LOCAL NEWS.

Exports Foreign.
The exports foreign to-day foot up 15,000 feet lumber, 5 barrels pitch and 3 barrels tar, per schr. Julia Elizabeth, for the West Indies, shipped by master, and 3,300 barrels rosin for Trieste, per Swedish barque Andriette, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

City Court.
A butcher was arrested last night and arraigned before the Mayor this morning charged with violating the recent Ordinance of the Board of Aldermen prohibiting the selling of butcher's meat in certain limits. The defendant was represented by Messrs M. Bellamy, DuBrutz Cutlar and Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr. The case, at request of counsel for the defense, was continued until Friday morning. This being the only case on docket the Court, after disposing of the case above stated, then adjourned.

The Truckers.
The truckers hereabouts have not been able to make much progress as yet. Green peas are up, and have been for some little time, but they cannot grow in such weather as we have had. Potatoes and radishes are being put in this week. It is the opinion of an experienced planter whom we consulted that on account of the retarding causes Wilmington will be in the market this year as soon as Charleston, and, perhaps, Savannah will be. He thinks that when Spring opens it will be with a sudden warm spell which will set everything growing all along the coast.

Rumors of a Terrible Murder.
We hear rumors of a terrible murder in Duplin county a few days ago. We can get nothing in the way of particulars and the rumors are vague, although we are assured that there is a foundation for them. It is said that a white man living in that county was murdered by some unknown parties. He was first mortally wounded and then, before life was extinct, was beaten with clubs. His body was then thrown into the sea and when found was badly burned. This all we can hear now but may get full particulars in a day or two.

Highway Robbery.
Yesterday afternoon, in the broad daylight, while Mr. Henry Clogr, a very respectable citizen of Brunswick county, was returning from the Messrs. Kidder's Mill, in the lower part of this city, he was assaulted on Surry street, opposite the notorious "Long House," by a colored man and woman, the latter jerking his blanket off his shoulder and the man seizing Mr. Clogr's own walking-stick, with which he struck Mr. C. a severe blow over the head, knocking him senseless to the ground, after which the pockets of the stricken man were rifled and $10 in money taken therefrom. Mr. Clogr thinks he must have remained an hour on the street in an unconscious condition, while the blood flowed freely from the wound caused by the blow he had received on the head. After recovering his scattered senses, the injured man staggered along the wharf, faint from loss of blood, and finally fell on the streets exhausted where he was picked up by a policeman. This morning Julia Pierson and Thomas Shepard were arrested upon the affidavit of Mr. Clogr, charging them with the assault and robbery. The warrant was issued by Justice T. M. Gardner and the defendants both committed to jail in default of surety for their appearance for trial at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The woman was found in the Long House very drunk and the blanket, which Mr. Clogr swears to as his property, was found in the woman's possession, between her bed and mattress. There was a high carnival and carousal at the Long House after the robbery was committed and all hands were made drunk. The trial of the case came off too late for us to make a report of it this afternoon.

Petition for the Criminal Court.
A petition praying the legislature to continue the Criminal Court in this county or, in other words, to let it alone and not interfere with it, was numerously signed in this city yesterday. As many as 150 names, we are told, representing half a million dollars of taxable property, were appended to the petition and all done in the short space of about four hours. Many signed this petition, we are also informed, who had previously signed a petition for establishing a Circuit Court.

J. N. Brex, of Toledo, Ohio, says—
My father, before wearing the "Only Lung Pad," could not sleep nights on account of his violent coughing; since wearing it he has slept soundly every night. —See Adv.

Supreme Court Decisions.
The Supreme Court filed decisions on Monday in causes as follows:
By Smith, C. J.: M. B. Belden vs. D. B. Snead, from Richmond. Error. Judgment reversed.
F. D. Koonce vs. D. M. Butler, et als, from Jones. No error. Judgment affirmed.
J. A. Evans, administrator, vs. T. M. Smith, executor, from Columbus. Error. Judgment modified.
State vs. Thomas Lashley, from Robeson. No error. Judgment affirmed.
R. H. Lyon vs. M. W. Russ, from Bladen. No error. Judgment affirmed.

A Cure for Sick Headache.
This complaint is the result of eating too much and exercising too little. Often the cause is that the stomach is not able to digest the food last introduced into it, either from its having been unsuitable or excessive in quantity. It is said a diet of bread and butter, with ripe fruits or berries, with moderate, continuous exercise in the open air sufficient to keep up a gentle perspiration, would cure almost every case in a short time. To drink two teaspoonfuls of powdered charcoal, in half a glass of water, generally gives instant relief. The above sovereign remedies may do in some, but not in all cases. A sovereign remedy for this ailment is not easily found. Sick headache is periodical, and is the signal of distress which the stomach raises to inform us that there is an over alkaline condition of its fluids; that it needs a natural acid to restore the battery to its normal working condition. When the first symptoms of a headache appear, take a teaspoonful of clear lemon juice fifteen minutes before each meal and the same dose at bed-time; follow this up until all symptoms are passed, taking no other remedies, and you will soon be able to go free from your unwelcome nuisance. Many will object to this because the remedy is too simple, but many cures have been effected in this way.

The Sunday Magazine for March.
This number is one of remarkable excellence, and the new editor, Rev. Mr. Taylor, has catered most successfully for the edification and entertainment of his readers. There is, as he remarks, "something for everybody, of whatsoever class, or of whatever age. . . . Bible students, and sermon readers, and temperance reformers and lovers of stories will all find in this issue something to suit them and to help them pass the time pleasantly and profitably." Among the distinguished contributors are the Revs. J. M. Whiton, R. C. Houghton, W. T. Wylie, T. H. Vail, Bishop of Kansas; C. F. Deems, David Swing, H. Bonar, Bishop Peck, etc.; Alfred H. Guernsey, Hattie W. Arnold, Mrs. J. G. Burnett, Josephine Pollard, Frank H. Converse, Louise C. Moulton, etc. The opening article by the editor, "Our Home Heathen," is highly interesting, and equally so is "Scenes on the Danube," by A. Guernsey; both are finely illustrated. The serial story, "Out of the World," is continued, and the several short stories, sketches, etc., are replete with interest and well written. The numerous poems are of singular merit. Dr. Deems explains "Hard Places in the Bible"; the sermon is by Rev. C. N. Sims, on the "Supernatural Success of Christianity." But it is impossible to convey in a brief notice any idea of the rich literary and artistic feast prepared by the editor. There are 128 quarto pages and over 100 engravings. A single copy is only 25 cents; a year's subscription, $3; postpaid. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

When you visit or leave New York City, stop at the Grand Union Hotel, opposite Grand Central Depot. European plans Rooms reduced to $1.00 and upwards. Restaurant unsurpassed at moderate prices. Street cars, stages and elevated railroad to all parts of the city.
