LOCAL NEWS.

Personal.
 Our old friend and former citizen, Capt.
 J. W. Hinson, and Mr. A. B. Blount, have formed a copartnership and will conduct a general commission business in cotton and naval stores, at 89 Pearl street, New York City. Mr. R. H.
 Rountree has been admitted as a special partner. We wish the new firm the success they merit.

Don't forget the Mardi Gras at the City Hall to-night.
 The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 569 bales.

You can now buy Improved Heating and Cook Stoves at factory prices at JACOBI'S.
 As is usual in this latitude, February's last days go sailing out on March winds.

A good boy can get employment, after school hours, by applying at this office.

Alderman C. D. Myers is acting Mayor in the absence of Mayor Fish-blate.

Parson Bardwell has stuck up some very fine stands of paper for the Arlington Minstrels.

The sale of the law library of the late Adam Empe Esq., has been postponed until Wednesday, March 2nd.

Mr. B. J. H. Ahrens will have his new ice house finished in a short time and will within a month have it filled with ice.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

For several days last week there was no ice in this city. A vessel loaded with ice for Mr. Jno. E. Lippitt has since arrived.

The pupils of Mr. T. C. Fanning's dancing class will entertain their parents and invited guests at the Rankin Hall to-night.

Katie Putnam has filled engagements in Raleigh and Columbia, but will not smile on us this season. Oh, come on Kate; another watch awaits you.

Don't forget the Mardi Gras at the City Hall to-night.

We are requested to state that the Sociable to have been given this evening at the residence of Capt. Chas. D.
 Myers has been unavoidably postponed.

Dr. H. S. Norcum was called to the bedside of his brother, Dr. W. A. H.
 Norcum, of Edenton, who is now extremely low in Baltimore. Dr. Norcum left this morning.

HENRY VAN NORTWICK, of Toledo, Ohio, says:—A friend prevailed upon me to try an "Only Lung, Pad," and I obtained immediate relief from a racking cough, I know the Pad helped me.—See

We are at a loss to know why Mary Anderson should desire to give us the go-by on her Southern tour. She has always drawn good houses here and has been well received. It is cruel in the fair Mary to run through the city closely veiled on a Sunday morning.

Office of "New York & Balto. Transportation Co."
 Having been troubled for some time with a bad cough, I had occasion to try a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. In less than 24 hours, I was entirely relieved.
 I recommend this medicine to all my friends for I shall not be without it in my family.
 E. W. STEEVER,

Workmen are actively engaged in erecting the Cape Fear Tobacco Works on the Camp Lamb site. The building is to be three stories high and 45 x 115 feet long. The machinery will be worked by steam, and at least one hundred hands will be employed in the factory.
 The capacity of the factory will be more than doubled.

Beneficial.
 By the present railroad schedules a troupe can play in Charleston or Columbia to-night and reach this city to-morrow afternoon in time to play at night.
 Troupes going South can play here at night and leave on the 12:35 a. m. train for Charleston, Columbia or Augusta. It is about the close of the theatrical season in the South and we can look for but a very few more performances here this season.

A Smooth Complexion can be had by every lady who will use Parker's Ginger Tonic. For promptly regulating the liver and kidneys and purifying the blood there is nothing like it, and this is the reason why it so quickly removes pimples and gives a rosy bloom to the cheek. See notice.

The Board of Aldermen met in called session last night to take action in regard to a bill introduced by Mr. Scott, and now pending before the Legislature, to prohibit the Board of Aldermen from levying any special tax, or in any way interfering with the sale of meats, beef, pork, mutton, game, fish, etc., on any street, alley or by-way in the city. His Honor the Mayor was requested to go to Raleigh immediately for the purpose of representing the interest of the city in this matter, and left this morning in company with the City Attorney.

In the City.
 Master Thos. V. Bordeaux, son of Mr.
 A. D. Bordeaux, of Long Creek, was in the city to-day and attracted a good deal of attention by his mode of locomotion.
 The young man is crippled, his legs being very much emaciated and are useless. He is about twenty years old and weighs 80 pounds. He sits in a child's small chair and by moving the legs of the chair by motion of his body manages to go any and everywhere he wishes. He is a bright, intelligent young man and superintends a farm near Long Creek.
 He says he can do the work of a hand with the exception of plowing or hoeing corn. He uses a hoe dexterously and weeds his cotton row as quick as the ablest bodied hand. While at work he sits in his chair, which he can move in any direction at will, apparently with little or no trouble. He has been a cripple the greater part of his life but seems resigned to his condition.

A Fox Hunt.
 Mr. Thos. H. Johnson, of this city, scored his "semi-centennial" on Wednesday. As a member of the renowned "Fox Club," it was deemed right and proper that the occasion should be appropriately observed and so a grand fox hunt was inaugurated. A number of ladies were invited and so at an early hour the party rendezvoused at a spot about four miles from the city, when the ladies busied themselves in preparing an appetizing breakfast, while the gentlemen were off on their hunt. They did not catch any foxes, however, but gathered in three old coons, one of which was really a venerable specimen. It is probable that he, too, was well on the road to fifty years of age, as he bore the marks of many a fierce fray on his person. Some time in the indefinite past his nose had been split, his ears "chaw-ed," three of his claws abstracted and one of his legs broken.

Catholic Regulations for Lent.
 Archbishop Gibbons has issued the regulations for Lent, which begins on Ash-Wednesday, March 2d. All Catholics in this archdiocese, 21 years of age and upward, unless dispensed, are bound to make only one meal a day (excepting Sundays), not to be taken before noon.
 Fish and meat are not allowed at the same meal. A small collation is allowed in the evening, not to exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal. It is permitted to use bread, butter, cheese, eggs, milk, all kinds of fruits, salads, vegetables and fish at this collation. It is lawful to take in the morning tea, coffee, or thin chocolate, made with water, and a mouthful of bread. Hog's lard can be used in place of butter in preparing permitted food. The following persons are exempted: Persons under 21 years of age, the sick, the nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, all who through weakness cannot fast without great prejudice to their health. By dispensation the use of fresh meat will be allowed at all meals on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of Holy Thursdays and the second and last Saturdays of Lent.

EDITOR REVIEW.
 DEAR SIR:—Will you kindly insert the following which may be of interest to your local subscribers?
 The statement made by the Mayor to the Joint Bond Committee and published by you yesterday almost leads me to the belief that the English language has lost its force. The Mayor states that I "have attempted to create the impression" that the expenses of the city have been increased during his term of office. I have not attempted to create any impression, but flatly stated that the current expenses had been increased since Mr. Fishblate's election. The figures were given and are not attacked or disturbed by the Mayor, probably because they pass that characteristic which has made the owner of the "little butcher" famous. The only question to be decided by those interested is briefly comprehended in this: Is $49,559 in excess of $47,101?

In two communications, both published, it has been distinctly stated by the Board of Audit and Finance that there was no desire or intention to issue more bonds than necessary for the purpose of funding those maturing in 1882. If such desire existed the Mayor very well knows that it is made a criminal offense to carry out the desire. If there is any one thing the Mayor should give the Board of Audit and Finance—that financial barnacle clinging to the side of "this administration"—credit for, it is the strict adherence to the law under which the funding bonds are issued. In the next place the Mayor states that I desire to issue bonds to "prepare for an unexpected epidemic." How he can content my statement to imply any such intent is beyond my ken. What I did state was this: That from the figures given, under ordinary circumstances the deficit would be $72,900; that if we failed to sell all of the bonds now on hand; that if the current expenses were voluntarily increased beyond $55,000 per annum; that if an epidemic occurred thereby necessarily increasing expenses, that deficit would be greater. "The idea" is entirely his.
 I claim no color of title thereto, and it is only exceeded in originality by the discovery of His Honor, when he made that "detailed examination" in February 1878, referred to by him on the first page of his message, to wit: "That a decided reduction could be made in the expenses of city government from $120,- 000." It being generally conceded that Christopher Columbus discovered America, what would be thought of a modern navigator who, landing on our shores now and finding there his friends and acquaintances, should depart and claim the discovery. Now this is about the way with the Mayor. Seven months and eleven days after the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance had conjointly reduced the current expenses and the government was being carried on at the rate of $47,101, Mr.
 Fishblate discovered that a decided reduction could be made from the $120,000. The Mayor ventures the prediction that within one year the expenses of the Fire Department will be reduced. I trust the prophecy will be fulfilled, but believe to the country. Finally, the Mayor complains that in my figures (which agree with the books of the Treasurer) on the debt reduction I do not include as a part of said reduction $10,000 of illegal bonds. This is another idea. Why should Mayor Fishblate have credit for what Mayor Fishblate never did—towards which result he contributed neither funds nor ability, the bonds in question being declared illegal by the U. S. Court prior to his election. The Court says the bonds were never an obligation. If never a debt how could Mr. Fishblate reduce it?

The Mayor's statement makes debt reduction during his administration $120,000
 My statement for same time - 92,880 Difference $27,120 If there could be deducted $10,000 of illegal bonds—so declared prior to his election—where is the small residue of $17,120? Very respectfully, NORWOOD GILLES,
 Chairman.

The Trio of Planets.
 The planets Venus, Jupiter and Saturn now form an interesting group in the southwestern sky soon after sunset.
 Though the smallest of the three, Venus is clearly far more brilliant than the giant Jupiter, which she is rapidly approaching, while the contrast with the dull faced Saturn—the upper left hand member of the group—is still more marked.
 Jupiter is also slowly drawing near to the ringed planet, which it will overtake on April 22, but their conjunction will not be visible, since both planets will then be lost in the greater glory of the sun. The conjunction of Jupiter and Saturn takes place once in about every twenty years, but it is more than a century since Venus formed with them such an attractive group as is now visible. Venus is in conjunction with Jupiter at midnight on the 21st instant and with Saturn on March 1, passing north of both but much nearer the former than the latter. In the telescope Venus now has the appearance of a half moon. During the next two months her illuminated disc will diminish day by day till the planet appears like a thin silvery crescent of dazzling whiteness, and finally fades away at her inferior conjunction with the sun on May 3. As a telescope object Venus will, therefore, grow in attractiveness during March and April.

 In fact, the less that is seen of her the more beautiful she becomes. She attains her greatest brilliancy on March 27, although less than a third of her illuminated surface is then turned toward the earth.

"Made New Again,"
 St. CATHARINE, Ont.
 R. V. PIERCE, M. D.: I have used your Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, for the last three months and find myself—(what shall I say)—"made new again," are the only words that express it. I was reduced to a skeleton, could not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach.
 Myself and friends had given up all hope, my immediate death seemed certain. I can never be too thankful to those who recommended your medicines, for I now live (to the surprise of every body) and am able to do my own work. I desire to make this statement in order that those suffering may not despair until they have given your remedies a trial Yours respectfully,
 Mrs. Wm. D. RYCKMAN.
