

CAROLINA

Chatham Record: Married at this place, on the 23d inst., by the Rev. E. N. Joyner, Dr. Lucian A. Hanks to Miss Lutie, daughter of John T. Mallory, Esq.

Greensboro Patriot: Mr. J. R. Hughes, in the city market, slaughtered two fine hogs this morning only eight months old, one weighed 275 pounds, the other 285 pounds.

Raleigh Visitor: Granville county has the largest number of horses of any county in the State; but the valuation of the horses of Rowan county is $40,353 more than those of Granville, as per the Auditor's forthcoming report.

Washington Press: George Allen & Co., of Newbern, N. C., offer to the farmers of this section the following premiums: Twenty-five dollars in gold for the largest yield of cotton to one acre; fifteen dollars in gold for the largest yield of rice to one acre, and ten dollars in gold for the largest yield of corn to one acre.

Hamlet Argus: Felix Jacobs has presented us with a curiosity in the shape of a potato. If straight, it would measure near four feet, but it is so well wound together that it could be placed in a quart measure. He also presented us with a "double-bladed" walnut, or rather two walnuts in one hull.

Fayetteville Examiner: Josiah Evens was united in matrimony to Miss May, daughter of Mr. Edwin Glover, of Fayetteville, in the Presbyterian Church, on yesterday morning, by Rev. H. G. Hill. Mr. John Martin married Miss Alice W. Clark, on Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. R. Clark.

Newbern Nut Shell: A horrible fate befell Melissa Willis, a fallen white woman, in this city on Monday night. She had been drinking freely and became intoxicated to that degree that she was insensible to cold, as well as the pains of death, and in this condition lay down where she was exposed to the bitter weather and was frozen to death.

Laurinburg Enterprise: Information reached us yesterday that a small log house on the plantation of Mr. J. H. Morgan, about two miles from Laurinburg, was destroyed about 10 o'clock by fire, together with all the furniture, clothing, provisions, and two small colored children, son and daughter of Geo Malloy, and grand children of Joe McPhatter, with whom they were living.

News and Observer: The State Board of Canvassers will, of course, adjourn until tomorrow, when they will canvass the returns for Congressmen, Judges of Superior Court, &c. — Rev. G. J. Johnson, D. D., corresponding secretary of the Baptist Publication Society, of Philadelphia, will commence a series of meetings in our city, beginning at the First Baptist Church, to-night.

Durham Plant: Mr. James Holms, of Person, the defeated candidate for the Legislature, will contest the seat of Mr. C. S. Winstead. — Major Allen Compton met with a painful accident last Saturday, resulting in his death. He was riding along the road near Joseph Vincent's mill. He rode up to the fence for some purpose, and, falling from his horse over the fence, broke his neck. He was 60 years old and resided in Cedar Grove township, Orange county.

Wadesboro Times: On Monday last 'Squire Joel Gaddy, a most respected citizen of Anson, living some seven miles below here, met with a serious accident. While examining his cotton gin, in some way his left hand got caught in the machinery, and before the gin could be stopped, his whole arm up to and above the elbow was badly crushed and mangled. Drs. Ashe, Ingram and Huntley went down Tuesday and amputated the limb just below the shoulder, and at last accounts the sufferer was doing as well as could be expected.

Kinston Journal: J. M. F. Rhodes, of Jones county, sends us an ear of corn only 5 1/2 inches long, with 1,300 grains on it. He has been carefully improving it for several years and now his corn will shell a bushel to 70 ears. He seems to have adopted the plan followed by J. N. Shute, of Jones, in getting a large number of rows to the ear. The average ears of corn will have 14, 16 or 18 rows on them, but Mr. Shute had, by careful selection year after year, improved his seed corn until he had worked it up to 24, 26 and 28 rows and the more rows on the ear the more corn would it shell. The plan is worth adopting.

Goldsboro Messenger: The dwelling house of Mr. Jas. N. Wood, about two miles from Goldsboro, on the Snow Hill road, was totally destroyed by fire Monday night. The fire was accidental. About $300 in money, which Mr. Wood had stored away up in the loft of the building, was also burnt. — A family of negro exodusters, returning from Hancock county, Indiana, passed through Goldsboro a few days ago en route for Pitt county, their former home. The party consisted of Oliver King, his wife and children, and had been on the road seven weeks getting here. Oliver says that his profound thanks to get back again on North Carolina soil. He has no use for Indiana, and proposes to spend the remainder of his life in the Old North State.

Monroe Enquirer: The 86th birth day of Dr. J. S. Kendall was celebrated at the residence of his son, Rev. T. W. Kendall, yesterday. We were shown by Mr. J. C. Bates a few days ago a nice bar of gold which was taken from the Washington Mine, now being operated by Mr. Bates. The bar referred to was the result of only a few days' work, and was worth some three hundred dollars. — No doubt the largest hog that will be sold here this season, was sold on last Tuesday by Mr. James Smith, of Sandy Ridge, to Mr. R. W. Norwood, who keeps a meat market in this place. The hog referred to was 23 months old and weighed 443 lbs. It measured six feet long, from its nose to the tip of its tail, and was a cross of the Corbet and Poland China breeds. Mr. Smith received $44.80 for it, a sum that would buy two very good milch cows.

Charlotte Observer: Ice was an inch thick on some of the ponds yesterday and had the temperature of the day before been maintained throughout the day and last night, skating would most assuredly have been a possibility this morning. — J. B. Greiter, deputy United States marshal, left Greensboro yesterday with five white men and one negro, who were sentenced by the Federal courts at Asheville and Statesville to terms in the Albany penitentiary, for violation of the revenue laws and other offences against the general government. — At a social gathering at the residence of Mrs. Austin, in Sharon township, night before last, Mr. Willis Johnston, a young man about seventeen years old, took the floor for a dance. He had scarcely taken his position when he was stricken with paralysis and sank down upon the floor. Before the physician arrived, he lost control of the muscles of the left side of his body, and at last accounts was in a very critical condition.

How Happiness is Secured.

Happiness is the absence of pain or annoyance, and wherever there is pain there is disease. A pain in the lower portion of the body indicates a disorder of some kind. If there is any odor or color or deposit in the urine it means disease and requires attention at once. We have heard many of our friends speak of the remarkable power of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure and are convinced there is nothing so certain and valuable for all disorders of the urinary system, both male and female.

Catarrh Sometimes

commences with a cold, but its cure always commences with the use of Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This old, reliable, and well-known remedy has stood the test of years, and was never more popular than now.
