WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23, 1881

The revenue cutters Colfax and Stevens were reported at Ocracoke Inlet this morning.

The wind has been blowing from the West all day and overcoats and fires are among our best friends.

Deputy City Collector Carr was cogaged this morning in selling property for city taxes. The city was the purchaver in every case.

The work of laying the government cable at Hatteras Islet has been suspended at present on account of the roughness of the water.

Jay Rial's Humpty Dumpty troupe arrived this morning and paraded the prin cipal streets. The band played some airs and was followed by the performing dogs and jack.

The kitchen in the rear of a residence on Fourth and Dock streets was discov ered on fire yesterday morning. The flames were extinguished before the alarm became general and before much damage was done.

The Lecture Last Night.

NO. 21

Notwithstanding the very inclement weather last night a goodly number of appreciative persons attended the Opera House to listen to Dr. Eugene Grissom's lecture, under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association. The theme chosen by that gentleman was "The Prince of Men"-referring to King David. I he lecturer gave a very full and elaborate history of King David, relating many remarkable incidents in the eventful life of this shepherd's boy who was afterwards the great King of Israel and father of Solomon the Wise Dr. Grissom, at the beginning, claimed for this illustrious Israelite that he was the greatest among men. There were many beautiful passages in this most interest ing discourse that gave evidence of deep thought and scholarly research. Dra Grissom is a clear thinker and a pleasant speaker, and he kept his sudience inter. ested in his subject last night, from the beginning until the close. We regret exceedingly the unfavorable circumstances which prevented a larger audience, but we feel we can safely promise the distinguished gentleman, should he honor as with another visit, (if we have more
