THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. V WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1880. NO. 240

Assistant Postmaster-General Brady has purchased a controlling interest in the National Republican.

Senator Logan's proposed appointment as minister to England is opposed by the Chicago Times on account of his "ignorance of the language spoken in that country."

Locomotive builders in New York have so many orders that some of them will enlarge their works. A new foreign customer has entered the American market, Spain having sent orders for six or eight railway engines.

The condition of the Jews in Morocco is deplorable. At Morocco itself only six weeks ago the cad ordered the crucifixion of a Jew accused of having lent money at a usurious rate of interest. A short time before this a band of dervishes, who exercise great influence over the native inhabitants, seized a Jew at Aptifa, and, after flaying him alive, killed him and ate him. This crime was left unpunished.

Mr. Henry E. Abbey gives some very creditable reasons for his conclusion not to produce upon the stage the "Passion Play." It is rumored, however, that one of the chief reasons has not been given the public. This was his inability to find in this country a man mean enough to assume the role of Judas. If the rumor be true it shows that those people who aver that the world is no better than it was eighteen hundred years ago, are laboring under a misapprehension of facts.

Congress meets next Monday and the members are already assembling in force. The following gossip from the New York World's Washington special is of interest in this connection:

Speaker Randall, who arrived here yesterday afternoon, does not think there will be any necessity for an extra session and the very few members now here coincide with him. Of course, there will be an extra session of the Senate to confirm General Garfield's nominations, and the length of the session will depend upon the ratification of the new Chinese treaty before the 4th of March next. It is not believed by the members now here that there will be any legislation on the recommendation of Secretary Sherman that will affect the present status of the standard silver dollar. The Democratic members will hold a caucus next Saturday night to map out a course to be pursued during the coming session.

Window Glass—all sizes at Altaffer & Price's.

Oysters are plentiful at $1.00 per gallon.

There were some fine rock in market this morning.

When trains are telescoped the poor passengers see stars.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 620 bales.

Every time some men drink they drive an ale into their coffins.

Swamp Angels, Bull Dogs, and other Revolvers at very low prices at JACOBI'S.

Wood is cheaper and is in good supply now. They yet ask, however, from 75 cents to $1.25 a load.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

Dressed turkeys were selling this morning at 15 cents a pound and live turkeys at $1 to $1.25 each.

About this time many people say, "Remember the poor!" and then button their overcoats so close that they can't get at their pocket books.

Seeing is believing—without doubt you can buy Cooking and Heating Stoves at all most any price at JACOBI'S.

The Rev. Dr. C. F. Deems has been elected Counbilor of the University of New York. This will be gratifying news to the doctor's many friends in North Carolina.

Dancing lessons given free at ROSENTHAL'S. Pump sole boots and shoes for the ball room.

No City Court to-day.
Just three weeks to Xmas, boys!

No more burglaries or mink murders to report to-day.

We have been asked if the John Kooners would turn out this Christmas. How about it, Mr. Mayor?

We advise all in need of Household Hardware to first go to JACOBI'S. There you get the lowest prices.

Application will be made to the next General Assembly for the passage of an act to incorporate the Clarendon Water Works Company of this city.

How to catch 'em. Just buy the Delusion Rat and Mouse traps. Caught nearly forty one night. These traps are sold at JACOBI'S.

Messrs Cronly & Morris will sell at their sales room to-morrow morning a lot of choice plants. Our citizens now have a chance to beautify their premises at a small cost.

This is the season when fires do most abound, and houses burn by carelessness. Examine stovepipes, ash-boxes and the like, and guard kerosene lamps as well. An ounce of care will often save thousands and perhaps many lives.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in Winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Some philosophical paragrapher has been struck with wonder at the persistence of mothers in teaching their children to talk, and the equal persistence with which they endeavor, a few years later, to keep them from exercising their talents in that line.

It is said that musty flour can be restroed and improved by taking three parts of carbonate of magnesia and 760 parts of flour in the usual way. This will not only improve bad flour, but the bread will be much lighter, more wholesome and will keep much longer than when alum is used.

Rice birds are about played out. Not so with those Scotch soles at ROSENTHAL'S. They last for ever.

Attempted Incendiarism.

An attempt was made last night to fire the residence of a colored man living in the Southern portion of the city. Cotton, saturated with oil, and light-wood splinters were found under the house in a light blaze which was extinguished before the fire got fully under headway.

Badge of Mourning.

Carolina Lodge No. 434, Knights of Honor, having been officially notified of the death of the Hon. R. A. Osmer, late Supreme Treasurer of the Order, their lodge room will be draped in mourning for the next thirty days, and the members are expected to wear the usual badge of mourning, narrow white and black ribbon, in the button-hole of their coats.

Nothing tries the patience of a man more than to listen to a hacking cough, which he knows could easily be cured by investing 25 cents in a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Mails.

A Front street merchant, whose communication we publish elsewhere, thinks that the fast mail might yet be made of benefit to us if the mails were placed at the disposal of our business men on arrival here at night. A prominent merchant on Market street has also made the same suggestion. We commend the matter to Col. Brink's attention, believing that the accommodation will be extended if it is practicable to do so.

How to be your own painter. Just buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOBI'S.

Mr. Wallace.

Mr. S. D. Wallace, Cashier of the Bank of New Hanover, whose sudden indisposition we spoke of yesterday, is confined to his bed to-day and will remain there for the present, under the strenuous advice of his physician. Mr. Wallace has not been entirely well for some weeks past but persisted in remaining at his post. No fears as to his condition are entertained and it is thought that with a few days of rest and care he will be entirely recovered.

I have no more doubt of the beneficial effects of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure than I have that the General river empties into Lake Ontario. Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., Washington, D. C.

This is first clear sunshiny day we have had in weeks. The atmosphere to-day is pleasant and balmy.

The River.

There was ten feet of water in the river at Fayetteville when Capt. Roberson, of the Wave, left there yesterday morning. At that time the water was falling slowly but later advices state that it is again rising. Steamboatmen are now encouraged to hope that there will be no more very low water this winter.

Receiving Stolen Goods.

Mollie King, colored, who was found with a pair of shoes stolen from the residence of Mr. W. B. McKoy, and her husband, Nelson King, were arrested this morning, charged with receiving stolen goods. The case will come up before the Criminal Court to-morrow morning. It is thought that the woman and her husband are members of a gang of sneak thieves.

Personal.

Rev. Thos. D. Pitts, with his wife and three children, arrived here this morning and are the guests now of Mr. John E. Lippitt. Mr. Pitts will preach at St. John's Church on Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours. He will remain with St. John's Parish temporarily and probably through the winter. His family will, at all events, we understand, remain in Wilmington until spring.

Criminal Court.

This Court convened at the regular hour this morning and disposed of the following cases:

State vs. Edward Bryson, harboring seamen. Continued to April term.
State vs. J. H. Harrison, false pretense. Guilty. Judgment suspended.
State vs. Allen Armstrong, larceny. Guilty.
State vs. George Myers, burglary. Nol pros, with leave.
State vs. J. F. Pocalty, false pretense. Nol pros, with leave.
State vs. Edward Hill, assault and battery. Nol pros, with leave.

The Mails.

Your article yesterday relative to the fast mail is correct. As it is now we get no benefit whatever from the fast mails, but there would be some benefit to us provided the mails were offered at night to those who might call for them. Letters on matters of importance could be received here at half past 10 o'clock and an answer despatched early the next morning. What do you think about it?
Yours,
FRONT STREET.

The Sun for 1881.

EVERYBODY READS THE SUN. In the editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:
I.—All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The Sun long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.
II.—Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind: From morning to morning The Sun prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.
III.—Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy and decorum in the treatment of every subject.
IV.—Honest comment. The Sun's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.
V.—Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.
VI.—Absolute independence of partisan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Kings for monopoly, the Kings for plunder, and the Kings for imperial power.

Our terms are as follows:
For the Daily Sun, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $5.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.
The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.
The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.
