L'Article 47 to-morrow night at the Opera House.

The cotton receipts at this port to-day foot up 267 bales.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 20 minutes past 6 o'clock.

The market was well supplied with green pork this morning.

More rain here and this time accompanied by a half gale of wind.

Eggs are very scarce and high. They readily sell at 35 cents per dozen.

A Delusion Trap placed in a house will quietly catch a cunning mouse. Call at JACOBI'S for them.

A new flag pole has been erected over the Signal Office and the storm signal was flying to-day.

Mr. Donald McKee continues to improve. The physicians now have the hemorrhages under control.

The indications are that Ada Gray will be greeted with a large house to-night. The troupe have arrived and are stopping at the Purcell.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

Sullivan's operetta "A Trial by Jury," is in preparation and will be presented in a short time under the management of Mrs. John W. Cameron.

Ladies who appreciate elegance and purity are using Parker's Hair Balsam. It is the best article sold for restoring gray hair to its original color and beauty.

Annual Settlement.

The Sheriff and Treasurer of the county meet the county Finance Committee in the Commissioners' room at 7 1/2 o'clock this evening to submit their accounts for the past year, have them audited and make their regular annual settlement.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for real Silver Plated Tea and Table Spoons and Forks, Roger's Ivory handled Table Knives, Pen and Pocket Knives. All for Christmas and at the lowest prices.

Not so Bad.

There seems to be a mistake as to the amount of money in cash lost by Mr. Robbins, of Smithville, at the fire which destroyed his residence a few days ago. His trunk, containing some jewelry and between $40 and $50 in silver, was burned, but most of the money was raked from the ashes the next day. His loss will hardly exceed $10 in cash and not $2,000 as, was reported to us.

City Court.

Dick Mallett, colored, suffering from same old complaint, drunk and down, was sent below for thirty days.

Charles Howard, alias Gooding, colored, a former steward on one of the steam tugs in the harbor, was arraigned for an unprovoked assault upon Mr. Martin Newman. Sentence of the Court $25 fine or thirty days in the City Prison. Defendant went below.

Go North, young man, go North and freeze up with the country. But don't forget to take a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup along.

Conference Committees.

The Joint Committees appointed by the Board of Aldermen and the County Commissioners to consider the importance and necessity of establishing, without further delay, a public hospital in this city, meet in the County Commissioners' room on Monday evening next, at half-past 7 o'clock.

We are glad to know, too, from a gentleman on one of the committees, that there is a reasonable prospect of the two committees agreeing upon this matter, whereby the county and city will bear proportionately the expense of the undertaking. An institution of this kind has been long needed in Wilmington and we rejoice to know that the chances for its establishment are reasonably certain.

Don't forget the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted, at JACOBI'S.

Unsubscribes.

The following unmailable matter remains in the Postoffice in this city:

Miss Bedene Burruss, Smithville, N. C.; Miss Lucy King, Council Station, N. C.; Miss Lina McKain, Council Station, N. C.; a postal card with no address, but signed T. J. B.

Have you seen the latest improved Heating and Cook Stoves at JACOBI'S? You can get them at factory prices.

Prohibition.

Alex. Sprunt, Esq., and Gen. S. H. Manning, who were in Raleigh on Wednesday in attendance on the prohibition convention, have returned to the city. They are enthusiastic in their descriptions of the meeting. Mr. Sprunt tells us that it was a large and intelligent body, composed in the main of representative men, and that their proceedings were harmonious and decisive.

There seems to be no doubt now in the minds of the friends of the movement that it will prove a success. Mr. H. E. Scott, the Senator from this district, who is in the city, says that a prohibition law will probably be passed by a unanimous vote. Mr. Scott is himself a liquor dealer and his judgment cannot, therefore, be said to be prejudiced by his wishes. From what we can understand, however, a simple prohibitory law is not likely to satisfy the prohibitionists. They are now talking of an amendment to the Constitution forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of spirituous liquors in North Carolina.

Ladies, the best fits and the easiest shoes for the little ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

The Bohemian Glass Blowers and Wonders in Glass.

To those accustomed to see glass only in the shape of window panes, tumblers or lamp chimneys, a visit to the glass blowers' exhibition next week will be a revelation.

The first thing to attract the visitor's attention is a magnificent model of the great Corliss engine, made entirely of glass, yet with steam as the motive power, working smoothly and steadily. It is four feet high, three feet long and is composed of 5,000 pieces. Twelve different shades of colored glass give this novel piece of mechanism a picturesque appearance. It is the only perfect glass model of a steamboat engine ever made, and attracted great attention when exhibited at the centennial. By its side stands a much more simple model of the old South church, of Boston, in colored glass. Besides these novelties there are curiosities of spun glass, with threads of 140,000th of an inch in diameter as soft and pliable as silk, a vest of glass and a pair of slippers of the same material, with imitation feathers, plon plons, cushions and articles of crocheted and woven glass. The main interest of the exhibition, however, seems to centre around Messrs. Woodruff and Carling. They are continually busy, and their deft fingers are constantly contriving ships, birds, animals, pretty-colored vases and a thousand-and-one things, which must be seen to be appreciated. They use two hundred pounds of glass a week in manufacturing these articles, which are given to the audience free. They will appear at Rankin Hall, over "Little Giant" steamer, Monday evening, January 17, at 7:30 o'clock. Saturday evening, January 22, there will be a grand baby show, when an elegant case of fancy glass work, valued at $50, will be presented to the baby receiving the largest number of votes during the week. Each visitor is entitled to one vote free.

A hop is to be given in Germania Hall to-night, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Bridgers. It is given by a number of young gentlemen, the friends of the groom.

The Power of the Press.

In no way is the power of the press more surely shown than in the universal knowledge that has in less than a year been diffused throughout fifty millions of people of the wonderful curative properties of that splendid remedy, Kidney-Wort. And the people from the Atlantic to the Pacific have shown their intelligence and their knowledge of what is in the paper, by already making Kidney-Wort their household remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bowels.—Herald.

W. A. TITUS, 62 Ashland Avenue, Toledo, Ohio, says: "My wife is now as strong as ever, her regained health being directly due to the use of the Excelsior Kidney Pad. We can heartily recommend it to all kidney troubled persons."—See Adv.

Robbery and Attempt at Arson.

On Monday morning last a robbery was committed at the residence of Mr. Patrick Carr, on the corner of Eighth and Walnut streets, and the thief then tried to cover the deed by arson. A colored woman named McNeil who was employed to do the washing of Mr. Carr's family is the one accused of the theft and attempt at arson. The woman McNeil, knowing that Mr. Carr's sister, who is the lady of the house, was out, surreptitiously entered the dwelling and stole from a trunk a fine black dress, and to avoid suspicion, tore off the over-skirt of the dress she was wearing, saturated it with kerosene oil, placed it in the trunk, set fire to it, and closed the lid of the trunk. A short time after Miss Carr returned and in a few minutes after the woman made her appearance, stating she had come for the wash and at the same time stated that she smelt something burning. Miss C. also thought she discovered a smell as of burning wool and thought that a small piece of cloth had been caught on the wood which she had put in the stove. The woman McNeil said the fire was in the other room and went directly to the trunk, raised the lid and the flames burst out. The cloth which was on fire corresponded exactly with the cloth of the waist of the woman McNeil's dress. The cloth was saved but the woman managed to get it and carried it to her home, but it was subsequently gotten away from her.

The woman's dwelling was searched by an officer, but the dress was not found. She was seen to have carried a bundle into the house of a neighbor just before the officer arrived, and it is thought she got wind of the impending search and moved her booty. Mr. Carr told her that if she would return the dress he would let the matter drop and not prosecute her, and the next morning the dress was found on Mr. Carr's piazza. Many a criminal goes unwhipped of justice because of the reluctance of citizens to have their wives or sisters appear as witnesses at the Court House, as in the case of Mr. Carr.

Labor saving.

The demand of the people for an easier method of preparing Kidney-Wort has induced the proprietors, the well-known wholesale Druggists, Wells, Richardson & Co., of Burlington, Vt., to prepare it for sale in liquid form as well as in dry form. It saves all the labor of preparing, and as it is equally efficient it is preferred by many persons. Kidney-Wort always and everywhere proves itself a perfect remedy.—Buffalo News.

For the Review.

The Homespun Brigade.

MR. EDITOR: At a called meeting of the County Commissioners of our county to-day it was really gratifying to see the anxiety of the honest farmers of not only Pender, but of our trusty sisters, Sampson and Duplin, to sign the official bond of our soldier Sheriff, Capt. A. C. Ward, who has proven to be no less prominent in the confidence and affection of the people of these counties than he was in the Confederate army during the late unpleasantness. It was a real treat to see the farmers, dressed in their homespun, coming forward to demonstrate in a substantial way their confidence in our modest soldier and farmer. Such was the feeling in his favor that notwithstanding the bond required was only $30,000 they continued to push forward until $42,000 was justified to. One of our Sampson friends in his homespun when questioned rather closely by Chairman Shaw as to his ability to pay the amount he had justified to, proposed to deposit the amount, $2,000, in cash provided the proper guarantee could be given for its return at the expiration of Ward's term of office, whereupon our incredulous but honest "Daniel" told him he would do, and called for the next man. Some of Ward's unfriendly critics styled his host of friends "the homespun brigade" and true it was, for there was but one man on the bond, the Sheriff included, who did not wear homespun. No other man in Pender can recruit such a brigade at present.

are prescribing that tried and true remedy, Kidney-Wort, for the worst cases of biliousness and constipation, as well as for kidney complaints. There is scarcely a person to be found that will not be greatly benefited by a thorough course of Kidney-Wort every spring. If you feel out of sorts, and don't know why, try a package of Kidney-Wort and you will feel like a new creature.—Indianapolis Sentinel.
