Hurray for Birthington's wash-day! Hick up.
Katie Pitman plays in Raleigh tomorrow evening.
There is considerable complaint relative to the city scavengers.
You can now buy Improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.
A very handsome and attractive sign was raised on Mr. Otterbourg's store today.
Two white seamen who deserted their vessel now in port were captured last night and put in jail to-day for safe keeping.
How to be your own painter: Buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and warranted at JACOBI'S.
In the year 1900 February will have but twenty eight days, although a leap year. The phenomenon occurs once only in 200 years, and always in the odd 100.
Kite-time is upon us and the boys are going to petition the city authorities to have the telegraph wire torn down as the said wires interfere with their kite-tails.
Grau's Opera troupe will give two performances in this city on the 2nd and 3rd of March. The troupe is said to be an exceptionally fine one, and will no doubt draw well.
They were out walking; it was cold, and he was coughing. She handed him a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and said: "Here's a little thing that I think will help you." His cough was cured in a short time.
Mr. W. T. Birdsall, representing the great paper house of Henry Lindenmeyer, New York, is in the city, and paid us a very pleasant visit this forenoon. Mr. Birdsall is accompanied this Spring in his travels by Mr. Lindenmeyer's son, a young gentleman yet not of age.
Major Graves and command arrived on the Passport this afternoon about 5 o'clock. Lieutenant Niles and two men have been left in temporary charge of Fort Johnson. An auction sale of government property took place at the garrison to-day.
Gray Hairs are Honorable, but their premature appearance is annoying. Parker's Hair Balsam is popular for cleanliness and promptly restoring youthful color.
Mr. L. J. Otterbourg left for New York yesterday to select his Spring and Summer stock and—and to get married. He expects to take a short tour before his return to this city and will be in Washington City to witness the inauguration.
The large and valuable law library of the late Adam Empie, Esq., will be exposed to sale at public auction on Friday next. This is a capital opportunity for our friends of the legal profession to make additions to their libraries. See advertisement.
We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.
As a sanitary measure would it not be well for the city to establish public baths on the river front? There is but one place in the city, Carraway's Barber Shop, where a bath can be had outside of a private residence. The bath houses could be erected at a comparative small cost and would prove a great comfort this summer.
Says yesterday's News and Observer: "Hon. J. W. Shackelford, member of Congress elect from the second district in the city. He has been to Fayetteville, where testimony in the Shackelford-Cannaday contested election case is being taken before Duncan McRae, Esq. About eighty witnesses, principally poll-holders, are to be examined.
Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes, Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

If any of the Sheriffs in the counties in Eastern North Carolina want N. B. Baxter, colored, on a charge of murder, he can be had by addressing Col. Wm. Lamb, the Mayor of Norfolk, Va.
To-day is the day that the troops stationed at the garrison at Smithville were to abandon the garrison and proceed on their route to Washington, D. C. Up to this writing they have not arrived in this city.
The Honorary and Retired Members of the W. S. F. E. Co., No. 1, have been called together by Mr. James C. Stevenson, who was made Chairman by the meeting which assembled at the Rankin Hall at the last anniversary of the Company.
Gen Whitting.
The Atlanta Constitution, speaking of the misfortunes of Confederate Generals, says that Major-General W. H. C. Whitting died in confinement here in 1864. This is a mistake. After the fall of Fort Fisher the gallant Whitting, sick and wounded, was taken North and died in prison in New York harbor. His remains now rest in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn.
The Wilmington Amateurs.
Saturday's Charlotte Observer says: Col. Cox, the president of the Dramatic Club, received a telegram yesterday from the Wilmington amateurs saying that they would come up on the 28th. They will be the guests of the city Dramatic Club, and it is further proposed by the Pleasure Club to give them a complimentary ball. They will be entertained at the Central Hotel.
Unprecedented.
The schooner John A. Griffin arrived in this city on Saturday with three feet of ice in her water tanks between decks. Capt. Foster says that he has never heard of a case like it. He says a vessel seldom if ever rounds Cape Hatteras with ice in her tanks that are on deck, exposed to the wind and weather. The hold of a vessel is generally considered comparatively a warm place, as it is as near air-tight as it is possible to get it. It is very evident that it was coal and cold in the hold of the Griffin.
Penitentiary Birds.
At the term of the Criminal Court, which closed this morning, the following persons were sentenced to imprisonment in the House of Correction and Penitentiary:
Isaac Baker, A. & B., 6 months in House of Correction.
James Baker, A. & B., 6 months in House of Correction.
Wm. Davis, larceny, 2 years in State Penitentiary.
Wm. Shaw, larceny, 2 years in State Penitentiary.
George Williams, larceny, 2 years in State Penitentiary.
Wm. Love, larceny, 6 years in the State Penitentiary.
Julia Pierson, robbery, 10 years in State Penitentiary.
George Vann, robbery, 10 years in State Penitentiary.
Reid Devane, larceny, 6 years in State Penitentiary.
Wm. Lee, larceny, 6 years in State Penitentiary.
All of the above are colored and all males except one. The birds will be taken to Raleigh in a few days.
Gives Wilmington the Go-by.
We see by the N. Y. Herald, of the 13th inst., that the talented young actress, Miss Mary Anderson, commences a Southern tour at Richmond, Va., on the 28th inst., and after playing three nights in that city goes to Petersburg one night, thence to Norfolk three nights and from thence to Charleston, S. C., where she appears on the 7th and 8th proximo.
Now, Mary, that is hardly fair. Our people have been led to form a very high opinion of your historic talent and would have given you a cordial and hearty reception had you thought our little city of the Cape Fear worthy your consideration. You would find an overflowing house of intelligent and appreciative ladies and gentlemen to greet you with a generous and warmhearted welcome. Now, don't treat us this way any more, but do come and see us, and we will do our level best to make your visit both pleasant and profitable. See if we don't.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up only 47 bales.

The calisthenic exercises of Misses Burr & James' Female School will take place at the City Hall this evening.
Dr. A. B. Burr left here last night on his return to his duties on the river, and harbor works, near New York, after a pleasant visit of two weeks, to his family and friends in this city.
The sale of mules, farming stock, implements, &c., at Castle Hayne, will take place on the premises to-morrow, commencing at 11 o'clock. Messrs. Cronly & Morris will sell.
Duncan Wright, an old and well known colored man in this city, who was almost a centenarian, died in this city yesterday afternoon of dropsy, at his residence at the corner of Front and Queen streets, at the advanced age of 94 years.
The Chatterbox.
The February number of the original Chatterbox has been received. It is handsomely and profusely illustrated and is just the thing to put into the hands of boys and girls, while it will be appreciated and enjoyed by their elders. It is entertaining and instructive, and is free from any features, whatever, that, like many of the publications for young folks, would make it in the slightest degree objectionable. An American Supplement is published with each number. Published by Estes & Lauriat, Boston, and to be had at the American News Company, New York.
J. N. Brock, of Toledo, Ohio, says:—My father, before wearing the "Only Lung Pad," could not sleep nights on account of his violent coughing; since wearing it he has slept soundly every night.—See Adv.
City Court.
There were only two cases for adjudication before His Honor this morning. A white man from the country, who tried very hard on Saturday to get in his allowance of the ardent before the passage of the prohibition bill, succeeded in getting aboard more than he could carry, and became water-logged. He was dismissed without punishment, as it was his first offence, and one of those accidents which might befall any man. Wm Phinney, well known in police circles, was next arraigned for forcible trespass. He was sent to jail in default of a justified bond of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court.
A sovereign specific.
The pine tree is invaluable and there are thousands of uses to which its products may be put. It is now claimed to be a sovereign remedy for lockjaw. A correspondent of the Scientific American says: "Let any one who has an attack of lockjaw take a little turpentine, warm it and pour it on the wound, no matter where the wound is, and relief will follow in less than a minute. Nothing better can be applied to a severe cut or bruise than cold turpentine; it will give certain relief almost instantly. Turpentine is also a sovereign remedy for croup. Saturate a piece of flannel with it and place the flannel on the throat and chest, and in every case three or four drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly."
For the Review.
At a recent meeting of the Wilmington Light Infantry the following resolutions were adopted:
WHEREAS, We, the members of the Wilmington Light Infantry, have heard with unfeigned regret the resignation of Mr. THOMAS C. JAMES, as First Lieutenant of this Company, owing to his recent promotion as Lieutenant-Colonel of the Second Regiment of the North Carolina State Guard, be it hereby
Resolved, That, though we regret his necessary withdrawal from the office which he has creditably filled for more than three years, we tender to him our heartiest congratulations upon his well deserved promotion; our warmest encomiums for the prompt and efficient manner with which he has performed the duties of his office, and present him our sincerest good wishes for his future happiness and prosperity in life. Be it further
Resolved, That these resolutions be engraved upon the minutes of this meeting, and that copies of the same be forwarded to the Star and Review, with the request to publish.
A Smooth Complexion can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. For promptly regulating the liver and kidneys and purifying the blood there is nothing like it, and this is the reason why it so quickly removes pimples and gives a rosy bloom to the cheeks. See notice.

HENRY VAN NORTWICK, of Toledo, Ohio, says:—A friend prevailed upon me to try an "Only Lung Pad," and I obtained immediate relief from a racking cough. I know the Pad helped me.—See Adv.
