Improved Spirit Cask. Mr. J. B. Barlow has received a patent for an improved spirit cask. We learn that the "Barlow barrel" is a great improvement and will be the means of saving a great deal for those who use them. We understand that the first cask will be a little above that of the casks now used but that they will last longer, will not require turning and will not leak.

State Tax for New Hanover. Sheriff Manning deposited to-day in the First National Bank of this city, subject to the order of Dr. J. M. Worth, Treasurer of the State, the sum of $18,814.64, being the amount of the State tax collected in New Hanover county for the year 1880. This is $2,402.22 in excess of the State tax collected in this county for the year 1879, the amount collected and paid over to the Treasurer last year being only $16,412.42.

Memorial Sermon. At a meeting of the clergy held at St. James' rectory, after the funeral services of the late Bishop Atkinson, yesterday morning, we learn that Bishop Lay was requested to preach a memorial sermon on the deceased Bishop at the next Convention of the Diocese, to be held in Christ Church, Raleigh, in the month of May. We also learn that Bishop Lay yielded to the request of the clergy and will deliver the memorial sermon D. V., at the time appointed.

Visiting the Vault.

A Vestryman of St. James' Church who remained with the body of the deceased Bishop until 10 o'clock last night, informs us that 3,000 persons, at least, visited the church after the services yesterday to view the casket as it lay in the vault under the chancel. Quite a number of these were colored but the large majority were white persons.

Lecture on Temperance

The Opera House has been obtained for Capt. Thompson's address on Monday night, and we have been requested to publish the list together with the request that the ministers of our city churches make known the meeting to their congregations to-morrow, and ask a general attendance. As the Opera House will be comfortably heated, the presence of the ladies generally is urgently requested.

Capt. Thompson has been a citizen of Wilmington for over three years, but prior to his residence here he was known as a prominent temperance worker in Kentucky, in which State alone he has delivered more than one thousand public addresses on this subject. He has the reputation of being a pleasing and forcible speaker, and will no doubt have a large audience Monday night.

In this connection the following correspondence will sufficiently explain itself:

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 5, 1881.

Dear Sir:—We, the undersigned citizens of Wilmington, respectfully request you to name a time and place, when and where you will deliver a public address on the subject of "Temperance." Knowing your sympathies with, and your past active labors in the cause, we trust that this request will have your approval and that you will give us as early a date as practicable, a lecture on this all-absorbing subject.

E. G. BARKER, C. H. ROBINSON, ROGER MOORE, B. F. MITCHELL, H. G. WORTH, D. G. WORTH, SAMUEL NORTROP, JAS. H. CHADBOURN.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Jan. 6, 1881.

To Messrs E. G. Barker, C. H. Robinson, Roger Moore, B. F. Mitchell, D. G. Worth, B. G. Worth, Saml. Northrop, and James H. Chadbourn:

Gentlemen:—My time has been and will be so completely occupied that it will be impossible for me to give that degree of preparation to a lecture such as your call seems to require, yet I cannot decline yielding an assent to your wishes promising to do the best I can in the limited time before me. If you will kindly arrange to give suitable publicity to a meeting at the Opera House on Monday evening, 10th inst., I will be most happy to deliver the address desired.

Very respectfully your ob'dt. serv't, N. F. THOMPSON.

The Colored Prohibitionists.

A meeting of the colored citizens, who favor the passage and enforcement of a prohibitory liquor law, was held in the City Hall last evening, which was well attended.

E. E. Green was called to the chair, and J. C. Hill was requested to act as Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the call, and appropriate remarks were made by John Holloway, Allen Evans, Geo. L. Mabson, Alfred Howe and Rev. J. G. Fry, and others.

Rev. D. J. Sanders offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

WHEREAS, Intemperance is a great and conceded moral evil, and as such is alarmingly on the increase in North Carolina as seen in the expenditure of $3,000,000 by her people in a single year, and in the prevalence of crime and pauperism which are caused by the free use of rum;

WHEREAS, the colored race, of which we form a part, is suffering untold evil, from the unrestricted manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in this State, the revenue for which goes to a class of men who in the main do but little for the welfare of our people; and whereas, the hour seems to have arrived when the friends of temperance and reform may hope by united effort to stay the progress of the rum traffic, therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we, the colored citizens of Wilmington, in mass meeting assembled, do heartily respond to the expressions of common interest made by our white fellow-citizens on the temperance question.

Resolved, 2nd, That in the pending struggle for prohibition in North Carolina, we do hereby pledge ourselves to use every honorable means, and to give our votes and our influence for the success of that cause.

Resolved, 3rd, That we hereby earnestly urge all our brethren, particularly in Wilmington and in New Hanover county, to range themselves on the side of prohibition, and to use every honoble exertion to drive the demon curse (strong drink) from the land.

Resolved, 4th, That it is the sense of this meeting that the present Legislature of North Carolina should submit a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors (except for medical and scientific purposes) to the people of this State for ratification.

The meeting then proceeded to the election of delegates to the Prohibition Convention to be held in Raleigh next week which resulted in the choice of the following to represent the combined colored churches in the city, viz: Revs. D. J. Sanders, Jas. W. Telfair and Corcus, Ius Sampson.

The following were chosen delegates at large, viz: W. H. Waddell, Alfred Robinson, John H. Boon, Jas. F. Shober and Joshua Meares.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Grand Concert.

The Concert which is to be given under the auspices of Prof. Van Lear will take place, as will be seen by announcement published elsewhere, on next Wednesday evening, at the Opera House. No pains will be spared to make it one of the most delightful affairs of the kind known here in many days. The box sheet will be open at Heinsberger's on Monday.

The Freshet and the Gov. Worth.

We learn from Captain Jerry Roberts, of the steamer Murphy, that the river was 37 feet high when he left Fayetteville at 8 o'clock yesterday morning with the water still rising at the rate of four inches an hour. Capt. Roberts also reports that the upper works of the Gov. Worth have been carried away by the immense force of the freshet and it is feared that the steamer will be a perfect wreck. Had it not been for the sudden and tremendous rise in the river shortly after the accident to the Worth it is thought she could have been raised with very little trouble. But the high water renders it utterly useless to attempt anything of the kind for the present.

The Wedding Bells.

Thursday's News and Observer contains the following graphic description of the wedding, and the ceremonies attendant thereon, of P. L. Bridgers, Esq., of this city, and Miss Bettie Burke Haywood, at Christ Church, in Raleigh, on Wednesday afternoon:

At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fashionable audience assembled in Christ Church to witness the marriage of Miss Bettie B. Haywood, the beautiful and admired daughter of Dr. E. Burke Haywood, to Mr. Preston L. Bridgers, son of Col. R. R. Bridgers, of Wilmington, the president of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. The approach of the event has for a long time been a subject of comment in fashionable circles, and the many friends of the pair and society generally felt that it was to be one of the most interesting ever celebrated in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., rector, assisted by Rt. Rev. Bishop Lyman and Rev. Geo. Patterson, D. D. The bridal party entered the church in the following order:

Mr. A. W. Haywood and Miss Emily Bridgers; Mr. Robert Bridgers and Miss Placide Engelhard; Mr. Thomas McKay and Miss Pattie Mordecai; H. J. Carmack and Miss Maggie Fowle; Mr. Louis Davis and Miss Lavine Haywood; Mr. Bruce Wright and Miss Emma Bembury; Mr. Thomas Strange and Miss Sadie Green; Mr. Pembroke Jones and Miss Florence Tucker; the bride and groom. Preceding the party were the following gentlemen ushers: Messrs. William Boylan, Sherwood Haywood, Edward B. Engelhard and Hubert Haywood.

The scene as the party stood grouped at the chancel rail was one well worthy of attention, made attractive by the remarkable beauty and grace of the bride and her attendants. The brief and beautiful service of the church was soon over and the couple were made one. At the door dozens of hands and congratulations were offered. The party drove to the Central depot, where the train was taken for Wilmington.

The extreme esteem in which the bride is held found fit expression in the presents which were sent by many friends in all parts of the State. The presents were attractively displayed and were, perhaps, as elegant and varied as were ever seen here. Among them were the following: Silver service, seven pieces, very handsome; diamond earrings, watch chain, locket and set of gold jewelry; diamond pin; four bronze clocks and an equal number of statuettes; gold and pearl bracelets; silver pitcher and goblets; four dozen solid silver spoons; case of ice cream spoons and ladles; pair of serpent serves vases; silver olive dish and spoon; silver ladles; one dozen silver oyster forks, knives and berry spoons; three silver salt cellars and egg cups; three salad spoons; three pair small vases; two large and handsome bibles; mother of pearl fan; celluloid toilet sets; silver and gold butter plates; pepper and salt cellars; silver goblets; lace handkerchiefs; silver nut bowl; painted china teaset.

Some fussy old fellows are so sensitive upon the subject of their age that if any one suspected them of having gray hairs in their heads they would dye immediate-ly.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for real Silver Plated Tea and Table Spoons and Forks, Rogers' Ivory handled Table Knives, Pen and Pocket Knives. All for Christmas and at the lowest prices.

The License Tax.

There seems to be a misapprehension on the part of some of the merchants who give in their schedule B tax at the office of the Register of Deeds when they obtain a license. The license is not good until the tax is paid to the Sheriff and then countersigned by the Register of Deeds. Look to this, retailers and others, else you may borrow trouble for yourselves.
