Picked Up at Sea.

Forty barrels of kerosene oil and thirty boxes of soap were picked up near the Frying Pan Shoals by Capt. C. C. Morse, of the pilot beat Urigh Timmons, on Thursday last while out cruisng. The oil and soap are supposed to have been thrown overbeard from the schooner, name unknown, which has heretofore been reported ashore on the shoals-By throwing over a part of her cargo the vessel floated off on Friday and proceeded on her voyage, Charleston being her destination. Capt. Morse will furnish particulars and answer questions to par

. Zack Johnson was caught in the act of stealing hoops from spirits casks by Mr. John H. Strauss, at his store, on the corner of Water and Chestnut streets, this morning and turned over to a policeman. The casks were the property of Mr. Strauss, and had been placed outside of his store, near the back door, but a few minutes, when the little thief made his appearance and worked two hoops off. Mr. Strauss says he is considerably annoyed by a gang of these pilferers. It is thought that the boys sell the hoops.
