The Ford Comedy Company, accompanied by "Yer 'and, Guv'nor," arrived last night and are registered at the Purcell.

The old saying, "oposition is the life of business" has not been sustained in one instance at least. Since the introduction of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup all other cough remedies have been dead stock and the venders are in despair.

Don't forget the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted, at Jacobi's. †

Birds of Passage.

We learn that W. J. Penton and his son, who is also implicated in the cotton larcenies, passed through Washington City on Wednesday morning last. Penton told a conductor on the road that his son was going to get a position in the Postoffice department, and that he was going with the boy to see him start right.

Have you seen the latest improved Heating and Cook Stoves at Jacobi's! You can get them at factory prices.

A Cyclone.

We stepped into the Signal Office this morning [and asked: "Hazen you got any news for us?" but were fired down the steps so quick that we didn't stop to get the particulars of the cyclone (a No. 9) that struck us. These weather men never could take a joke or stand a pun. Watson earth is the matter with them? TheClark of the weather let that cyclone of too quick, or else we might have gotten an item.

A Delusion Trap placed in the house will quietly catch a cunning mouse. Call a JACOBI'S for traps

An Ungrateful Deer.

A pet dear belonging to a gentleman in this city was chased by dogs a few days ago and after an exciting drive the deer managed to get back to its adopted home and ran into thekitchen for protec. tion against the canines. The cook, not understanding, undertook to drive the deer out but the "darling"little thing" was soon playing football with her. The deer, angered by the chase, pounced upon the woman and injured her very severely. The lady of house went to the rescue of the woman when the deer wheeled upon its mistress and pawed "her very badly inflicting several painful wounds. That deer was killed in a very few minutes afterwards and is noww hanging on a butch er's stall for sale.
