ruary contracts since the close on Saturday last.

other to be given some time in February.

The market carts took up their stand in front of the new Market this morning. The hucksters' boxes and barrels, garbage, barrels and chicken coops, which have ornamented the "old mud market" for the past three years, were removed from the sidewalks on Market street.

J. N. Bick, of Toledo, Ohio, says:— My father, before wearing the "Only Lung Pad," could not sleep nights on account of his violent coughing; since wearing it he has slept soundly every night.—See Adv.

One week ago to-day we had the heaviest snow storm known to this section for many years, with the thermometer about freezing point. To-day there is still some of the same snow on the ground in this city and the thermometer registers nearly 70°.

noon. He goes to assist Capt. Sam Skinner, who will be there with his steam

Personal.

We were pleased to receive a call last Saturday from Mr. T. C. Fanning, who was some years previous to the war a resident of our city, and who visits Wilmington now for the first time in many years, for the purpose of forming classes in dancing. He has secured Rankin Hall for the purpose and will open the classes on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, in the afternoon for ladies and children and in the evening for gentlemen.

Got Him Bad

Three of our country cousins got into Jim McGowan a few days ago. They strolled into the Globe together and one of the crowd called for not drinks, but a drink. A glass and a decanter was placed on the counter when country filled it to the brim, took a stiff pull himself and then passed it to No. 2, who in turn got God and then passed it to No. 3, who took in the situation and the balance of the whiskey at one gulp. No. 1 then laid down a dime and the three quietly left the saloon. It took Mac about three quarters of an hour to recover from his surprise and then all he said was, "Well, I'll be—." This is a fact.

Water street merchants will keep their feet dry in Winter by wearing ROSEN-TRAL'S boots and shoes.

Death of an Old Citizen

After an illness of four weeks Mr. P.
Newman died at his residence in this city, on yesterday, in the 53d year of his age. The larger portion of his life was spent in this city and the deceased was much esteemed by those who knew him best. By his charity he has endowed many to him and Wilmington has lost a good citizen. He was a member of Cornelius Harnett Council Royal Ar-caneum and the Iron Band Society. His remains were followed this afternoon to their last resting place in the Hebrew Cemetery at Oakdale by members of the Society to which he belonged. Peace to his ashes.

Everything has a cause: Tickling in the throat, husking of voice, violent coughing, etc., are the effects of a severe cold. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures the cold at once and removes its serious effect.

Sand-Bags for the Sick-Room.

The New York Post tells its readers that one of the most convenient articles to use in a sick room is a sand-bag.
Get some clean, fine sand, dry it thoroughly in a kettle on the stove, make a bag about eight inches square of flannel, fill it with the dry sand, sew the opening carefully together, and cover the bag with cotton or linen cloth. This will prevent the sand from sifting out and will also enable you to heat the bag quickly by placing it in the oven, or even on the top of the stove. After once using this, you will never again attempt to warm the feet or hands of a sick person with a bottle of hot water or a brick. The sand holds the heat a long time, and the bag can be tucked up to the back without hurting the invalid.
It is a good plan to make two or three of the bags and keep them ready for use.

Mr. T. C. Fanning's Classes in Dancing will open on Wednesday and Thursday, February 2d and 3d, at Rankin Hall, corner Fourth and Princess streets. Afternoon Class, Ladies and Children, 4 p. m. Gents'
Class, 8 p. m.

Supreme Court.

In the Supreme Court, on Saturday, the following were among the causes called and disposed of:

State vs. Edward Bryson, from New Hanover; set for hearing at the end of the district.

William Daughtry vs. Samson Warren et als., from Sampson; argued by E.
T. Boykin for the defendants; no counsel for the plaintiff.

State vs. Fanny Brewington, from New Hanover; set for hearing at the end of the district.

May Merrill et als. vs. A. J. Murrill, et als., from Onslow; argued by G. V.
Strong for the plaintiff, and Allen & Isler for the defendants.

T. P. Best vs. Norris Frederick, from Duplin; argued by Allen & Isler for the plaintiff, and D. J. Devane for the defendant.

Don't Get the Chills

If you are subject to Ague you must be sure to keep your liver, bowels and kidneys in good free condition. When so, you will be safe from all attacks. The remedy to use is Kidney-Wort. It is the best preventive of all malarial diseases that you can take. See advertisement in another column.

Couldn't Come that Game

An accomplished gentleman in the commercial, tourist line attempted to fool somebody a day or two ago by jumping his city drummer's tax. He managed to get out the back way at the hotel and found a berth in a sleeping-car at the depot, but Detective Mayer saw him and went him one better. He was hauled out of his berth and a warrant exhibited to his admiring eyes, whereupon he brought forth $15—license and penalty—and was allowed to go his way in peace. He would have saved just $10 by paying his tax like a man.

Mr. T. C. Fanning's Classes in Dancing
will open on Wednesday and Thursday, February 2d and 3d, at Rankin Hall, corner Fourth and Princess streets. Afternoon
Class, 8 p. m.

City Court.

Isaac Stanley, colored, was arraigned upon the charge of disorderly conduct.
Judgment was suspended and defendant discharged.

William Davis and William Shaw, a pair of colored lads who are young in years but old in crime, were arraigned this morning upon a charge of larceny, preferred by A. C. Wessell, grocer on Market street. Mr. Wessell swore that on Saturday night, about fifteen minutes past 12 o'clock, after he had closed his store from the inside and walked to the back part of the store, he discovered the two defendants concealed on his premises, one of whom had stowed himself away behind his counter and the other hiding behind barrels and boxes. He immediately called a policeman and had the two boys arrested. After the arrest the parties were searched, a piece of coin, the value of twenty-five cents, and a pistol which Mr. Wessell identified as his property were found on the defendants.
The coin Mr. Wessell swears he had marked and knew it from that fact. The Mayor bound the defendants over to the Criminal Court in the sum of $50 each and delivered them into the custody of the Sheriff.

The two white men who got into an altercation on Second street, on Saturday, were arraigned for trial this morning. One of the defendants was fined $50 or given the alternative of going to the City Prison for 30 days. But the fine was promptly paid. The evidence in the case entirely acquitted the other defendant of any violation of the peace and he was therefore discharged. This finished the business and the Court adjournd.

KEROSENE OIL.

THE RECENT COLD WEATHER SO will occur again.

DUCE PRICES.

In this connection we desire to call attention of dealers to the fact that we have a
