Day's length 12 hours and 26 minutes.

There were no interments in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 19 minutes past 6 o'clock.

There were two interments in Oakdale this week, both adults.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 59 bales.

Steamship Benefactor, Capt. Jones, cleared and sailed to-day for New York.

There were five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery (colored) this week—three adults and two children.

Brother McDiarmid, the genial, of that new paper, the Robesonian, dropped in to see us to-day.

The Register of Deeds has issued four marriage licenses this week, two of which were for white and two for colored couples.

For "Whitehall" in the latter part of an article on the proceedings of the Wilmington Presbyterian, in yesterday's issue, read "Whiteville." It wasn't the printer this time.

The storm signal has been rather erratic of late. It was hoisted late yesterday afternoon, taken down last night and was again found displayed this forenoon. And it still floats.

Col. Lott W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro, was in the city to-day on his return from a visit to Fayetteville, where he has been, according to the Examiner, to get control of the Fayetteville & Florence R. R.

Nothing fashionable remains stationary; but letter paper of a different color for every day of the week is now adopted in Paris. On Monday fair correspondents pen their epistles on pale green; on Tuesday pink is the orthodox tint; Wednesday as an unlucky day is distinguished by sombre gray, blue is used on Thursday, white on Friday, straw color on Saturday, and a delicate mauve on Sunday.

Tonnage in Port

The aggregate tonnage of vessels now in this port, exclusive of steamers and vessels of less than one hundred tons register, is 17,137 tons. Of this amount barques show a tonnage of 10,125 tons, brigs 1,137 tons and schooners 5,875 tons. The total number of vessels in port, embraced in the above list, foreign and domestic, is forty-nine; 26 barques, 4 brigs and 19 schooners.

Monday and Tuesday Nights.

Mr. Curtis, the jolly "sheeny" of Milton Nobles' Phoenix, has started out for himself and is starring in Sam'l Plastrick and Sam of Posen. He is highly spoken of, and is no doubt deserving of the praise he has received. An exchange says:

The most thorough and complete bit of character acting given to the public in late years is that of Sam'l Plastrick, which was witnessed for the first time in Troy last evening by a fair sized audience in Griswold opera house. Mr. Curtis is deserving of the strongest modes of praise which can be bestowed upon him, for in this character, as well as the play of "Sam'l of Posen," the public finds something entirely new. In it tragedy and emotion are combined with high and perfect comedy with the cream of it. The plot is an excellent one and serves to bring out the company in all its strength, which is equalled by but few travelling companies to-day. Mr. Curtis' support is so very good that it is useless to particularize.

Umbrella flirtati na.

Umbrella flirtations are fashionable. Here are the rates: To place your umbrella in a rack indicates that it is about to change owners. An umbrella carried over the woman, the man getting nothing but the drippings of the rain, signifies courtship. When the man has the umbrella and the woman the drippings it indicates marriage. To carry it at right angles under your arm signifies that an eye is to be lost by the man who follows you. To put a cotton umbrella by the side of a nice one signifies "exchange is no robbery." To lend an umbrella indicates "I am a fool." To carry an open umbrella just high enough to tear out men's eyes and knock off men's hats signifies "I am a woman."

Personal.

We were pleased to receive a call to-day from Col. H. B. Short, of Columbus, and Mr. Richard Battle, of Raleigh. Mr. Battle is a member of the editorial staff of the News and Observer and visits Wilmington in the interests of his excellent paper.

A sudden change.

There was a sudden change in the weather this noon, bearing out the warnings of the storm signal. A heavy cloud gathered in the Northwest and very soon afterwards bore down upon us, bringing first a sudden squall of wind, which took up and carried with it clouds of dust, followed soon afterwards by a driving rain. The wind, which had been almost due West, suddenly shifted to the North and it became at least ten degrees cooler. It is probable that there was a hail storm somewhere to the Northwest of this locality.

The Coming Bonnets

The April gossip on bonnets is as follows: For summer there are in preparation a multitude of straw bonnets of all colors, woven like lace. Of course these bonnets will be lined with some bright-colored silk. Those most likely to be in vogue are of bistre straw, lined with peacock blue, or bright red, such as garnet, rose or cherry. Many capotes are also seen of dark or black straw, or else of the natural color. One of these bonnets, designed for a bride, is of myrtle green straw, trimmed with a bunch of feathers of the same color, with the centre and tip of each feather slightly gilded. Very wide strings of surah of the same color, plaided with a slender thread of old gold, tie it on.

Magistrate's Court.

A colored individual by the name of Sam'l Long, with a bad looking eye, which he avers is the result of a blow from a stick in the hands of Wm. Martin, colored, was arrested by an officer this morning with a capias from Justice Mills for failing to "put in an appearance" before the above named Justice this morning at 9 o'clock, the defendant having been recognized to appear at that time for trial upon the charge of larceny. Justice Mills committed Long in default of $100 surety for trial on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Justice McQuigg committed Henry Harris, a young white lad, this morning in default of bond for $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, upon the charge of a misdemeanor, which is interpreted to mean in this instance having made a practice of taking free rides on the turnpike and turning off before he reaches the toll gate, thereby escaping the payment of toll.

Board of Audit and Finance.

A meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance was held this forenoon in their room at the City Hall.

The following communication from Mr. D. G. Worth, resigning his position as a member of the Board, in consequence of his election as an Alderman of the city was received and read:

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 26th.
To the Board of Audit and Finance of the city of Wilmington:

GENTLEMEN: I beg hereby to tender my resignation as a member of your Board, to take immediate effect. This is in consequence of my election as an Alderman of the city.

In severing this connection I desire to bear testimony to the unusually cordial and harmonious relations which have uniformly existed between us as a Board and to tender each of you personally my sincere thanks for the kind and considerate treatment I have, at all times, received at your hands.

Most respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
D. G. WORTH.

Mr. Norwood Giles, the Chairman of the Board, thereupon offered the following which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we accept with reluctance the resignation of our committeeman, Mr. D. G. Worth; that by his withdrawal this Board loses one of its most efficient members; that our regret is only tempered by the fact that his valuable services will not be lost to the city.

A ballot was then had for a successor to Mr. Worth and Mr. William Calder was unanimously elected.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Schr. Georgia B. McFarland cleared to-day for St. Domingo with 210,754 feet lumber, 50,000 shingles, 10 barrels tar and 10 barrels pitch shipped by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming.

The Review thanks Senators Ransom and Vance for interesting documents.

THE NEW BOARD.

The Organization and Proceedings of the First Meeting—Col. Smith the Mayor.

The Board of Aldermen did not meet at 3 o'clock, as agreed upon at the adjournment on yesterday, it being 3:25 before the Board assembled.

At the hour above named Mayor Fishblate took the Chair and stated that the first thing in order was the election of Mayor.

Alderman W. H. Chadbourn, the white Republican member from the First Ward, then arose and nominated Alderman Bowden in a very complimentary speech.

Alderman Bowden moved an adjournment until 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Alderman Chadbourn seconded the motion.

Alderman Smith arose and said he was there for business and didn't feel disposed to be trifled with. He did not see why the city should be without a Mayor until Monday to allow Alderman Bowden to reconcile his conscience on Sunday as to whether he was doing right or not.

Alderman Smith said that Alderman Bowden had pledged his honor as a gentleman to abide by the decisions of the Democratic caucus which was held last night, and he called upon Alderman Bowden to redeem those pledges now.

Alderman Bowden then said there had been a great deal of talk in the community to-day and he desired to give an opportunity to reflect upon this matter; but if there was objection he would withdraw his motion, whereupon Alderman Smith remarked, if there was anything offensive in his remarks which he had just made he would withdraw them.

Alderman Alderman then placed in nomination Alderman Smith.

Mayor Fishblate appointed Aldermen Worth and Chadbourn tellers.

The ballots were then cast for Mayor with the following result:

Alderman Bowden received 4 votes and Alderman Smith received 6 votes.

Mayor Fishblate declared the result and announced Alderman Smith as the duly elected Mayor of the City of Wilmington for the next two years.

Alderman Smith then ascended to the Chair, which Mayor Fishblate vacated, the ex Mayor handing over to his successor the seal of the city, congratulating Mayor Smith upon his election, and wishing him an administration of less perplexity than his had been. Mayor Smith was greeted with much applause both upon the announcement of his election and on his assuming the chair.

The new Mayor then proceeded to address the members of the Board of Aldermen, as well as the large crowd assembled. He stated that he had not thought much about running for the office of Alderman until he had heard shortly after his name had been mentioned in connection with the office, that he was the target for any amount of abuse and vituperation from a certain class of people in this community. His Honor then stated that this determined him upon his course; he resolved to run for the position of Alderman, and to be elected, and he further resolved that if possible he would be elected Mayor also. Now that he had reached the Mayoralty, he would say to those people whom he thought were prejudiced against him without cause, that he would endeavor to administer the duties of the office with impartiality to all classes, without regard to race or color, and he felt that he could discharge those duties with justice and fairness; at least, this should be his aim during his term of office, and he believed that when he retired from his present position those who now, as he thought, blamed him without cause, and were prejudiced against him without reason would do him the justice to say that he had discharged his duties with impartiality to all concerned.

Mayor Smith was loudly applauded during his speech and at the close of it.

The regular order of business was proceeded with and an election for City Clerk, Treasurer and Tax Collector was announced as the next business for the Board.

Capt. Henry Savage was then put in nomination by Alderman Worth in a few appropriate remarks which were seconded by Alderman Bowden in a very complimentary endorsement of Capt. Savage's previous administration. Ballots were prepared and the result of the election is as follows:

Capt. Henry Savage received 6 votes, James Wilson, and William Wilson 3. Capt. Savage was then declared duly elected to the office he at present holds for the ensuing term of two years. Loud calls being made for him, Capt. S. returned thanks for the honor conferred.

Chief of Police was then voted for. Alderman Telfair nominated Captain H. C. Brock, who, upon motion, was elected unanimously.

Capt. John Cowan was then put in nomination for Clerk of the police department, and upon motion, was elected by acclamation.

Capt. Brock and Capt. Cowan were both called on for speeches and returned their thanks in a very happy manner.

The office of City Attorney, it was announced, was the next in order to be voted upon.

Alderman Bowden nominated the present incumbent, Mr. F. H. Darby. Alderman Chadbourn nominated Mr. Eugene S. Martin.

Alderman Telfair nominated Marsden Bellamy, Esq.

The result of the ballot was as follows: Darby, 6; Bellamy, 3; Martin, 1. Mr. Darby was declared duly elected.

Chief of the Fire Department was the next office to be filled.

Col. Roger Moore and Capt. F. G. Robinson were put in nomination.

On the first ballot the vote stood Moore 5, Robinson 5. A second ballot resulted in Mr. Robinson receiving 6 votes and Col. Moore 5. Mr. Robinson was declared elected.

It was ordered that the rules of order of the previous Board be adapted. The rules then, at the request of Alderman Telfair, were read by the Clerk and Treasurer.

The following standing committees were then announced by the Mayor, viz: Finance and Expenditures—Aldermen Worth and Chadbourn.

Police—Aldermen Bowden and Willis. Streets and Wharves—Aldermen Alderman and Telfair.

Public Buildings—Aldermen Northrop and Sampson.

Fire—Aldermen Huggins and Telfair. Light—Aldermen Northrop and Willis.

Market and Fees—Aldermen Bowden and Sampson.

Ordinances—Aldermen Worth and Chadbourn.

Sanitary—Aldermen Northrop and Telfair.

Supervisors—Aldermen Bowden and Chief of Police.

On motion of Alderman Northrop the Mayor was made Chairman ex officio of all standing committees.

The Mayor announced that Janitors, Policemen and other employees of the city would continue in position until further orders.

The Mayor announced that the Finance Committee would confer with the Board of Audit and Finance in reference to the appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year.

The Board upon motion then adjourned to meet Monday night, March 28th, at 8 o'clock.
