We have before us the first number of the new literary magazine, issued by Rev. Dr. Bernheim and his daughters. It is the number for April and it is certainly a very attractive publication. There is an excellent miscellany of matter, embracing a variety of subjects of general interest, and besides the names of the conductors we notice articles by Col. Jas. G. Burr and Mr. Norwood Giles The magazine is printed on nice white paper, in clear type, and is a very creditable issue in every way. It is printed by Messrs. Jackson & Bell. At Home and Abroad is issued monthly at $2.50 a year or 25 cents per single number.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every descrip tion. There you get the lowest prices. †

Vennor Again. Vennor predicts in a Montreal tele gram, of the 10th, that the winter is not over yet by any means. He thus puts it: "There are yet at least three storm periods in this month, on the 12th, 13th, or 14th, on the 16th and 17th, and lastly on the 20th or 21st. The latter two periods will give us heavy snow-falls, one of which is likely to be the heaviest fall of the winter. This will be pretty general over a large part of North America, and is likely to cross over to Great Brit ain. There will be also one more cold spell of considerable severity. The month will end with rain and slush." St. Patrick's Day, (yesterday) it will be seen, is included in one of the storm periods, and in this Mr. Vennor was not

Jay Rial's Humpty Dumpty.

Rial's Humpty Dumpty Troupe will appear at the Opera House Wednesday night-their first appearance in this city. In other cities the company, at the low scale of prices it has adopted, has done a great business, and both the pantomime and company have been highly commended by the press. Referring to the perfoemance in Richmond Tuesday night the Dispatch of Wednesday says:

"The company is a small one, and, while good enough of its kind, presented some novel and remarkable features, particularly in the specialty line.

"The Humpty of Mr. Grimaldi Zelt ner, and Old One Two by Mr. Charles Christie, were very amusing, and kept the large audience in good humor. Mel Mulab, who bites in two and dauces on real red hot iron, was wonderful in his exhibitions, and it was only remarkable that some philantropist connected with a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals did not interpose. The contortions of the 'India-Rubber Man' Rolando seemed almost superhuman, and exhibited great powers and endurance. 'The Great London Dog Circus' was a show what a near degree of human intelligence the brute creation can be trained. The German comedian, Mr. Frank De Forrest, with his trained dog, was very entertaining, and received the deafening plaudits of the boys in the gallery."

Miss Gray, supported by Mr. Watkin's troupe, which has been materially strengthened since last they were in this city, appeared in Camille last evening to W. L. Smith, 135; John F. Di. Only one trifling case for the Mayor's a fair audience. We were much better vine, 72; Alfred Alderman, 74; C. D. in the Fourth Ward last night a numpleased with Miss Gray as Camille than we were in the characters which she portrayed during her former visit. That she is a fine actress admits of no doubt and we think she is destined to take a more prominent position in the theatrical world. Her conception of the character of Camille was fine and delicate. Mr. Murphy's Armand Duval was very fine. His conception was manly, refined and dignified and the character was acted with great satisfaction to the audience. Count De Varville was cleverly acted by Mr. Strong. Miss Gray was called before the curtain at the end of the fourth act. To-night the company appears in Frou Frou, a play made popular by Sarah Bernhardt.

For the benefit of the ladies and chil. dren of the city Miss Gray will appear at the Matinee to-morrow afternoon in ized expressly for her by Mr. Charles A. Watkins. The performance will commence at 2:30 o'clock. To-morrow night Tramp; or, Charity.

Hon. Abram S. Bewett.

We understand that Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, of New York, has telegraphed to Mr. B. L. Perry, proprietor of the Purcell House, engaging four rooms for himself and family, who will arrive here to-night. Mr. Hewitt's wife, who is a daughter of the venerable Peter Cooper, of New York, is in bad health, we hear, and we presume that Mr. H. is en route with his family for the mild, health-restoring climate of Florida.

Hon. Abram S. Hewitt was Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee during the Tilden campaign of of 1876, and a member of the lower House in Congress at the sametime. The results of that famous political campaign proved the ability which this distinguished gentleman brought to the discharge of the arduous duties devolving upon him as Chairman of the National Committee. We have watched his course, both in and out of Congress, whenever he appeared before the public, and we are satisfied, from our observation in this respect, that no purer man in our day and time ever entered public life. Mr. Hewitt is now living the life of a retired citizen, declining a renomination and election, we believe, on account of his own pressing private affairs. We think it would be a fitting and graceful compliment if our Executive Committee and citizens generally would show this distinguished gentleman some mark of attention during his short stay here.

Snuff or dust of any kind, and strong, caustic or poisonous solutions aggravate catarrh and drive it to the lungs. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures catarrh by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. Each package prepares one pint of the Remedy ready for use, and Fennell 1. costs only fifty cents. Sold by druggists. So positively certain is it in its result that its former proprietor used to offer a standing reward of $500 for a adopted: case it would not cure.
