Subscriptions to the De Lesseps Panama Canal Scheme were to have been opened in New York to-day.

At St. Louis the river is lower than for many years. Navigation is suspended and cannot be resumed until after a rise.

Diphtheria is raging fiercely in Brooklyn, and from twenty to twenty-five new cases are developed daily. Prayers are being offered up in the Catholic churches for an abatement of the disease.

The new Chinese treaty, of which only a telegraphic abstract has as yet reached Washington, is said to provide that no vessels or steamers shall bring to the United States more than fifteen Chinese immigrants at a trip.

France produced a better grain crop the present year than in any one of the last eight years. The tables show 63,034,000 increase over last year on the wheat product. And in all grains a gross increase of 88,681,000 bushels. The total French wheat crop of last year was 279,820,000.

The total cost of collecting the revenue in the United States during the fiscal year just closed is stated at $4,505,842.66, being 3 63-100 per cent of the total amount collected.

The report of the Superintendent of the Life Saving Service, just made public, is very interesting. There were 300 vessels lost within the limits of the service and there were 1,989 persons on board, of whom but 9 were lost. This is a remarkable showing.

The office of the Commonwealth Distribution Company in New York was raided by the police Thursday night and some important arrests were made. The Company will fight the case in the Courts.

Yesterday, in New York, the grand jury found true bills against Samuel Sullivan Morey, for perjury, and against Joseph Hart, Louis A. Post, Kenward Philip and Charles A. Byrne, for libel, in the matter of the Morey Chinese letter.

Window Glass—all sizes at JACOBI'S.

No interments in Oakdale Cemetery this week.

No interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,222 bales.

There was a heavy frost visible this morning and yesterday morning.

Swamp Angels, Bull Dogs, and other Revolvers at very low prices at JACOBI'S.

Dr. Thos. F. Wood left here last night for New Orleans, where he goes on business.

The Register of Deeds issued during the week five marriage licenses, all to colored couples.

There will be services at St. John's Church to-morrow morning and evening at 11 A. M. and 7 1/2 P. M.

Popular trial shows the worth of every article; and 34 years constant use has proven the great efficacy of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; it has no superior.

Sunset this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon and every afternoon next week, until Thursday, at 4:46.

Laborers are hard at work rebuilding the ice-house on the corner of Front and Dock streets, which was destroyed by fire some nine months ago.

Ladies, the best fit, and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSKENTHAL'S.

A colored pauper, who says he came here from Tarboro, and who has been begging on the streets for a month past, fell into a fit at the corner of Market and Water streets this morning.

Seeing is believing—without doubt you can buy Cooking and Heating Stoves at all most any price at JACOBI'S.

A Painful Accident.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Nellie Gardner, a young lady of about fifteen, daughter of Capt. Janius D. Gardner, fell on Thursday and broke her right forearm. The fracture, we understand, is a simple one, and Miss Nellie, it is hoped, will have the use of her arm again in a few weeks.

How to be your own painter. Just buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOBI'S.

Services To-Morrow.

The Rev. Dr. Yates and Rev. Mr. Riccaud are in Winston in attendance on Conference. Rev. J. W. Craig will fill the pulpit of the Front Street M. E. Church to-morrow morning and that of the Fifth Street Church at night. There will be no services at the Front Street Church at night, nor at the Fifth Street Church in the morning.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSKENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Personal.

Rev. Dr. A. A. Watson, Rector of St. James' Parish, arrived in this city last night and will fill his pulpit to-morrow. Dr. Watson has been in attendance upon the Triennial Convention of the church which was held in New York.

Dr. M. J. DeRosset has so far recovered as to be able to appear on the streets this morning in a carriage. We were also pleased to see Mr. W. C. Munds, who has been quite sick, out again.

A Bad Smash-Up.

There was a regular smash-up on Market street this morning. Capt. E. W. Manning's horse was standing in front of McEachern's grain store in the buggy shafts, when he became frightened and started off. He had run but a short distance when he collided with a grocery wagon and the rockaway was badly smashed but the horse was not injured. Fortunately there was no one in the rockaway at the time. The vehicle is almost a perfect wreck.

Dr. Burbank.

Our young professional friend, Dr. Burbank, who recently removed from this city, is adding to his laurels in Washington, in this State, his old home. The Press says:

Dr. T. S. Burbank, on one day last week, cut from the arm of Mr. A. P. Crabtree, a piece of shell which has been imbedded there since 1865. Many an anxious hour as well as painful ones are thus spared the unfortunate possessor of this war trophy by the skillful use of the knife of this young surgeon, who promises bright developments in the future.

We advise all in need of Household Hardware to first go to JACOBI'S. There you get the lowest prices.

Among the losers by the recent disastrous fire in Durham is Bro. Green, of the Tobacco Plant. He lost everything, but we trust that he may emerge from his troubles at an early day and resume the publication of his excellent paper.

By the way, this reminds us of something. The insurance companies stick on a very high premium on newspaper offices, because, as they assert, of the unusual danger from fire in such places, and yet, can any man put his finger on two instances in North Carolina where a printing office has been destroyed by fire originating on the premises?

How to catch 'em. Just buy the Delusion Rat and Mouse traps. Caught nearly forty one night. These traps are sold at JACOBI'S.

The North Carolina Medical Journal

The November number of this valuable periodical of medical literature has just come to hand. It maintains the high standard which has characterized all its predecessors, not only in the matter which is of great importance to the medical fraternity, but in its make-up and neat typographic appearance. It is published monthly at a subscription price of $3 per annum. The publisher announces new features for 1881. The January number will contain a very valuable paper, Jefferson as a Vaccinator; which is the story of the introduction of vaccination in the South; consisting of a series of letters written in the year 1801, by Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, to Benjamin Waterhouse, the Jenner of America; and some slight comments thereon, by Henry A. Martin. Illustrated by exact fac simile copies of all the letters.

Ladies: Miss Karrer advertises new goods and a fine assortment of beautiful dolls and other handsome Xmas goods. She has also just received new embroidery patterns. She will be pleased to have you call, and will take great pleasure in displaying the stock.

Fifth Invoice.

Attention is invited to the attractive advertisement of Colonel John J. Hedrick, as it appears in this issue. He has just received the fifth invoice of a line of black cashmeres which have been received here with much favor. Col. Hedrick has also full and handsome lines of dress and fancy goods and makes a beautiful display.

Criminal Court.

The Criminal Court adjourned to-day for the term.

The Grand Jury, during the term, have found 23 true bills and 5 not true bills.

The following cases were disposed of to-day:

State vs. Nelson King and Charlotte King, for larceny, not guilty.

State vs. Francis Medway, for false pretences, nol. pros.

Post Office, Wilmington, N. C. Dec. 4th, 1880.

EDITOR DAILY REVIEW:

Sir:—The suggestion of your "Front street" correspondent and your own remarks as to the distribution and delivery of the night mails seem to demand a word in reply.

1st. Three mails, when on time, reach the office at 10.25. It requires about one hour and a quarter for a proper distribution, making the earliest possible time of delivery 11.30 p. m.

2d. The clerical force of the office is hard worked on an average of fourteen and a half hours per day. I am desirous of giving the public the largest and most complete facilities possible in the matter of receiving and despatching mails, with the means at my command, and if your correspondent will secure the signatures of a considerable portion of the business firms of this city, setting forth that they desire the distribution and delivery of these mails at the hour of 11.30 p. m. for their accommodation, I shall be pleased to refer the matter to the Department at Washington, with a view of securing an appropriation for the night service.

I am, very respectfully,
ED. R. BRINK, Postmaster.
