BALTIMORE, N. C., Dec. 1st, 1880
Mrs. Joe Person—Madam: Some months ago I was in bad health, suffering from debility, indigestion and loss of appetite. When a friend induced me to try your Tonic, I did so with the most happy results. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable and most efficacious remedy. I wish you much success. Very respectfully,
Geo. W. SPRONG.

Accident at Laurinburg
We regret to learn of an accident which befell Mr. T. Jeff Smith, the well-known engineer, at Laurinburg night before last. It is said that both of his legs were badly crushed but we are unable to learn the particulars. His wife was telegraphed for and she is now with him. We trust that the injuries may not prove as severe as has been feared.

Magistrate's Court.
Nat. Hill, colored, was committed for trial yesterday by Justice Gardner until this morning at 10 o'clock in default of $100 surety, upon the charge of forcible trespass and a peace warrant.

This morning Baker Disher, a white man, was arrested by warrants from Justice Gardner upon the same charges. The two were then brought to trial and fined one penny and the costs.

Beautiful sight.
On cloudless nights, at present, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn form a beautiful constellation in the heavens. The conjunction of these planets rarely occurs during a whole century, and their light is almost equal to that of a young moon. Venus will reach its greatest brilliancy on Sunday night.

Though Venus is brighter, it is not so large as the giant Jupiter, while Saturn is the duldest-hued star of this uncommon phenomenon.

The Elections Yesterday.
As we were able to state in yesterday's issue the municipal elections held in the various Wards in this city resulted in a very happy success for the Democratic party. All we hoped to do or expected to do was to carry the Second, Third and Fourth Wards, and in this we were successful. There are now six Democratic Aldermen elected and four Republicans, viz: W. L. Smith and Alfred Alderman, Democrats, from the Second, L. H. Bowden and James B. Huggins, Democrats, from the Third, David G. Worth and Samuel Northrop, Democrats from the Fourth; W. H. Chadbourne and Jas. W. Telfair, Republicans, from the First, and Jos. D. Sampson and Jos. H. Willis, Republicans, from the Fifth. Mr. Chadbourne is the only white Republican on the Board. The following is the vote by Wards:

Ward	Candidate	Party	Vote
FIRST WARD.	James W. Telfair, colored	Dem.	765
	W. H. Chadbourne	Rep.	293
	W. H. Howe, Sr., colored	Rep.	203
	A. J. Walker, colored	Rep.	289
SECOND WARD.	Coleman Twining	Rep.	24
	John H. Strauss	Rep.	2
THIRD WARD.	W. L. Smith	Dem.	239
	Alfred Alderman	Dem.	242
	Henry E. Scott	Rep.	182
	R. F. Eyden	Rep.	178
FOURTH WARD.	L. H. Bowden	Dem.	253
	Jas. B. Huggins	Dem.	254
	Benj. Scott, colored	Rep.	95
	F. W. Foster	Rep.	88

Wilmington Presbytery
The Wilmington Presbytery met at Whiteville church March 17, 1881, [and was opened with a sermon by Rev. Geo. McMillan, the retiring Moderator. Rev. James Kelly, of Clarkton, N. C., was then chosen Moderator, and Rev. Alex Kirkland, temporary clerk. We glean the following, relative to the proceedings, from a special report furnished the Goldsboro Messenger:]

This meeting of the Presbytery was the largest in the number of delegates present for four years. All the ministers were present, and a majority of the churches were represented by their Ruling Elders. Much important business was transacted. Free conversation on the state of religion, within the bounds of the Presbytery, brought out some encouraging indications of progress. In the matter of contributions to benevolence, for example, last year the churches only gave $503 to Foreign Missions; this year to the same object they have contributed nearly nine hundred dollars; so of the other objects there is an increase. No church reported any special outpourings of the Holy Spirit—among some of them there are encouraging signs of spiritual progress. On the other hand there was much in the condition of some of the churches in the way of worldliness, of indifference to the ordinance of God's house, of neglect in the discharge of official duty, that all felt to be a cause of sorrow.

Rev. A. McFadyen received a call from Bethcar and Bethpage churches and the pastoral relation was ordered to be formed (Mr. McFadyen having signified his acceptance of the call) the 1st and 4th Sabbaths of June next.

Rev. B. H. Garris tendered his resignation at Whiteville and White Plains churches, which was accepted.

Rev. B. F. Marable was elected ministerial delegate to the General Assembly to meet in May, at Staunton, Va., while Rev. Dr. Chapman as alternate. M. H. Wooten, Esq., of Whitehall church, was appointed principal Ruling Elder delegate and B. G. Worth, Esq., of Wilmington, alternate.

The Presbytery adopted the report of the committee on Revised Directory for Public Worship. Their criticisms for the most part were excellent. The Presbytery adopted an important change in resolving hereafter to cooperate with the central committees of the church in carrying on its benevolent work. This is a good change and will no doubt prove more satisfactory in all respects than our present plan.

The people at Whitehall were very kind and entertained the Presbytery with generous hospitality. The session was harmonious and productive of much benefit to ministers, and members, and the community. Faisons was chosen as the next place of meeting in October. Go to JACOBI'S for Doors, Sash and Blinds, pure White Lead, Oils, Varnishes Window Glass, all sizes. All at the lowest prices.

The recent Lecture
The second of the course of lectures inaugurated by the Wilmington Library Association, and for the benefit of that body, will be delivered by Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., Pastor Front Street M. E. Church in this city. Dr. Yates has designated Tuesday, April 5th, as the time and has announced as his subject "The Reign of Theory." A crowded house will, we trust, greet him on the occasion.

Returned
Mr. M. M. Katz returned last night from his Spring pilgrimage to the shrines of fashion in the Northern cities. He tells us that he bought very largely and will soon have open the most superb stock he has ever yet offered to the good people of Wilmington, due notice of which will appear through the columns of the REVIEW.

Two Operettas.
The musical entertainment to be given by a number of ladies and gentlemen in this city under the direction of Mrs. Cameron, will take place soon after Easter, and towards the latter part of the month of April. The programme will consist of the comic operettas, "Box and Cox" and "The Doctor of Alcantara" and the public may rely upon it that there is something good in store for them.

Mr. A. Wilkins, of Philadelphia, who it will be remembered was here last Fall in connection with the proposed water works, is in the city and favored us with a brief visit this afternoon.

Meeting of the New Board of Aldermen—They Take the Oath of Office and Adjourn.
The election over, and the results announced by certificates of the Registrars and Inspectors of Election in the different Wards, the new Board of Aldermen were expected to qualify and enter upon the duties of their office at 12 o'clock today. Eleven o'clock, it was rumored on the streets, was the hour at which the Democratic Aldermen elect, being a majority of the Board, would meet in caucus to determine which of their number should preside over the Board for the next two years as Mayor of the city. But rumor was wrong in this instance, as it was after 12 o'clock before all of the Aldermen from the three Democratic Wards had reached the City Hall. At 12:25 the Aldermen from the three Democratic Wards retired to the room of the Board of Audit and Finance to decide upon a course of action. Meanwhile expectation was at its highest pitch as to who would be the coming man out of the Democratic caucus. The Republicans, of whom there were not a few assembled at the Hall, and their leaders were in the interim hobnobbing together in earnest consultation, and soon the rumor was started that the Bads proposed to enter a protest and contest the election in the Second Ward, the battle ground of the recent election. But exactly upon what grounds this contest was to be made it did not appear. Suddenly, as the hour hand of the time piece in the Court Room pointed to 1 o'clock, there was a commotion visible in the passage-way of the building and pretty soon the six Democrats from the Second, Third and Fourth Wards, headed by Col. Wm. L. Smith, entered the Room, followed by a dense crowd of the colored persuasion, intermixed with a good sprinkling of white people also. The Republican members entered at about the same time and the whole delegation-elect proceeded inside of the railing and took their seats around the Board. Immediately the impression got out among the assemblage that Col. Smith was the coming man, probably because he entered at the head of the delegation. Mayor Fishblate occupied the chair and asked if all the members elect were present? Receiving an affirmative answer, Captain Savage, the City Clerk and Treasurer, was then directed to read the certificates of election of the Registrars and Inspectors of the different Wards to those receiving the largest number of votes. William H. Chadbourne and James W. Telfair were declared elected Aldermen of the city of Wilmington from the First Ward; William L. Smith and Alfred Alderman, from the Second Ward; Lemuel H. Bowden and James B. Huggins, from the Third Ward; David G. Worth and Samuel Northrop, from the Fourth Ward; and Joseph D. Sampson and Joseph H. Willis, from the Fifth Ward. The reading of the certificates being completed, Captain John Cowan, Clerk of the City Court, administered the oath of office to the new Board, after which all the newly elected Aldermen affixed their signatures to the written oath in the book of City Records.

Mayor Fishblate announced as the next thing in order an election for Mayor from among the new Board. Alderman Bowden moved an adjournment until tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Alderman Smith seconded the motion. The question was then put and carried and the Board adjourned and the large crowd which had fondly hoped to witness an exciting ballot for the Mayoralty were compelled to adjourn also in quite a disappointed mood.

The Democratic caucus, we understand, did not even reach a ballot, the time in caucus being entirely consumed in discussion of certain questions. They, however, resolved to meet again in caucus at Col. W. L. Smith's, on Princess street, this evening at 8 o'clock.
