It is said that pride must have a fall. It is probably when it is arrayed in gorgeous colors, as with the fall of the year.

There was an incipient fire this morning, about 5 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. D. E. Bunting, on Third street, near Mulberry. It was discovered by the cook on the premises of Mr. J. A. Willard, next door. She gave the alarm and the flames were suppressed with but slight damage to the building.

Rice birds are about play out. Not so with those Scotch ones! ROSENTHAL'S They last for ever.

We understand that Dr. Blackhall, of the Yarborough House in Raleigh, has leased the Morehead City Hotel for five years and will open it early in the coming season. Dr. Blackhall is one of the most successful hotel men in the South and he will doubtless make the Morehead house all that he has made the Yarborough. With him at the helm there is no doubt of its becoming the most popular place of resort on the coast. We wish that he would come down here and try his hand at Smithville.

Flat Capsized.

A flat loaded with wood capsized this morning in the dock at the foot of Princess street. It is thought the flat caught under the wharf and in some unaccountable way capsized. It contained about twenty cords of wood which will be recovered.

Change of Schedule.
Capt. Joseph Bisby, master of the United States mail steamer Elizabeth, gives notice in another column of a change of schedule of the steamer. He desires to express his thanks for patronage heretofore given him and will in the future endeavor to merit a continuance of the same.

His Advice.
Read Mr. J. B. Farrar's advice to young married persons, in another column. Those who have been married for some years might also profit by it. He has a fine lot of New Homes and he thinks they would make fine Xmas presents. His stock is complete and is very pretty.

Seeing is believing—without doubt you can buy Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S. †

A Fleet of Foreigners.
Fifteen square-rig vessels arrived in below yesterday and last night. The harbor presents quite a lively scene. The steam tug Blanche went out over the bar yesterday morning and hauled to on account of the dense fog. When the fog lifted there were ten square-riggers in sight. The Ger. barque Onkel reports passing eight, day-before-yesterday, which were bound for this port. Some of them had arrived this morning and in all probability the balance are securely anchored in the bay at Smithville by this time.

How to catch 'em. Just buy the DeLusion Rat and Mouse traps. Caught nearly forty one night. These traps are sold at JACOBI'S. †

Sales of Real Estate.
Messrs. Cronly & Morris sold at auction this morning the following real estate:

House and lot on the Northwest corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets, lot 66x165 feet, sold in two parts, bought by Mr. E. E. Burruss for $3,550 for the whole. Terms of sale: One-third cash, balance in two annual payments with 8 per cent. interest.

Large brick building on South Water street, two stories and double stores, now occupied by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, 42 feet on South Water street, by 60 feet on Henderson alley and 92 feet on Quince alley, to Mr. W. I. Gore, for $3,900. Terms of sale: One-third cash, balance in one and two years with 8 per cent. interest.

The first sale was absolute, the second is subject to confirmation.

Education at Rocky Point.
The trustees are infusing new life and vigor into the drooping cause of education at Rocky Point. To this end they have secured the valuable services, as Principal, of Mr. Dugald McMillan, Jr., of Pender. He received his instruction at the celebrated school of Major Bingham, in Alamance, and at other fine schools. His heart is in the work. His school opens with fine prospects. The trustees are still further opening the means of popular education by inaugurating a system of public lectures at the Academy during the winter. These lectures will be delivered free and by competent gentlemen upon educational subjects. Nothing is more improving to a community than for its citizens to listen to entertaining lectures during long winter evenings upon popular science and education. In addition to these means of improvement, that zealous teacher, Miss Annie Durham, continues her school with its accustomed popularity and success. She has also a musical class, receiving the benefits of her well-known talents for music. Healthy rivalry, upon high principles, will add to the strength and efficiency of both schools.

Another Candidate.
By a large majority the people of the United States have declared their faith in Kidney-Wort as a remedy for all the diseases of the kidneys and liver; some, however, have disliked the trouble of preparing it from the dry form. For such a new candidate appears in the shape of Kidney-Wort in Liquid Form. It is very concentrated, is easily taken and is equally efficient as the dry. Try it.—Louisville Post.

Opera House.

Cyril Searle's Drink Combination and Miss Rose Eytinge appeared at the Opera House last night in Charles Reade's play of "Drink," dramatized from Zola's L'Assommoir, to a very good audience. The cast for the play was a remarkably strong one and the company sustained the reputation which had preceded them through the medium of the press. Rose Eytinge as Gervaise was faultless and Mr. Searle as Coupeau acted his role with such truthfulness as to make one forget that it was only acting. Miss Nellie Jones, as Virginie, enacted her role with much truthfulness. The play is in the hands of a strong company, but the main interest centres in Coupeau, a plumber, interpreted by Mr. Cyril Searle. The play bill states that he has played his part in London three hundred and fifty times, and one would naturally suppose that his acting would be somewhat mechanical, but such is not the case. His smile is natural, and his laugh has the true ring of enjoyment in it. He drinks his soup in the fourth act with as much evident relish as does the hungry and tired laborer he represents, and he plays with and caresses his child with all the love and fondness of a loving father. His facial expression is a study, and kept under constant control; even at times when his profile is turned to the audience the expression his face wore when it was presented full does not relax.

He is, acting at all times, and when not assisting in the dialogue, he does not let his attention wander from the stage and its people to look at the audience, to count its number or discover whether it is entertained or not.

Miss Eytinge makes an excellent Gervaise and has evidently devoted a great deal of study to the role. Her dramatic power is especially pleasing in pathetic scenes. In the sixth act, where starvation is staring herself and child in the face, her acting is very powerful.

To-night this excellent Company will appear in "Led Astray," with Miss Eytinge as Amanda Chandoce, and Mr. Searle as Count Rudolph Chandoce.—Miss Eytinge will wear the handsome dresses made for her by Worth. The play of "Led Astray" is more exciting and of more plot than "Drink."

Postoffice News.
The money order system, one of the greatest of public conveniences, continues to grow in favor, its operations having been increased from a little over $1,000,000 in 1865 to more than $100,000,000 in the past year. At the present rate of charges the business has been conducted during the past five years with no cost to the government. The fees have covered the expenses, with a slight margin of profit. The system is so near absolute perfection that losses to senders or payees of money orders are only possible through their own neglect. The Postmaster-General recommends a reduction of the fee for money orders not exceeding $5 to 5 cents, and to extend the maximum limit of an order from $50 to $100. He also suggests the establishment of a postal savings system and also of postal telegraphs in this country, the first by the incorporation into the department of a system of postal savings.

Criminal Court.
The following cases were disposed of up to the hour of our going to press, to-wit:

State vs. C. H. Grant, charged with disorderly conduct and resisting an officer, appealed from City Court, was called this morning and counsel for the State upon affidavit moved for a removal to an adjoining county. Continued until tomorrow morning.

State vs. David Bryant, charged with larceny. Verdict guilty.

State vs. G. L. Jones, charged with larceny. Verdict guilty. Judgment of Court $25 and costs.

State vs. David Bryant, charged with larceny. Defendant submits. Judgment suspended.

State vs. David Bryant, charged with larceny. Defendant submits. Judgment suspended.

State vs. W. H. Goodman, charged with assault and battery. Motion by defendant that J. T. Edens be made prosecutor was granted. This case involves the question of the right of the city to levy a tax upon the market carts. Captain Goodman, the defendant, is Captain of the Police, and Mr. Edens, prosecutor, was arrested by defendant for non-payment of the city tax. The case is now on trial and is likely to occupy the attention of the Court the rest of the day.

Magistrate's Court.

Charles Medway, colored, was arraigned before a Justice this morning upon the charge of false pretence. Defendant was bound over to Criminal Court in the sum of $100, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Handy Robinson, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner today charged with stealing $28 from Mrs. Schriver. Defendant was committed for trial tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Burglary.
About 2 o'clock this morning a burglar was discovered in the dwelling of Officer, Jno. W. Bryant, on Swann, between Sixth and Seventh streets. The burglar effected an entrance through a window opening into the bed room of Bryant's daughter. While in this room the unwelcome visitor jostled a book from a table which awoke the child, who alarmed the household by her screams. Bryant ran into the room only in time to see the rascal leap out of the window. Nothing was disturbed about the room.

An Old Friend.
The steamship Benfactor, which has been laid up in New York for repairs for the past six weeks, arrived in port this afternoon. She has had a general overhauling and has been supplied with an entire new keel. Eleven new plates have been put on her and new framers across, besides otherwise strengthening the flooring of the ship. She is now as good as a brand new ship, and our old friend, Capt. Jones, is as proud of her as a hen with one chick.
