The latest reports from Fayetteville are to the effect that the water in the river has fallen off about six feet, but the probabilities are that the declining freshet will be reinforced by the present rains.

SAMUEL H. IRWIN, of Ute Creek, Colfax Co., New Mexico, says:—If my wife would quit work as she should at her age (61), she would live years a monument to the magic influence of the "Only Lung Pad."—See Adv.

We regret to learn that there is no improvement to report to-day in Mr. Donald McRae's condition. He had another hemorrhage to-day but the medical report is that there is no change. This is all of the encouragement that is given out.

The remedy that will cure the many diseases peculiar to women is Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure.—Mother's Magazine.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. Samuel Towson, roofer and dealer in slate, as published elsewhere. Mr. Towson has been at work on the roofs of the new W. & W. R. R. shops and is a master of his business. He brings excellent recommendations which will commend him to those wishing work done in his line of business.

The Gov. Worth.
The reports to the effect that the steamer Gov. Worth is going to pieces have been confirmed. Her upper works are all gone and may be seen at various points floating down the river. The hull and boiler will, however, most likely be raised and on them a new boat will probably be built up.

A Delusion Trap placed in a house will quietly catch a cunning mouse. Call at Jacob's for them.

Personal.
Mr. Robt. R. Taylor and wife, who left here about two months ago on the Barque Glacier, in company with Capt. Fred Small and bride, for Porto Rico, returned to this city last evening much pleased with their trip and much improved in health. Capt. Small and wife stopped at Smithville last night where his wife's parents reside. Capt. Small will bring his vessel, the Glacier, to this port to-day.

Have you seen the latest improved Heating and Cook Stoves at Jacob's? You can get them at factory prices.

Charged with Infanticide.
Abbey Howard, colored, charged with infanticide, was sent here last night from Pender county in charge of special deputy Payne, by Justice R. K. Bryan, of Scott's Bill, under commitment on the foregoing charge. The woman claims, we hear, that she was turned out of doors and that her infant perished from cold. The defendant was committed to jail for safe keeping.

First National Bank.

Capt. Thompson's Lecture.

A large audience, consisting of those of our citizens who are interested in the subject of liquor prohibition, assembled at the Opera House last evening to listen to a lecture on the subject of Temperance, to be delivered by Capt. N. F. Thompson at the request of several of our prominent citizens. That gentleman handled his subject to the very best advantage and made an impression on the minds of his audience, as to the evil effects of intemperance, which will not soon be eradicated. His remarks were logical and carried with them conviction and will do much in accomplishing the ends which the friends of prohibition in this city are striving to attain. Capt. Thompson is a graceful speaker and his vocal modulations are those of a finished elocutionist.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for real Silver Plated Tea and Table Spoons and Forks, Roger's Ivory handled Table Knives, Pen and Pocket Knives. All for Christmas and at the lowest prices.

Should be Provided.

In view of the fact that the windows and doors of the new railway postal cars and grates over with iron bars, and in case of accident the life of the route agents would be more or less jeopardized. The Agent being unable to get out of the cars on account of the iron gratings, the following circular to railway companies has been issued by the Postmaster-General:

At the request of the General Superintendent of Railway Mail Service, the Postmaster General desires to impress upon the management of all Railway Companies the importance of substituting Safety Heaters for all other stoves now in use in Railway Post-office Cars or Route Agents' apartments. Safety Heaters are required by the Department to be placed in all new postal cars and upon those undergoing repairs, and if railway companies would make their use universal, it would, in case of accident, prove very advantageous to both the companies and the Department, as by using them the occurrence of fires in Railway Postal Cars would be almost absolutely prevented, the railroad property would thereby be preserved, and the probability of the destruction of mails by fire be reduced to the minimum.

Recent railway accidents have demonstrated the absolute necessity of placing saws, axes, and a hatchet in each mail car or mail apartment, and Railway Companies are urgently requested to supply these implements as speedily as possible.

From the official returns at the Court House of the liquor bought in this county during the past year we find that New Hanover is comparatively a temperance county already. Only $33,745 worth of liquor has been bought during the past year. So says the returns given in under oath.

At a meeting of the Bishops and Clergy present at the funeral of the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., LL. D., late Bishop of North Carolina, held at the Rectory of St. James' parish, Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 7, 1881, the following minute was adopted:

We, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of North Carolina, present at the funeral of our late Father in God, the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., LL. D., being desirous to give expression to our sense of the severity of the loss we have sustained do adopt the following minute, viz:

While recognizing most fully and heartily the wisdom and goodness of God in all things, and as heartily in our bereavements as in the additions to our earthly joys; and while accepting therefore even our sorrows at His All Merciful Hand as being for the best; yet we feel that we should not be true to the human sensibilities and affections by which the Great Father of All would bind His family on earth in one as brethren, did we not keenly feel and deeply mourn the loss of one so endeared to us as our late beloved Bishop:

We know that no man is necessary to God or to the work of His kingdom, yet we trust we may, without inconsistency, feel that in the removal of such a leader a chasm has been created in the actual life and movement of the Church which will be severely felt, not only by ourselves but by many others.

In our late Bishop we recognize one of God's great mercies to us in that for more than a quarter of a century He has given us in him such a Teacher of Truth, such a Defender of the Faith, such a Preacher of Righteousness, such a Chief Pastor of the Flock, and such an example of virtuous and godly living.

We desire affectionately to bear witness to his great virtues and abilities; to his range of knowledge; to his acquirements as a theologian; to his accuracy and depth of thought and breadth of view; to his power to assimilate and reproduce in instructive form the results of his varied reading; to his clearness of perception and of statement; to his force and logical power and persuasive eloquence as a speaker and preacher; to his watchfulness as to public events and the greater issues of the day.

We recall with filial pleasure his sensibility as a man to all that was honorable, noble and becoming; his refined and gentle bearing as a gentleman; his unvarying affability and cordiality of manners by which the approach of the most humble was made ever easy; his sympathetic nature, entering so sincerely and heartily into the joys and sorrows of those about him; his large hearted and unstinted liberality; his public spirit, alive to all that concerned society; the justice and impartiality which he exercised toward those under his authority; his singular simplicity of life and manners; his genuine humility; his self-control and self-sacrifice; his moderation as to all the more exciting questions of the day, yet his zeal for all that was worthy of it; his earnestness as a Christian, his devout affections and his reverent and simple piety.

In sum: A patriotic citizen, a loyal churchman, a true and genial and firm friend, a tender, loving and beloved father and husband and brother, a wise counsellor, a just and considerate and unambitious ruler, a faithful Priest and Bishop, he has left a place in society and in the church not easily to be filled.

Resolved, That in memory of our departed father the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese, be requested to appoint a solemn public service at such time and place as he may find convenient.

Resolved, That the Right Reverend the Bishop of Easton be respectfully requested to deliver the Memorial Sermon.

A MINUTE.

St. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D. LL. D.

At an adjourned meeting of the vestry of St. John's Church, Wilmington, called in consequence of the death of the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., LL. D., and held January 10th, 1881, the following Minute and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

While we see and recognize the will and work of God in the death of our well-beloved Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, and bow with submission to His decree, we cannot but deplore the loss which his death entails upon us, upon this Diocese and upon the whole Church Catholic. For he was a foremost leader of the armies of the Living God; a councillor of wisdom; a Christian of excellent character; a Bishop of truly Apostolic type and spirit. An earnest, clear, logical and forcible preacher, he emphasized by his life what he proclaimed from the sacred desk. Large-minded, generous and just, he was a ruler respected and feared for his justice and impartiality, while he was universally beloved for his gentleness and tenderness of heart. As a wise master-builder he laid foundations deep and broad—because he taught that one foundation "that is laid, which is Jesus Christ," and his work which he has built thereupon shall abide, because he has proved himself "a workman which needeth not to be ashamed." We believe "in the Communion of Saints," and so we know that we have his example to imitate us to greater zeal and earnestness in following Christ even as he followed Him; and his prayers which from the place of waiting arise as incense before the throne of God for us who are still struggling amid the distractions and temptations of this naughty world. We rejoice for him that he is at rest in the presence of that Saviour whom he so dearly loved and so greatly delighted to honor; we mourn for ourselves that his living power and example as a man, a Christian, and a chief pastor of the flock of Christ are taken from us. Therefore, as a token and emblem of our sorrow and our sense of loss, Resolved, That St. John's Church shall be draped with mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we extend our tenderest sympathy to his bereaved family, in that he has gone from them who was as distinguished for his domestic grace as he was for his public virtues. We assure them of our heart-felt prayers that God will comfort them in their affliction and in His own good time restore to them that loving husband and father in the land where partings are unknown.

Resolved, That a copy of this Minute and the accompanying resolutions be sent to the family of our departed Bishop, and that they be published in the daily papers.

Attest,
Wm. H. GAZES,
Secretary pro tem.
