Champagne frappe is called a frozen smile.

A sensitive reporter is the wrong man in the write place.

The receipts of cotton at this port today put up 1,304 bales.

Cutting sarcasm is decidedly more preferable than cutting Limburger cheese.

Swamp Angels, Bull Dogs, and other Revolvers at very low prices at Jacob's.

People who never borrow trouble sometimes have a good deal of it stored away in the house.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

The different colored lights on the shipping in port present a beautiful appearance at night.

Dancing lessons given free at ROSENTHAL'S. Pump sole boots and shoes for the ball room.

Delafate Towers, who was once a noted character of Paddy's Hollow, died in Raleigh last week.

The young man who dropped a ten cent piece down his sweetheart's neck and called her a dime savings bank had a dividend declared on the spot.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in Winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Among the newest hats for ladies is one called Sunrise, so called, probably, because a man has to get up before sunrise every day for a week to earn money enough to pay for one.

How to be your own painter. Just buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOB'S.

Mr. S. D. Wallace, Cashier of the Bank of New Hanover, fainted at his desk this morning and was carried to his home. He has been quite feeble for some time.

Seeing is believing—without doubt you can buy Cooking and Heating Stoves at all most any price at JACOB'S.

There are a number of our subscribers whose names were entered for the campaign only on the Review books. We shall be glad to have them renew their subscriptions. This is the last issue which will be sent to them under the campaign subscription but we will take great pleasure in entering them as regular subscribers should they desire to renew.

Rice birds are about played out. Not so with those Scotch soles at ROSENTHAL'S. They last for ever.

Unavailable.

Unavailable matter remains in the post-office in this city addressed to Fannie Morrison, Ridgeway, S. C.; Wylie Bros, Baltimore, Md.; Mary E. Cowan, care of J. W. Cowan, no destination.

A friend has given us a curious shaped sweet potato which was grown in the garden of a summer residence on Wrights ville Sound. The shape of the potato has to be seen to be appreciated as it is rather difficult to describe. Any one curious to see the potato can be gratified by calling at this office.

How to catch 'em. Just buy the Delusion Rat and Mouse traps. Caught nearly forty one night. These traps are sold at JACOB'S.

K. of P. at the Masthead.

The German barque Onkel, Captain Walenstein, just from Rotterdam, sailed into port this morning with colors flying at the masthead bearing the ensign of the order of Knights of Pythias, of which order Capt. Walenstein is himself a member, having joined the Germania Lodge of this city on a previous visit to our port.

This Month.

Theatrical entertainments bid fair to be plentiful this month. The following engagements have been made for the Opera House: Fanny Davenport, 15th; Mendelssohn Quintette Club, 22d; French Opera Company, 23d; Maud Forester, (in "Maseppa"), 24th and 25th, and The Comets on the 30th.

To Clean Glass Globes.

If the globes on a gas fixture are much stained on the outside by smoke soak them in tolerably hot water, in which a little washing soda has been dissolved. Then put a teaspoonful of powder ammonia in a pan of lukewarm water, and with a hard brush scrub the globes until the smoke stains disappear. Rinse in clean cold water. They will be as white as new.

Rules for the Revenue Service.

Regulations have just been issued by the commissioner of internal revenue for observance by revenue officers, district attorneys, marshals and clerks of the United States courts, respecting cases arising under the internal revenue laws in which the United States is a party, and respecting the custody and disposition of real estate acquired by the United States under those laws. The officers mentioned are to co-operate actively and vigorously and heartily in the suppression of frauds upon the internal revenue, observing at the same time caution, prudence and economy. The commissioner directs that, where persons knowingly and wilfully violate the law with the evident intention of defrauding the government of its revenue, vigorous measures should be taken to bring them to trial and punishment, but it is suggested that no encouragement should be given to the commencement of prosecutions for moral, technical, slight and unintentional offenses involving no loss to the government and where no question of fraud is involved, and that all complaints presented by professional informers should receive careful scrutiny before prosecution begins. District attorneys are relied upon for the prompt and efficient preparation and prosecution of all cases, and are held primarily responsible for failure to bring cases to a speedy trial. It is directed that there should be no unnecessary delay in the proceedings to enforce collections of judgments when obtained.

The news from the seat of war is constantly contradictory, but not so from Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; every report concerning it proves it to be the best Cough Syrup known. Only 25 cts. a bottle.

Capture of a Thief.

Allen Armstrong, the colored boy who robbed the residence of Mr. W. B. McKoy on Tuesday last, was captured last night, near Rocky Point. Officer Toney Ashe, learning that Allen had gone to Rocky Point, followed him up and there ascertained that the culprit's parents lived about five miles distant on the Point Caswell road. Ashe had the warrant issued in this county endorsed by a Magistrate of Pender and then went on after his man, arriving at the home of Armstrong's parents about 9 o'clock. Armstrong had arrived only a few minutes ahead of the officer and was displaying the articles, telling his parents that they were things he had bought. He was arrested and carried back to Rocky Point where the officer and his prisoner boarded the train and arrived in this city about ten o'clock. The clue which led to the capture of the thief is as follows: Armstrong gave Mollie King a new pair of ladies' shoes for a trunk, and placed the articles in it, telling the woman that he was going to Rocky Point. She carried the shoes down street and tried to swap them with a shoe dealer for a larger pair. The dealer recognized them immediately as a pair he had sold to one of the ladies of Mr. McKoy's family and notified Mr. McKoy of it, but kept his eye on the woman until an officer could be put on her track. In endeavoring to swap the shoes she stated that she had paid $1.50 for them, which is not one-half of their value.

Armstrong is now in jail, having been committed by Justice Hill for trial at this term of the Criminal Court.

Catarrh Sometimes

commences with a cold, but its cure always commences with the use of Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This old, reliable, and well-known remedy has stood the test of years, and was never more popular than now.

Another Burgary.

The dwelling of Henry Brewington colored, on Harnett, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was burglarized last night. It was between 2 and 3 o'clock and Brewington heard him and made a dash for the rascal who was in such a hurry to leave that he left his shoes and hat behind him. He got away, however, with $2.50 in money which he abstracted from Brewington's pockets.

Criminal Court.

This Court convened at the regular hour this morning and disposed of the following cases:

State vs. C. H. Grant, resisting an officer. All cases against defendant have been removed to the Superior Court of Pender county and set for 10 o'clock on Wednesday of the first week.

State vs. W. H. Goodman, assault and battery. Guilty. This is the case in which J. T. Edens was made prosecutor on Tuesday, and the one in which the jury were discharged on account of their being unable to agree upon a verdict.

It was taken up again today, the jury returning a verdict of guilty. The assault was committed in Capt. Goodman arresting Mr. Eden in compliance with a city ordinance then in force.

Hickory Nuts and Shell-barks.

Hickory-nuts are quoted in the New York market at $1.50 to $1.75 per bushel, and yet they are not hickory-nuts, after all; at all events, not such as we know in North Carolina as hickory-nuts. They are shell-barks, an article considerably in demand during the winter season and which are brought here from the North, retailing here at about 75 cents a peck. The shell-bark is a species of the hickory-tree. It grows in North Carolina, in the middle and Western parts of the State, but not to any very great extent. We know of at least one instance where a loss has been entailed by gathering hickory-nuts for shipment, the parties having been misled by the quotations in the New York papers.

Not Much Benefit to Us.

You can eat your breakfast now in New York and your supper in Wilmington, according to the new fast schedule, provided you will eat in New York before 4 o'clock and in Wilmington after 10. This is about all of the advantage, however, the fast mail promises to prove to the people of this city. We get our New York papers and letters now just as we did a week ago. They arrive here now, it is true, about 10 o'clock at night of the day on which they leave New York, but we do not get them until next morning. Letters received here from New York, say to-day, were written on Tuesday and the actual time, from hand to hand, is not the 17-hour schedule of the fast mail but from 30 to 40 hours. However, this is our misfortune and nobody's fault. It so happens that Wilmington is not benefited while other points are. Richmond and Petersburg and Norfolk will all get their mails in the afternoon and evening and Goldsboro early in the night, while Charleston and Augusta will receive theirs just as we do ours. If the fast train could have been scheduled to leave New York at 4 or 5 o'clock in the afternoon it would have just suited us as that would have given us, at the same time or reception here, New York mail matter 12 hours later than that now received.
