Holiday Gifts!

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENTS!

Brown & Roddick,

N. E. CORNER OF MARKET AND SECOND STREETS.

WILL GIVE TO ALL PARTIES PURCHASING GOODS AT RETAIL TO the amount of $2 and upwards, a ticket duly numbered and recorded entitling the bearer to a chance for one of the following beautiful and costly gifts:

- 1st—A Silver Plated Tea Urn Manufactured by the Meridian Silver Plate Co. Valued at $30.
- 2d—A Large Wax Doll Valued at $15.
- 3d—An Elegant Model Doll Valued at $5.
- 4th—A Pair Large Silvered Vases Valued at $1.

The value of these articles is not fictitious as it would avail us nothing to deceive the public. The gifts will shortly be on exhibition and can be seen by all. After Christmas the numbers will be drawn under the superintendence of two well known and responsible gentlemen of this city.

We submit the following list and would add that it would be a moral impossibility to give a full and complete inventory of articles in our establishment, as we are adding daily to each department.

Wholesale Buyers!

Will do well to call early as our lines are liable to be broken later in the season.

Spunglass is now made into neklaces.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 280 bales.

The banks of this city will be closed on Saturday, New Year's.

It is the custom just at present to speak of the front hair as the "foretop."

Don't forget the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted, at JACOBI'S.

Col. K. M. Murchison, of New York, was in the city yesterday.

Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Jones, arrived here this morning from New York.

Buttons now proudly stand out on a garment and insist on being classed among objects of art.

At 10 o'clock this forenoon, in the open air, in front of this office, the thermometer stood at 13°.

Have you seen the latest improved Heating and Cook Stoves at JACOBI'S? You can get them at factory prices.

J. R. CAIRNS, Sheriff of Lenawee Co., Mich., says:—I have worn an "Only Lung Pad" for Bronchial difficulties, and have not been troubled with a cough night since wearing it.—See Adv.

There is unmailable matter in the Postoffice in this city addressed to Mrs. Ann Dukes, Goldsboro, N. C., and Robt. McCall and A. B. Gibson.

It should not be forgotten that our friends of Germania Lodge K., of P., will give their third annual ball at Germania Hall this evening. The committee promise an unusual pleasant time and will be pleased to see all their friends in attendance.

An experienced traveler says: "The most trouble-some companion a person can have, while being away from home, is a cough and I would advise everybody to procure a bottle of Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup before starting."

Gold embroidery and cut beads are now used to such an extent by young women that when one of them is whirling in a waltz, the glass and brass bits rattle and rasp like a bag of beans when it is shaken. And when she stands still under the gaslight, she appears to be a lump of metal and suggests a ton in weight.

Serious Accident to a Sailor.
A sailor on board of the schooner Jesse Elizabeth, while passing the hatchway of the vessel this morning, was struck by a barrel of rosin, which was being hoisted on board, and knocked down in the hold, a distance of some eight or ten feet. The fall broke one of the poor fellow's legs and dislocated the knee pan of the other. Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy was called to see the injured man, and after administering what relief he could to the sufferer, had him sent to the Marine Hospital, where he will be taken care of by Dr. Thos. F. Wood, surgeon in charge of the Hospital. The schooner Jesse Elizabeth, Capt. Weaver, is loading a cargo of naval stores at Messrs. DeRosset & Co.'s wharf, on the West side of the river.

Bitter Cold.
The weather has been the all-absorbing topic of conversation to-day. Last night was wet, nasty, cold and otherwise disagreeable. About 10 o'clock it began to snow but there was only a very light fall. This morning dawned clear and fair, but intensely cold and the general verdict is that it is the coldest weather we have had here since the Christmas of 1870. It has not been as cold, however, as it was in 1857-8, which was an exceptionally cold winter. It was the coldest known here for many years. So cold was it during that winter that early one morning the Cape Fear river was found frozen across from shore to shore. It was only a thin sheathing of ice, however, and soon broke and melted when the sun fell on it. That is the only instance, during the past seventy years, when such a thing is known to have occurred here.

A Happy Hop.
A hop, complimentary to Mr. R. B. Hartsfield and his bride, was given last evening in the Little Giant Hall, by a number of gentlemen in this city, friends of the newly wedded couple. Mr. Hartsfield was married on Wednesday evening to Miss Ida Gause. They will leave here to-morrow for Charlotte, where Mr. Hartsfield is now located.

Champion of the World.
Warburton of England, the champion runner of the world, was in this city yesterday en route for England via New York. Mr. Warburton has been on a visit to his brother in Rockingham-Richmond county, in this State, for the past two months. He was to have run a thirty mile match in England on Monday last but was unable to meet his appointment.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Scarce and High.
Wood is again very scarce and very high, ranging from $1.50 to $1.75 per load, or a quarter of a cord. There are two reasons assigned for the meagre supply for fuel. The weather has been so cold that hands could not work along the river banks and the bulk of the wood brought to market is bought up for damage by the vessels in port leading with naval stores. There will no doubt be much suffering from cold unless more wood is brought to this city and sold at a price within the reach of the poor and destitute.

A Delusion Trap placed in a house will quietly catch a cunning mouse. Call at JACOBI'S for them.

Accident to the Steamer Hurt.
The steamer A. P. Hurt, Captain Thornton, due here this morning about 2 o'clock, met with an accident to her machinery some 22 miles above this place on the river and was compelled to tie up at Wanet's landing. Captain Thornton then took the broken piece of machinery, the eccentric rod, and carried it six miles to Brinkley's, on the W., C. & A. R. R., and arrived here on the regular passenger train by that road, this morning. The machinery will be repaired in time for Capt. T. to return to his boat by the steamer Jno. Dawson, this afternoon, when we may look for the Hurt's safe arrival here to-night.

Spoken at Sea.
Capt. David May, of the brigantine Kitty Clyde, writes to Messrs. E. Peschau & Westermann, of this city, to the effect that on the 9th inst., in latitude 34-40, longitude 60-07, he spoke the barque Charlotte Anna, Capt. Levin, from this port, for Antwerp. He got some provisions from Capt. Levin, having been much in need, as he had been blown out of his course while bound from Demarara to Prince Edward Island. Having lost most of her sails, the Kitty Clyde was making her way back to Bermuda, when she fell in with the Charlotte Anna. Captain May speaks very gratefully of Capt. Levin for the kindness and assistance rendered him.

An Appeal for the Poor.
Would it not be well for some of our leading and prosperous business men in this community to call a meeting of well-to-do citizens and organize themselves into a sort of humane or charitable society, for the purpose of relieving the sufferings of the poor in this city, during the very severe weather that is now upon us?

How many people are there in this community who had comfortable feather beds to sleep on last night, with carpeted rooms, and who yet felt the freezing weather pinch them a little? How terrible then must have been the sufferings of those poor fellow creatures of ours living in this very city of Wilmington who had nothing but a pallet of straw for a couch with scarcely anything to cover with, no wood, and cracks under the door or in the floor through which the cold blasts of winter kept sweeping through all night, adding to their misery and discomfort? Will some one urge on this matter and get up a subscription for wood to be distributed among the poor and needy and sick and suffering humanity now living within the corporate limits of this city?

The thermometer at Atlanta, at 7 o'clock this morning, stood at 2°; at Augusta, at 8°; at Charleston, at 15°; at Charlotte, at 10°; at Knoxville, at 20°; at Lynchburg, at 10°; at Memphis, at 7°; at Montgomery, at 8°; at Mobile, at 15°; at Nashville, at 5°; at New York, at 5°; at Savannah, at 15°; at St. Louis, at 10°; at Washington City, at 4°, and at Wilmington at 11°.

City Court.
John Davis, colored, alias Tucker Townsend, was arraigned before the Mayor this morning charged with the larceny of a sail from the boat of Joe Johnson, colored. The defendant was bound over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $50, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The case of Charlotte Sidbury, charged with assault and battery, was continued until Saturday.
Jerry M. Johnson, a small colored lad, charged with stealing flasks from a grocery store on Front street, was imprisoned for one day, when he will be turned over to his mother for correction. This exhausted the docket and the Court adjourned.

A Victim of Misplaced Confidence.
For some time past Mr. Dan. O'Connor, Real Estate Agent in this city, has been missing from the safe in his office, on Princess street, change to the amount of one or two dollars at a time. This Mr. O'Connor was at a loss to account for, except on the hypothesis that one of the safe keys which he had lost some time since must have been found by some one who was well acquainted with his premises and knew how and when to get at the safe. The abstractions from the safe continued for some little time when Mr. O'Connor's suspicions were at last directed to a colored boy in his employ by the name of George Williams. This colored individual, in whom his employer reposed great confidence, commenced recently to wear very fine clothes and in addition to this fact another cause of suspicion was that the aforesaid colored individual drove out on Christmas Day with two in hand and went rattling through the streets with his double team like a regular sport. These things, taken altogether finally determined, Mr. O'Connor to arrange a trap to catch the thief, which was done as follows: The cash was put in the safe as usual but it was all marked. The next thing was to bore a hole in the ceiling of the office where a young man was stationed at 6 o'clock this morning to watch the premises below. He had not long to wait, however, for between 6 and 7 o'clock George Williams, the colored boy referred to, opened the office as usual to make the fire and sweep out. Instead of proceeding to his regular duties, though, the young man on watch discovered him take a key from his pocket and open the safe door. Mr. O'Connor, whose residence is next door to his office, was notified of the situation of affairs and immediately repaired to the scene where he found Williams in possession of his safe key and $2.75 of the marked money which he had put in his safe the night before. A warrant was at once taken out for the arrest of Williams, who was arraigned before a Justice on the charge of larceny and committed for trial until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Cause and Effect.
The main cause of nervousness is indigestion, and that is caused by weakness of the stomach. No one can have sound nerves and good health without using Hop Bitters to strengthen the stomach, purify the blood, and keep the liver and kidneys active, to carry off all the poisonous and waste matter of the system. See other column.—Advance.
