THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VI WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1881. NO. 9

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements. W & W R R—Commutation Tickets. W & A R R—Commutation Tickets.

Have you registered? An entire new registration is required. Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Jones arrived here to-day from New York.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 497 bales. Magisterial circles—barring the arrest of Mayor Fishplate—are exceedingly dull.

A memorial tablet is to be erected in the chancel of St. James' Church to the memory of the late Bishop Atkinson. The rain fell in torrents last night and to-day the wind is from the West and it is cold and blustering.

Ward meetings for the nominations of Aldermen for the approaching municipal election will be held on Thursday evening, the 17th inst., at 8 o'clock. The fishermen and farmer's bill and the market question generally, including the attempt to raise wooden shanties, on the site of the old Market, this morning, has caused as much excitement on the streets to-day as a first-class circus procession would create.

We invite attention to the advertisement of the Oxonian, as it appears in this issue. We have received the various numbers thus far issued with a great deal of pleasure and can cordially and conscientiously commend it. It is edited with rare ability, is a home production and is published at a price which places it within the reach of all intelligent minds.

Shipped Foreign: The exports foreign to-day foot up 1,225 casks spirits and 86 bbls. rosin, per Br. brig Tramore, for London, shipped by Messrs. Chess, Carley & Co.; 3,170 do rosin, per Nor. barque Ejemmet, for London, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son, and 300 casks spirits and 3,759 barrels rosin, per Nor. barque Leo, for Hamburg, shipped by Messrs. E. G. Barker & Co.

A Memorial Volume. We understand that a memorial volume, dedicated to the memory of the late Bishop Atkinson, will be published soon after the meeting of the Episcopal Convention in May. The principal features of the volume will be the memorial sermon to be delivered by Bishop Lay, of Maryland, and a steel portrait of the lamented deceased. Some 2,500 copies will be printed, not for sale, but for gratuitous distribution among the friends and parishioners of the late Bishop. The expense of the publication is to be defrayed by means of voluntary contributions from various churches in the diocese.

In Preparation. The ladies of St. John's Church have recently organized themselves into what they call a "Rectory Club," the object being to raise funds wherewith to enlarge and improve the Rectory attached to the Church, so as to render it meet for the necessities and requirements of the present Rector and his family. With this end in view, they propose to hold a large fair some time after Easter, probably late in April or early in May, and are now busy with their preparations. They will offer for sale many pretty and useful articles, a specialty being ladies' and children's underwear, and the Fair will continue for several nights. Further particulars will be made known as the time approaches.

Commutation Tickets. Commutation tickets, acceptable over the connections of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, at Weldon and Goldsboro, and those of the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, at Florence and Columbia, are for sale now, in denominations of 1,000 and 2,000 miles, at the depots of the respective roads in Wilmington and Columbia. See notice of Col. Pope elsewhere.

River News. The river was thought to be rising slightly when the steamer Murchison left Fayetteville yesterday. There is, however, good boating water now, there being as much as six feet on the shoals. The Murchison reports Capt. Skinner as getting ready to commence operations on the Gov. Worth again. When Capt. Roberts passed the sunken steamer yesterday, Capt. Skinner had one of his steam pumps fired up ready to commence operations.

As Seen by Us. One of the latest and most popular dances among the young folks is the "raquet." It is neither waltz nor polka, shottishn or mazurka, though the best parts of the waltz and polka are preserved. The dance has heretofore been nondescript but we now give it as seen by us a few evenings ago.

The girl was taken around the waist. The music struck up with a crash as though a volcano had broken out, and the girl clung tightly, as though frightened, and the young man reassured her by a gentle pressure. At the second crash they dodged as though a blacksmith shop had been hurled at them and then started in. They began by imitating the struggle for life, representing a person who is drowning, but at each crash of the music they dodged and scooted to one side, then darted back again, jammed each other sideways and then as the crashes of music became more terrific and deafening, they tried to drive each other through the floor, by main strength, got desperate and clawed and tore and pulled and all at once they went raving mad with hydrophobia and the delirium tremens, and gnashed their teeth and suffered the most terrible agony, and it was all over. It is a short dance, as the design is amusement and not murder. But short as it is, it is said to be very sweet. Where it has been introduced it seems to give the most perfect satisfaction, many young people preferring it to the slow and solemn polka or the cold and freezing waltz.

Extinguishment of an Old Charter—The Cape Fear a Free River. A paragraph in the River and Harbor Bill which passed Congress a few days ago is of great interest to the people of the Cape Fear section, and from Hon. A. M. Waddell, the Counsel for the Cape Fear Navigation Company, we learn the following facts:

The only provision the House of Representatives made in connection with our river was the appropriation of $10,000 for the work below Wilmington. There was no effort made before the House or the House Committee to increase the amount, and the bill went to the Senate. Gen. Ransom increased the appropriation from $10,000 to $140,000 for the lower river and added $30,000 for the upper river, between Wilmington and Fayetteville. In the Committee of Conference of the two Houses there were added to this $30,000 clause several provisions, viz: one declaring the Cape Fear a free river, another directing the Secretary of War to pay a sum not exceeding $10,000 to extinguish all chartered rights to exact tolls, another prohibiting any expenditure of the appropriation for the upper river until it is thus made free, and finally one requiring this to be done by Oct. 1st, 1881.

The Cape Fear Navigation Company, a corporation first chartered near the beginning of the century and amended by various acts from 1815 to 1852—the State being a large stockholder until 1871, when the stock was sold—thus ceases to exist and the navigation of the river is henceforth free of all tolls. Mr. Russell's bill to make Fayetteville a port of entry, with a Custom House, &c., and to abolish the Navigation Company, did not pass.

Mortuary Report. From the report of Dr. J. C. Walker, Superintendent of Health, we have the following list of deaths in the city of Wilmington for the month of February, 1881: White—2 males and 6 females; 4 adults and 4 children. Total 8. Colored—4 males and 9 females; 7 adults and 6 children. Total 13. Total white and colored for the month, 21.

ED FOR REVIEW: We deem it due to the signers of the petition referred to by Maj. Stedman in his communication published in the Review of yesterday, and the "Star" this morning, to state for his, and the information of all others interested, that the petition was drawn, signed and sent to the Board before anything was known by them of any supplemental bill. If Major Stedman did not entertain some such views in regard to the provisions of the original bill as those expressed in that petition, it would be interesting to know why he was in such haste to get a supplemental bill through the Legislature.
