Holiday Gifts!

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS!

Brown & Roddick,

N. E. CORNER OF MARKET AND SECOND STREETS.

WILL GIVE TO ALL PARTIES PURCHASING GOODS AT RETAIL TO THE AMOUNT OF $2 AND UPWARDS, A TICKET DULY NUMBERED AND RECORDED ENTITLING THE BEARER TO A CHANCE FOR ONE OF THE FOLLOWING BEAUTIFUL AND COSTLY GIFTS:

- 1st—A Silver Plated Tea Urn Manufactured by the Meridian Silver Plate Co. Valued at $30.
- 2d—A Large Wax Doll Valued at $15.
- 3d—An Elegant Model Doll Valued at $5.
- 4th—1 Pair Large Silvered Vases Valued at $1.

The value of these articles is not fictitious as it would avail us nothing to deceive the public. The gifts will shortly be on exhibition and can be seen by all. After Christmas the numbers will be drawn under the superintendence of two well known and responsible gentlemen of this city.

We submit the following list and would add that it would be a moral impossibility to give a full and complete inventory of articles in our establishment, as we are adding daily to each department.

Wholesale Buyers!

Will do well to call early as our lines are liable to be broken later in the season.

Mr. M. Cronly, Jr., has so far recovered as to be able to appear on the streets.

The cotton market here to-day scored an advance of $\frac{1}{2}$ of a cent on last sales.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

The Davenport troupe arrived this morning and are registered at the Purcell.

The Mendelshon Quintette Club will appear at the Opera House next Wednesday night.

No City Court to-day, no arrest last night and no news to-day from that quarter. Too bad!

Seeing is believing—without doubt you can buy Cooking and Heating Stoves at almost any price at JACOBI'S.

The Little Giant Engine House has received a new coat of paint and now looks as nice as could be desired.

Turkey shooting, gender pulling, cocking mains and dog fights are among the amusements we hear of for the Christmas holidays.

Square umbrellas have been introduced in Paris; but some one says they are just as bad as the old kind, because they are never round when wanted.

The ice men are going around saying the ice is so thick they cannot cut it without being put to great expense, consequently ice will be dear next summer.

Never "bull doze" a man, but if you meet a human being suffering with a bad cough you may "bull-doze" him to advantage with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

An uptown politician says you may talk of your water cures, your movement cures, and your blue glass cures; but there is nothing like the sinecures, after all.

Rev. Jno. J. Beasley, of Masonboro Sound, left for Monroe last night, where he goes to accept a call from one of the Baptist churches of that thriving little town.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

The competitive skating for a pair of fine self-adjusting nickel-plated roller skates will take place at the City Hall Xmas week under the supervision of Prof. Cushing.

How to be your own painter. Just buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOBI'S.

Turkeys are plentiful and sell for from 75 cents to \$1.25 apiece. Eggs are scarce and taken at 30 cents per dozen; green pork is plentiful at 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ cents per pound by the whole.

Unavailable.
Unavailable letters remain in the post-office in this city addressed as follows: Miss J. M. Gilchrist, Nichols, S. C.; Jane Swann, Swann Station, N. C.; Miss Ann Dukes, Goldboro, N. C.; J. C. Huffman, Rocky Point, N. C.; D. P. Evans, Magnolia, N. C.

Swamp Angels, Bull Dogs, and other Revolvers at very low prices at JACOBI'S.

Doomed to Disappointment.
There are many in our city who will no doubt be grieved to know that the regular theatrical entertainments booked for Xmas week have given us the go-by and that so far as is known now, there will be no amusement of this kind until the 7th of January, when Oliver Doud Byron will play here for one night only.

Back Tax Grab.
Since last Thursday Sergeant Davis of the police force has hauled up one hundred and one delinquent draymen, who were required to pay up their back tax to the City Clerk and Treasurer. The revenue of the city has been increased, and if the authorities would only make a raid on the hucksters another hundred or two dollars could be deposited in the city coffers.

How to catch 'em. Just buy the Delusion Rat and Mouse traps. Caught nearly forty one night. These traps are sold at JACOBI'S.

No Fears.
As is usual upon the approach of the holidays there are more or less larcenies committed. We are beginning to hear of petty thefts and the sudden disappearance of chickens, turkeys, etc. Last night a gentleman friend of ours had the misfortune to have his chicken coop broken open and robbed of three fine turkeys. On Monday night others were victimized, losing both chickens and turkeys. A poor printer who had been six months in laying up one dollar with which to buy a turkey for his Xmas dinner had the turkey stolen from him a few nights ago. That is the worst we have heard of. Any one who has sunken so low and is so depraved as to steal from a typo certainly has no fears of a hereafter or a gallows on this earth.

I have no more doubt of the beneficial effects of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure than I have that the Genesee river empties into Lake Ontario.—Rev. J. E. Rankin, D. D., Washington, D. C.

Opera House.
"An American Girl" will be presented at the Opera House to-night by Miss Davenport and her excellent company. The stage settings are fine, as the company is supplied with an unusually large property. That Miss Davenport is one of the best actresses on the road admits of no doubt.

The New York Herald, in speaking of the dresses worn in Fanny Davenport's new play of "An American Girl," says: "Miss Davenport is now just in the full ripeness of physical beauty. Her dresses are marvels of art. She dresses with perfect taste and good judgment. Such toilets as those she wears have not been seen in New York on the stage since she left Fifth Avenue to enter the stage as a star. Bernhardt, with her $20,000 wardrobe, will have to look to her laurels. In the third act Miss Davenport encircles her neck with a diamond necklace, the value of which, upon authority, is estimated at $10,000. Miss Dickinson owes her a debt that she can only repay by writing her another play. In the third act—the strongest of the piece—she reached a point of emotional intensity which evokes loud applause, a call before the curtain and a demand for a speech."

When youthful hearts, strong and true, Enter love's communion, Stronger yet will be the ties With a policy in the Union Mutual Life Insurance Company t] Jno. W. GORDON & Bro., Agts.

Our good friend and one time fellow-townsmen, Capt. C. S. Ellis, now of Savannah, Ga., is in the city on a visit to relatives. We are glad to see him looking so well.

Rice birds are about played out. Not so with the Scotch soles at ROSENTHAL'S. They last for ever.

Beautiful balmy weather. The thermometer in this office, at 3 o'clock to-day, stood at 69, which is 13 degrees above temperate and but 7 degrees below summer heat.

One Experience from Many
"I had been sick and miserable so long and had caused my husband so much trouble and expense, no one seemed to know what ailed me, that I was completely disheartened and discouraged. In this frame of mind I got a bottle of Hop Bitters and I used them unknown to my family. I soon began to improve and gained so fast that my husband and family thought it strange and unnatural but when I told them what had helped me, they said 'Hurrah for Hop Bitters! long may they prosper, for they have made mother well and us happy.'—The Mother.—Home Journal.
