The steamship Ellen S. Terry left here today for New York, via Morehead City. She took in part of her cargo here and will take in the balance at Morehead.

Bound for Georgia.
 Quite a number of laboring men, mostly colored, are leaving this State for the fertile lands of South Carolina and Georgia. Some sixty or seventy passed through this city a day or two since with their destination as above stated.

During the Holidays buy useful articles such as Christmas Fire Dogs, Shovels and Tongs, Fluting Machines, &c. All at the lowest prices at JACOBI'S.

Mymental.
 Dr. S. S. Satchwell was married on Tuesday last, at Bellville, Pender county, to Miss Sarah P. Bell, daughter of Mr. F. H. Bell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. S. Black. Dr. Satchwell and his bride will leave for a bridal tour through the North in a few days. Our best wishes attend them.

Accident to Steamer Gov. Worth.
 Messrs. Worth & Worth, of this city, received a telegram late yesterday evening from Col. J. B. Starr, Agent at Fayetteville, informing them that the steamer Gov. Worth had yesterday morning while en route for Fayetteville run on a snag at Council's Bluff and sunk. No further particulars of the accident were given and up to this time Messrs. Worth & Worth have received no additional information, although they have telegraphed to find out the steamer's exact condition. Col. Starr mentioned in his dispatch that the freight was all saved and that he would take the steamer A. P. Hurt, of the same line, together with the disester. Council's Bluff, we understand, is some 28 or 30 miles this side of Fayetteville. The accident must have occurred before day.

Married in Raleigh.

Preston L. Bridgers, Esq. of this city, was married yesterday afternoon, in Raleigh, to Miss Bettie Burke Haywood, a beautiful and accomplished young lady, in the true sense of the words, and daughter of Dr. E. B. Haywood. The ceremony was performed in Christ Church by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., Rector of that Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Patterson, of this city. The happy couple are expected to arrive here this evening on the train from the North.

The General Services.
 Bishop Atkinson will be buried to-morrow. The funeral services will take place at 11 o'clock and the interment will be made under the altar of St. James' Church. This was consented to by the family at the request of the Vestry of St. James'. Bishop Lyman is expected here to-night and he and such other bishops and clergymen as may be present, together with the pall-bearers and the vestries of the churches in this city, will escort the remains from the Episcopal residence to the Church. The friends of the family are requested to attend at the Church, instead of at the house. The services at the church will take place at 11 o'clock.
 The four Episcopal Churches in this city, St. James', St. John's, St. Paul's and St. Mark's, are now wearing the emblems of grief. The Christmas decorations have not been removed, but the sad insignia has been placed over them to show that in the midst of the joy of the birth-season the angel of death has spread his wings and overshadowed the joy of the Church.

Pleasure Yacht Gleam.
 The pretty little steam-yacht Gleam, of Baltimore, steamed up the river this morning and made a mooring in front of the Custom House. She is owned by Mr. W. H. Graham, who uses her exclusively for pleasure. The little craft came to this city to coal up and is bound for St. Augustine, Fla. Mr. Graham, the owner, is on her. She is supplied with all modern improvements and is a miniature floating palace. She is well supplied with boats for hunting, ducking, etc. Mr. Graham also carries his bird dogs with him. The Gleam is said to be very fast, her average running time in smooth water being 18 knots. She made the run from Beaufort to Smithville in 8 hours and 30 minutes and from Smithville to Wilmington in 2 hours.

Another Swindle.
 We have never seen an audience more thoroughly disgusted than the large one which was dismissed by "Prof." J. M. Colville last evening, after the performance of seven tricks which were very clumsily executed. The audience was one of the largest of the season and was drawn together to witness the spiritualistic manifestations advertised by Colville. He opened with the wine trick, which is known to a great many, and then pitched on to his mental exhibitions, which were exceedingly thin. The slate test, by means of chemicals, was perhaps his best trick, if any of them can be dignified by a superlative adjective. The "Cabinet test" was bungling in the extreme, and can be much better and more quickly done by a young friend of ours in this city who lays no claims to supernatural agencies. The raising of a small portable table, by means of springs run down the performer's sleeves, completed the "seance." The piano did not rise from the floor or float about the air, neither did bouquets of flowers sail through the hall, nor were materialized spirits visible, in fact nothing was done, that was advertised, except the charging of a "small entrance fee to defray expenses." The "five powerful and newly developed mediums" who were to assist the "Prof." consisted in a gawk who moved the cabinet from the stage and the fellow who was placed in the cabinet to play the part of "supernatural agency" who disgusted the audience by the length of time taken in doing a thing which Cook did in about one-tenth of the time in full view of the audience. We have been swindled most outrageously.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for real Silver Plated Tea and Table Spoons and Forks, Roger's Ivory handled Table Knives, Pen and Pocket Knives. All for Christmas and at the lowest prices.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a called meeting of the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, on the evening of the 5th inst., the Rector presiding, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to remove out of our midst our beloved Father in God, THOMAS ATKINSON,
 Resolved, While it is our duty to bow in humble submission to the Divine will, it is right and fit that we should express the unfeigned grief we feel, both for our own personal and the immeasurable loss his Diocese has sustained in the death of one so eminently fitted in every way for the high and holy office which for twenty seven years he has so worthily filled in the Church of God.
 Second, That the Vestry in a body attend the funeral from the Episcopal residence.
 Third, That the Church be draped in mourning as an emblem of the sorrow of the congregation, which, oftener than any other in the State, had the privilege of listening to his wise and loving and life giving words.
 Fourth, That we feel the liveliest sympathy with his bereaved family, especially with his widow, to whose untiring zeal and energy so much of St. Paul's prosperity is due, and that a copy of these resolutions be delivered to her by the Secretary of the Vestry.
 Resolved, That the city papers be requested to publish these proceedings.
 T. M. AMBLER, Rector, presiding.
 D. B. CUTLAR, Secretary.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Vestry of St. Mark's Church, held on the 5th inst., the following was adopted:
 WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in His wise Providence to remove from our midst our dearly beloved Bishop and Father, THOMAS ATKINSON,
 Resolved, That while we bow in submission to His will yet it is but right and proper that we should endeavor to express our grief at the great loss to the Diocese, and especially to this congregation to whom it is peculiarly a great loss as he was the founder of our Church and congregation and by him were we taught holy things and by his pure example were we strengthened and sustained.
 Resolved, That our church be draped the memory of the deceased Bishop, that our vestry attend the funeral in a body and that the congregation be also requested to attend.
 Resolved, That we do most sincerely sympathize with the afflicted family in the loss which they have sustained; that a copy of these resolutions be furnished them and that the press be requested to publish the same. JOHN O. NIXON, Secretary.

Labor Saving.

The demand of the people for an easier method of preparing Kidney-Wort has induced the proprietors, the well-known wholesale Druggists, Wells, Richardson & Co., of Burlington, Vt., to prepare it for sale in liquid form as well as in dry form. It saves all the labor of preparing, and as it is equally efficient it is preferred by many persons. Kidney-Wort always and everywhere proves itself a perfect remedy.—Buffalo News.
