 1881. Good box cutters or such as can learn are wanted from now until next Christmas or for full season. Apply in person, or by letter, to J. H. BALESTINE, Superintendent, Lexington Courthouse, S. C., or to myself, at Wilmington, N. C.

It is rumored that Dulcigno has been occupied by the Turkish troops, and it is rumored that it hasn't. Thar now!

The cotton operatives in Northeast Lancashire are renewing the agitation in favor of an increase of wages, on account of the improved condition of the cotton trade.

There is a strong probability that Egypt and Abyssinia will have another tussle. Seven thousand soldiers are said to have left Cairo for the southern frontier.

The roads which have been participating in the cheap fare fight at Chicago agree in reporting increased earnings even in passenger business. There is a hint herein which some people might lay hold of if they would.

Gen. Garfield has scored at least one sensible action. He arrived in Washington City yesterday and, in compliance with his expressed wish, the public reception which it had been intended to give him was abandoned.

The cold wave still prevails at the North. The Hudson and Delaware rivers are frozen over and water traffic is suspended. In the Northwest it is said that 74 vessels are frozen in the ice on Lake Erie and the thermometer at Winnipeg, Manitoba, marked 25 degrees below zero.

The engagement is announced in Washington of the venerable Bishop Pinkney (Protestant Episcopal) of Maryland to Miss Lucy Hunter. The romance of his married life is somewhat remarkable. His first wife was a lady twenty years his senior, who made his christening robe when he was a babe. Her death occurred several years ago. The prospective bride is twenty years his junior, and for nine years has held the post of matron in the Louise Home in Washington.

The only difference between a pig making a glutton of himself, and a man making a pig of himself, is that the pig at some future day will be cured.

A large bear was killed on Harrison's Creek, in Pender county, and sold in this market yesterday and to-day. It brought 10 cents a pound. We got hold of a little piece of it to-day at dinner, and we'll as soon tackle a piece of alligator, with the hide on.

The Festival Last Night.

Our Roman Catholic friends had a grand time at their festival in Germania Hall last evening. As usual the festival was well attended and the results most satisfactory. The committee, Messrs. F. H. Darby, James Corbett and D. Quinlivan, assisted the young ladies most nobly. No efforts were spared to make the entertainment what it should be and every one present will agree with us in saying the festival was a perfect success.

Arrest of an Escaped Prisoner.

Charles Hawes, colored, an escaped prisoner from Elizabethtown jail, charged with larceny, was arrested in this city this morning by one of Sheriff Manning's deputies. The captive declared he was not the man, as he said his name was Hall, not Hawes. He was committed, however, all the same, to the tender mercies of Dan Howard, the Jailor, who will hold him until a requisition from the Sheriff of Bladen county comes to hand, demanding his return to Bladen.

Personal.

Mr. W. G. Browne, the celebrated portrait painter and artist, long and favorably known to many of our best citizens, is in the city. Mr. Browne hails from Washington city now where he has been residing for the past five years practicing his profession.

Our good friend Jno. T. Patrick, of Wadesboro, is in the city to-day and favored us with a visit. Capt. Patrick has established himself as a general advertising agent and is here as representative of the papers published in the Pee Dee section. We commend him to the advertising public of this city as one who is thoroughly reliable in whatever he says and whatever he undertakes.

Alarm of Fire.

There was an alarm of fire to-day, shortly before 12 o'clock, which did not, however, become general. It came from the residence of Mr. E. Thornburn, on Third street, between Walnut and Red Cross. There was some defect in the chimney and the house caught on the roof. The neighbors rushed to the rescue and succeeded in putting out the fire with buckets of water. A hole about three feet square in the roof is about the only damage sustained.

The banks and the Produce Exchange will close to-morrow and there will be a general suspension of business here.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. H. B. Eilers is very ill at his residence in this city. Last night his condition was considered very precarious but to-day, we are glad to learn, there was improvement manifested.

Joint Services.

There will be joint worship to-morrow by the Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran congregations. The Thanksgiving services will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran church and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. T. Page Ricard, of the Fifth Street M. E. Church.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

An Evening to Anticipate.

A rare opportunity for a rare entertainment of music, both instrumental and vocal, will be offered our citizens under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association, on the 22d of next month. The performers are to be the celebrated "Mendelssohn Quintette Club," of Boston, who will give one entertainment here at the Opera House on the evening of the 22d of December.

An Exciting Runaway.

We thought at one time this morning there would be a vacancy on the city Democratic Executive Committee, occasioned by the sudden demise of the Chairman, F. H. Darby, Esq., whom we thought would be precipitated from a buggy to the Belgian pavement on Front street, and our reasons were good for thinking so, for the aforesaid buggy, in which was sitting Mr. Darby with another gentleman, was being dragged along furiously at a break-neck speed up Front street by a runaway horse, which was attached to the buggy. But the gallant Chairman, nothing daunted that his hat blew off, while each particular hair on his head stood up like quills upon the fretful porcupine, swung to the lines right nobly and manfully.

But soon the man mastered the beast and the buggy was turned around and Mr. Darby and his companion came riding back again, one smoking a cigarette indifferently, while the other wore a smile of triumph while he still laid back on the reins; but suddenly, when in front of the old Market House, the horse took fright again and off he darted over the same ground he had just passed, at the same rate of speed. This called to mind very forcibly (for it was very suggestive) John Gilpin's ride, of which many of our readers no doubt have read an account.

Quite a crowd gathered, looking on in breathless expectation of seeing the occupants thrown out by coming in collision with some street corner, lamp post or vehicle, and every looker-on hoped that each of those poor fellows had a good large policy on his life, for there was not an insurance man in the crowd that would have taken the risk right then. However, we are happy to add that our heroes came out safe and sound, without any damage to life or limb. But we don't think Mr. Darby bought that horse.

Habit, if not necessity, makes a Hai Dressing such as Dr. Ayer's laboratory issues indispensable to many. The "Vigor" is one of the most delightful we have ever used. It restores not only the color, but gloss and luxuriance, to faded and gray hair.

Drink—Led Astray.

Mr. Edward E. Marks, Business Agent of Cyril Searle's "Drink" Combination, supporting Rose Eyttinge, is here making arrangements for the appearance of the troupe in this city on Monday and Tuesday evenings next. The play is well spoken of and Miss Eyttinge is an actress of no mean repute. The play "Drink" is a strong one. It abounds in startling situations and striking tableaux, which are realistic and natural. It is a sad history, powerfully related, and portrays certain phases of life and character with truth and fidelity, and it has a moral which cannot fail to have a greater or less effect. An exchange says:

The company performing the drama at the Grand Opera is a splendid one, probably as good a one as has appeared in this city in a year. It appreciates the strongest parts in the play and makes the most of them. As Gervaise Miss Rose Eyttinge gives a powerful and finished piece of acting, and makes the part her own. There is so much in her conception and rendition of the character to praise, so many delicate points which merit notice that no review of her performance could do her justice. She has to be seen and studied to be appreciated.

Too much in praise cannot be said of the Coupeau of Cyril Searle. His conception of the character is perfect and his portrayal startling in its truthfulness to nature.

He makes the famous delirium tremens so life-like and so terrible in its reality that the audience is involuntarily and in spite of itself filled with the horrors and terrors of the miserable suffering Coupeau.

Another fine piece of acting is the Virginie of Miss Nellie Jones. The character is a difficult one, but the lady portrays it artistically and well.

Little Olivia Henry makes a very pleasing and attractive Nana. The little lady appears to thoroughly appreciate her part, and she acts it well.

"Led Astray" will be produced, with Rose Eyttinge in her original role as Armand Chandoce, which she acted 200 nights in New York.

CHAS. L. ROSSITER, 195 Summit St., Toledo, Ohio says:—I would not take one thousand dollars for my Excelsior Kidney Pad, if I could not get another. I have gained in three months thirty pounds.—See Adv.

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plan. Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.

No remedy for kidney diseases heretofore discovered can be held for one moment in comparison with Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—C. A. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C.
