The cotton receipts at this port to-day foot up 213 bales.
There was but one interment in Oakdale this week—an adult.

You can now buy improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.

Schooner Wm. A. Dubasque, Gates, cleared at Baltimore on the 20th for this port.
Ger. barque Cari Max, Beyer, sailed from Liverpool on the 19th inst for this port.

There were two interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week, one child and one adult.

Br. barque George Davis, Mallory, sailed from Liverpool on the 19th inst. for Savannah.

Ladies, the best live and the easiest shoes for the Hotel ones are at ROSENTHAL'S.

There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery (colored) this week, four children and one adult.

The Register of Deeds has issued but one marriage license this week, and that was to a colored couple.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

Nor barque Neptun, Tobiasen, from this port, for Liverpool, sailed for Queenstown on the 9th inst., as also the Knudsvig, Evensen, from same to same.

"Quack, quack, quack," said the doctor, when he found Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the house of almost every one but his bills decreased and the people were happy. Price 25 cents a bottle.

There was a big rush of ladies and children to Rankin Hall this afternoon to see the Glass Blowers. So great was it that the hall was soon filled and numbers turned away, unable to gain admission. Another week here, with better weather, would pay handsomely.

At a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture, held in Raleigh on Wednesday, Col. A. Pope, General Passenger Agent of the Atlantic Coast Line and other railway lines in Virginia, North and South Carolina and Georgia, was elected General Immigration Agent for this State.

Death of a Worthy Man.
We heard yesterday afternoon with sincere regret of the death, on Friday morning, after a short illness, of Mr. B. C. Bordeaux, a resident and merchant of Long Creek, in Pender county. Mr. Bordeaux was taken sick on Sunday evening last and died as above stated on yesterday morning, after an illness of only five days. The deceased was an excellent citizen, and all who knew him speak in high praise of his many good qualities, chief among which was his strict integrity of character. Mr. Bordeaux was only 36 years of age. He leaves a wife and two small children to mourn his early departure.

New Dance.
As will be seen by advertisement published elsewhere Mr. T. C. Fanning, an old resident of Wilmington, by the way, having been in ante-bellum times one of the proprietors of the Carolina Hotel in this city, will open a dancing school here early in February. Mr. Fanning is one of the oldest and most experienced members of the Society of Professors of Dancing and will be able to perform all he promises. He bears testimonials from some of the eminent teachers of the art, among them Mr. John Word, recently deceased, who was so well-known here. He will introduce the newest and most fashionable dances, among them the quadrille in five figures, called "Lays Tennis," which has been received with so much favor elsewhere. We trust that he may succeed in forming large classes here.

Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes, Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

River News.

Capt. Roberts, of the steamer D. Murchison, just in from Fayetteville this morning, reports a rise of eight feet in the river since Wednesday night and a depth of 20 feet of water on the shoals with the river still rising at the rate of 4 inches an hour.

The wreck of the Gov. Worth is again entirely covered with water so that the idea of raising the sunken steamer will have to be abandoned for the present.

Personal.

Mr. R. W. Chadwick, who removed from this city to Wilson a few months ago, has concluded to return to his old home at Beaufort. In speaking of Mr. Chadwick the Wilson Advance says: "During his stay among us he has made many friends who had hoped that he would make Wilson his permanent home. He will move to Beaufort where he formerly lived. Both he and his family will carry with them the best wishes of their Wilson friends."

Borax for Colds.

A writer in the Medical Record cites a number of cases in which borax has proved a most effectual remedy in curing certain forms of colds. He states that in sudden hoarseness or loss of voice in public speakers or singers from colds, relief for an hour or so, as by magic, may be obtained by dissolving and partially swallowing a lump of borax the size of a garden pea, or about three or four grains held in the mouth for ten minutes before speaking or singing. This produces a profuse secretion or watering of the mouth or throat—probably restoring the voice of tone to the dried vocal cords, just as "wetting" brings back the missing notes to a flute, when it is too dry.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in Winter by wearing ROSENTHAL'S boots and shoes.

CITY COURT.

An old man whose hair shows the frost of many winters, and the partner of his bosom, who was his companion in sorrow likewise in this instance, were both arraigned before the Mayor this morning, the former upon the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and the latter named upon the charge of disorderly conduct alone, though it was the opinion of all who heard the evidence that the wife was guilty of the same sin as the husband. The old man was arrested last night and brought to the guard house and locked up. They both promised good behavior in the future and the woman in addition pleaded through her fears. It being the first offense His Honor suspended judgment but gave the offenders a strong admonition not to appear before him again under similar circumstances.

A Monster Killed.

A terrible and outrageous varmint, in the shape of a ferocious wild cat, was shot and killed, on the west side of the river, to-day, just opposite to Hilton, in the swamps adjoining the rice fields in that locality. The slayer was John McKoy, a colored man who resides on Mr. T. H. Johnson's place near this city. John, it seems, is the keeper of the pack of hounds used by the Fox Club, in this city, and after he had killed the wild animal brought his trophy to this city to exhibit to the different members of the Fox Hunting Club. Mr. E. E. Burruss, President of the First National Bank, being one of the members of the above named Club, John made direct for the Bank, followed by a crowd of white and coloredurchins, and some others of older growth, through the streets looking at the natural curiosity. The hour was an inopportune one for the bank and the business community, as it was just about 1 o'clock, when every one who has bank business to attend to is apt to be heading that way just about that time. The throng rendered ingress and egress at the bank right difficult for awhile, but this did not last long. The animal is a very large one of its species, the claws on its feet being over an inch long. Its size was nearly equal to any one of the dogs who took part in the slaughter.

Hundreds of men, women and children rescued from beds of pain, sickness and almost death and made strong and hearty by Parker's Ginger Tonic are the best evidences in the world of its sterling worth. You can find these in every community.—Post. See advertisement.

Marriage Bells.

Wednesday's Raleigh Star says: "Mr. John E. Duke, formerly of this city, now clerk at the Purcell House, Wilmington, N. C., was on yesterday united in marriage to Miss Minnie Bonter, of Raleigh. The ceremony was performed at Edenton Street M. E. Church by the Rev. A. A. Boshamer." Mr. and Mrs. Duke have arrived here and have received the congratulations of many friends.

Concert and Operetta.

It has been known for some days past that a number of ladies and gentlemen in this city have in preparation a delightful entertainment, which will be presented at some early evening in the Opera House. Wednesday is the day selected and on that evening the entertainment will be presented. It will consist of an "Old Folks' Concert" and "Sullivan's Trial by Jury" and the roles will be sustained by some of the best talent in the city. The advertisement appears elsewhere and the box sheet will be open at Heinberger's on Monday morning. Those who want the best seats should go early so as to secure them as we assure our readers that there will be a rush. We prophesy the best house of the season next Wednesday evening.

Death of Nick Johnston.

There are many persons here who will be sorely grieved to learn of the death of Mr. N. M. Johnston, one of the most popular railroad men in the United States. He was taken sick last October, from overwork, it is said, and died of consumption at his residence in Cincinnati, on last Wednesday morning.

Mr. Johnston was in Col. Pope's office in this city some years ago and remained here long enough to make many sincere friends. He was a genial gentleman, full of good humor and good fellowship, and it is doubtful if he had an enemy in the world. His capacity for business, too, was as wonderful as the gentility of his nature. He was not quite 42 years of age, was born of Mayesville, Ky., and at the time of his death was the agent at Cincinnati of the Chesapeake & Ohio R. R. Green be the turf above him.

Twenty Years a Sufferer.

Dr. B. V. PIERCE.
Dear Sir—Twenty years ago I was shipwrecked on the Atlantic Ocean, and the cold and exposure caused a large abscess to form on each leg, which kept continually discharging. After spending hundreds of dollars with no benefit, I was persuaded to try your Golden Medical Discovery, and now in less than three months after taking the first bottle, I am thankful to say I am completely cured, and for the first time in ten years can put my left heel to the ground. I am, sir, yours respectfully,
WILLIAM BYDNER,
87 Jefferson Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
