Southern train at 11:15 last night.

In view of the fact that there are numerous petitions being prepared for positions on the police force, we will state that we understand the present force will be continued in service. It is an excellent force, well disciplined, and com posed of good men, and until there is removal for cause or a resignation, there will be no change in the force.

The Atlantic Air Line.

We learn, on reliable authority, the the Richmond & Danville R. R. Com pany have just succeeded in leasing the Charlotte & Atlanta Air-line R. R. This gives the Richmond & Danville Road possession of a line which they has no equal for stopping leaks. It is guar- long coveted, both for through freight and through travel. The lease is perpetual and goes into effect very soon.

Sam of Posen Te-Night.

Mr. Curtis and troupe arrived last night and have been busy to-day in arranging and mounting their play for to night. The troupe will be greeted by one of the largest audiences of the season. An exchange says:

Mr. M. B. Curtis appeared in his new Jewish impersonation, "Sam'l Plastrick," last evening at the Academy, before a crowded house and under the best of auspices That is, the piece was wel mounted, played in good style, and had a friendly audience. To say the best of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. We have Mr. urtis Jewat the outset, it was a very exact reproduction of nature, portrayed in a quiet, unassuming way. The personage is a good hearted, honest and industrious fellow, whose principal aim in life is to make his way, acquire money, and have a good time as he goes, not neglecting any opportunity that falls in his way of righting a wrong for the benefit of his friends. His dialect, though rich in its highly colored quality, and especcially appreciative at times to the Hebrew listener, is not his only mode af funmaking. The simplest speech is mirth provoking; and, though loquacious to the last degree, he is always interested. Mr. Curtis proves himself a most agreea ble actor in the role, and certainly makes the most of it. .

Directors' Meeting of the W& WRB

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the W. & W. Railroad, held at the President's office this morning, a committee of citizens from Halifax and lamily has used Mrs Joe Person's Scotland Neck, consisting of ion. W. H. Kitchin, Mr. R. H. Smith and five other gentlemen from that section, submitted & proposition to the Board agreeing upon their part to give the right of way, do the grading and furnish the cross-ties for a branch road from Scotland Neck to some point on the W. & W. Railroad between the stations of Enfield and Halifax, a distance of 14 or 16 miles, if the railroad company would on their part furnish the iron and lay the track; this to be done without any increase in the stock of the road. The Board seemed to look favorably upon the proposition, and appointed a committee consisting of the President, Hon. R. R. Bridgers, Dr. A. J. DeRosset, and Messrs. Don. Mac Rae, W. H. Willard and E. B. Borden. to visit that section with full power to are favorable.

act in the matter.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 171 bales.

Messrs B. F. Newcomer and W. F. Walters, of Baltimore, the former Vice President of the W. & W. R. R., and the latter a director of the same, are in the city in attendance upon a directors' meeting of said road.

The foreign shipments since our las report foot up five cargoes (three on Saturday and two to-day.) They aggregate 1,302 casks spirits and exactly 14, 900 barrels resin. The shippers were Messrs. Williams & Murchison, Alex. Sprunt & Son and De Rosset & Co.

The alarm of fire this afternoon was false one. The bells were rung and people turned out but nobody could locate the fire. It is likely that it originated in the fact that clouds of smoke from fires in the country near at hand were floating over the city at that time.

The C. F. & Y V. R R

Here is a refreshing item, in which the people of Wilmington should be inter-Observer:

Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad will soon be gratified at seeing the track aid. The iron has been ordered, and is expected to arrive as follows: 1,000 tons in April, 1,000 tons in May and 1,- Curtis and quickening his pace overtook 000 in June. It will be laid as rapidly him. as possible. This quantity will lay the track from the present terminus at the Gulf to Greensboro. We may expect to see trains running between the towns of a drummer and I vant dot license" Fayetteville and Greensboro by the end of the year at furthest. The opening of a road was never looked for more eagerly.

City Louet.

His Honor, Mayor Smith, held his first Court this morning at 85 o'clock. There was only one case for the Mayor's consideration, however, and it being one of a rather mild offence, His Honor told the defendant, Sarah King, who is a colored woman, that inasmuch as it was her first transgression, never having been arrested before, that he would dismiss the case, with due notice that if she appeared before him again he would mete out to her the full punishment that her of fence might merit.

Dummy Williams, a colored man un dergoing sentence of thirty days in the City Prison, was ordered released by the Mayor, his term of imprisonment lacking only a few days of being complete.

The Alarm Yesterday.

The alarm of fire yesterday, about 2 e'clock, was caused by the ignition of a wood-house on the premises of Mr. F. W. Heyer, on Second street, running back near Third, between Walnut and Red Cross. An ash-barrel, it seems, was kept in this house, and from live coals emptied into this the building caught. There was a stiff breeze, almost half a gale, blowing at the time from the North and there were serious apprehensions of the result should the flames get beyond control. Happily this was not the case, as the flames were suppressed by those from the neighborhood who rushed to the scene when the alarm was given .-The fire steamers were turned back before reaching the spot.

In Distress.

Through advices received by Mr. Watson, the Signal Officer at this station, from Portsmouth, N. C., we learn of two disasters which occurred there yesterday. The following are the dispatches in the order in which they were received.

PORTSMOUTH, N. C., March 27, 1881. River steamer Vesta, in ballast, Capt. Ben Patrick, 219 tons, drawing 30 inches of water, lately bought at Ply mouth, N U., and on her way to Wilmington N. C., in charge of owners, ged to White Shoals, four miles N. W. of this station in sound, where she now lies in 2 feet of water; tide falling, velocity 22 miles per hour, direction northwest and chopping sea. Steamer may float at high tide.

PORTSMOUTH, N. C., March 28. Steamer Vesta is in same position. I have telegraphed to Beaufort for anchors, etc., with which she expects to heave off as she has only twenty yards to go to bring her in deep water this side of the shoal. Wind northwest and gen-CHAFFEE, tle, still light. Private.

FORT MACON, N. C., March 29. Schooner Ruth Shaw, Capt. McElwes, bound from Wilmington, Del., for Savannah, with a cargo of guano, made this harbor at 6 P. s., yesterday leaking four hundred strokes per hour. She wil proceed on her voyage as soon as winds Sergeant.

the Innecent Drummer on Hand-What he Sells and "Hew he Sells 'em."

Mr. Curtis likes his fun off the stage justed at as well as on it. Several of the boys concocted a plan to fool old man Fice Mayer this morning, and asked Mr. Curtis to aid them in carrying it out. He tumbled to the plan and has been as sideously selling(?) cigars and dodging the Detective all the morning. Old man Two Nights and Saturday Matinee. Mr. Curtis and the Detective, followed by a large crowd, who were in the joke, proceeded to the City Hall and the Mayor was summoned and an investigation was held. His Honor soon saw it was practical joke, and dismissed the case after admonishing Kasprowicz, the instigator, not to do likewise again. Mr Curtis and the Detective were then introduced and the old man said:

"Vell, I knowed it all the vile dot vas you; vell, I sees you ter night, of you got a ticket."

Miss Clarke and Mr. Hermon.

Miss Louise Clarke, of Alabama, the accomplished Southern elocutionist, and Mr. Harry Hermon, humorist, mimic and character vocalist, are to give one of their chaste entertainments at the hall of the Library Association on Wednesday night. They are highly spoken of and come well recommended. The Savannah News says:

"Miss Clarke has genius, cultivation, energy, pluck, and perseverance, and we predict, will leave her name in the history of the South. She attracts people, draws the hearts of her audience to herself, and whether it is as an actress or a reader, or even in her social life, her earnestness claims the attention and holds the hearts of her hearers. Her manner is easy, her intonation perfect, and the aids of proper gesture so truthfully and forcibig applied as to render nothing lacking to create a pleasing impression upon her hearers. Harry Hermon was voted immense by all. His parted chains at North West light character acting, especially in the School house at ten A. M. yesterday, and drag- Boy,' created much merriment, and he received several encores. He is a splen did Mimic and brought down the house every time he appeared. Some of his characters, Graudfather Sam,' 'A Poultry Yard Favorite,' and 'School Boy,' were first-class.
