Try
Mr. Joe Person's Indian Tonic Bitters.
It cures so-called "Cancer" in its early stages. Rheumatism, Headache, Dropsy, Obstructed bowels, and all kinds of eruptions. It is a powerful and reliable medicine. As an alternative, Tonic and Blood Purifier it is a proven and unequalled.
SEE GOV. HOLDEN'S OPINION.
I take pleasure in stating that a member of my family has used this Joe Person's Indian Tonic with good results. I believe her remedy to be excellent for the purposes for which it is intended.
W. W. HOLDEN.

An act was passed by the Legislature at the recent session, limiting the term of office of notaries public. Heretofore there has been no limit to the time, and there has been some confusion in the matter of records. All notaries now holding commissions will have to renew them by July 1, or their offices will be declared vacant.

It would be well to remember that those coming of age on election day can register and vote on that day.
The market to-day was very poorly supplied. At 10 o'clock not a chicken could be purchased anywhere.
Mr. G. W. Floyd, agent of Sam of Posen, is in the city making arrangements for Mr. Curtis' appearance in this city on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week.
Cotton Down Again
Cotton futures for the month of May, which advanced 50 points from Wednesday of last week to the close on Saturday, have dropped 25 points to-day, May being quoted at 10.68, instead of 10.93, which was the quotation on Saturday.
Spring and summer.
The ladies will find Capt. McIntire fully abreast of the times. He has returned from the Northern markets and is now busy, with his entire force, in opening many new and attractive novelties. His stock of pretty things for the Spring and Summer will soon be complete and as his taste and judgment in purchasing are universally admitted his customers may rest confident that he will offer for their inspection the cream of the market in fashions and materials.
Returned.
Mr. Rosenthal has returned from the North after having visited Philadelphia, New York and Boston, where he purchased largely and carefully the new stock of boots and shoes which he will be prepared to offer in a few days. He has been absent for nearly a month and the tells us that he made a careful survey and comparison of the markets before making up his purchases. He bought from the best houses and at the lowest prices and will give his customers the benefit of both.
Otterbourg's.
We invite attention to the advertisement published elsewhere, of Mr. Louis J. Otterbourg. His is certainly one of the handsomest clothing stores in the South and it is just as certain that his stock is one of the largest and most carefully selected to be found anywhere South of Baltimore. He is now receiving and opening full lines of clothing and furnishing goods, for the Spring and Summer trade, and will take great pleasure in displaying the new styles to all who may favor him with a call.
The Sunken Schooner.
The sunken schooner Lorenzo, of which we wrote on Saturday, giving an account in that day's issue of the accident, is now lying at Messrs. Kerchner & Calder Bro's wharf, below Nun street, where she was secured on Saturday afternoon. The wind prevailing at the time the schooner Mystery, when the tug Blanch had them in tow, forced the Captain of the Mystery to cut loose from the Lorenzo for the preservation of his own vessel. The wrecked schooner then went drifting down with the tide when Mr. Hanby, of the firm of Hanby & Russell, wharf and bridge builders, jumped into a boat and pulled out to the vessel and with some strong lines from their pile driver made one end fast to the drifting vessel while they pulled ashore with the other. By this time a good crowd had gathered on the wharf and with their assistance the unfortunate vessel was hauled ashore, where it was firmly secured by her masts, which were then about the only thing out of water, until this morning, when Messrs. Hanby & Russell commenced working on her again and have now succeeded in getting the vessel completely upright with her decks above water. They expect to have her pumped out by dark this evening, unless there is a plank off. In that event they will have to adopt some other course. There is supposed to be some 90 bbls. of rosin still aboard of her. The Captain lost about $10 worth of ship stores, besides his cabin furniture, lamps, stove and so forth, all of which are more or less injured, if not totally destroyed.
Complications.
If the thousands that now have their rest and comfort destroyed by complication of liver and kidney complaints would give nature's remedy, Kidney-Wort, a trial they would be speedily cured. It acts on both organs at the same time and therefore completely fills the bill for a perfect remedy. If you have a lame back and distorted kidney use it at once. Don't neglect them.—Mirror and Farmer.

Rial's Humpty Dumpty.
The "Rial Humpty Dumpty" company will appear at the Opera House on Wednesday next in that most successful pantomime, "Humpty Dumpty," and it does not require supernatural wisdom to predict that the performance will be greeted by a full house. In other cities the company has done a rushing business, and in all probability there are enough people in Wilmington anxious to indulge their propensity for laughing, to fill the Opera House. Both the pantomime and company have received laudatory commendation, and come strongly endorsed. The Detroit News of February 1st says:
Jay Rial's "Humpty Dumpty" show at the Detroit is heartily commended by all who witnessed the opening performance last night. Some of the mechanics are new, and all the old ones well played by a good company, including Grimaldi Zeltner as "Humpty," Rel Mueab, the fire king, who dances with bare feet on a sheet of red hot iron, and performs other startling feats; Mattie Antonio, a graceful Columbine and good jig dancer; Punch Walton, a fine cornet soloist; and "Prof." Wingfield's dog circus, which provoked an unlimited amount of fun.
Admission, 25 and 35 cents; reserved seats only 15 cents extra.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.
The April number abounds in highly attractive features, prominent among them being the first instalment of a new serial novel by the popular writer, Frank Lee Benedict; it is entitled "A Late Remorse," and promises to be of intense interest. There is an article on "Thomas Carlyle," by A. H. Guernsey, with 11 illustrations; "A Journey Through the Dismal Swamp," by Alfred Trumble, 4 illustrations; "The Charitable Side of New York—What It Does for the Young," 11 illustrations; "Cricket as Played in England," by N. Robinson, 8 illustrations; "Glimpses of the Rhine," by Lady Blanche Murphy, 13 illustrations; etc., etc. The department of fiction contains, besides Mr. Benedict's novel, several brilliant stories and sketches by popular writers. Among the poems are "In the Bastille, 1750," by Etta W. Pierce; "After Many Years," by H. Wellington Vrooman; "The Fairy Revel," "An April Song," "The Rose," etc., etc., most of them tastefully illustrated. Professor Duncan has a most interesting article on "Earthquakes," with 12 illustrations. Janet E. Rantz Rees one on "George Elliot," with 8 illustrations. The miscellaneous articles afford both entertainment and instruction. There are 128 quarto pages in the number and over 1000 illustrations, together with a handsome colored frontispiece, "The Manic Mother," from a painting by Merle. A single copy is only 25 cents, annual subscription, $3, postpaid. Address Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.
