Mr. Joe Person's Indian
Tonic Bitters.

IT CURES SCROFUL, Cancer in its early stages, Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Chronic Miltions O-tis, and all kinds of eruptions of the skin arising from impurity of the blood. An Alternative, Tonic and Blood Purifier it has proven itself unequalled.

SEE GOV. HOLDEN'S OPINION.
BALTIMORE, N. C., Dec. 2d, 1880 I take pleasure in stating that a member of my family has used Mr. Joe Person's Indian Tonic with good results. I believe it very much in an excellent for the purposes to which it is intended.

W. W. HOLDEN,

See Judge Strong's Opinion.
BALTIMORE, N. C., Dec. 1st, 1880 Mrs. Joe Person—Madam: Some months ago I was in bad health, suffering from depression, indigestion and loss of appetite when I was induced to try your Tonic. I took it with the most happy results. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a valuable and efficient medicine, and wish to see you with such success. Very respectfully, GEO. V. STRONG,

The Board of Aldermen will meet in adjourned session at the City Hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

Two colored camels "chawed and clawed" each other on Saturday, and today they swore out warrants and had the satisfaction of submitting the case and paying the costs before Justice Hill's court.

How to use your own painter: Buy the N. Y. Enamel Paint, ready mixed and arranged at JACOBI'S.

If a white or colored man steal a five cent loaf of bread, and is caught, he will get punished and sent to the penitentiary. If a cow should eat up $50 worth of japonicas, or $5 worth of grain, it is done with impunity. A cow can have license to steal. A man is punished for the slightest infraction of law.

We hear some complaint in regard to the manner in which oysters are sold by measure on our streets. In buying a gallon of oysters the purchaser pays for at least three pints of liquor. A remedy for this is suggested, by the Board of Council passing an ordinance, that all oysters offered for sale on our streets shall be measured in a perforated vessel —Newbernian.

The prohibitionist will put a stop to that as soon as the anti liquor law passes.

The Steamer Clinton.
The steamer Clinton which sank at Mr. Springer's wharf some six weeks ago has been raised and is again at work.
The repairs on the Clinton are not quite finished, but workmen are still engaged in making the necessary repairs to her week work.

Some Particulars.
A Birmingham, Ala., paper was received in this city yesterday containing some news relative to the shooting of the late Thomas C. Harris at that place on the night of the 2d inst. The paper states that Mr. Harris was shot by one Larry L. Barry while in his bed room. Barry was arrested and is now in jail. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was that the deceased came to his death from a wound inflicted by the accused and that the shooting was premeditated and diabolical and not an accident as claimed by Barry. The paper assigned no reason for the shooting nor does it give any of the evidence in the case. Mr. C. M. Harris, brother of the deceased, is now in Birmingham ferreting out the matter.

Our "City Park."
Our city park though still in its infancy, so to speak, would be a credit to any city. The beautiful railings, fine statuary elegant fountains and cosy lawn seats dotted here and there in an artistic yet natural manner is a beautiful sight The Park shows to better advantage at night, however, when the statuary fountains, tents, etc., are brilliantly lighted up by electric lights. Quite a number of persons gather in and about the park at night and after resting an hour or two on the rustic benches, go to their homes highly elated with the beauty of the place.

The Steamer Gov. Worth.
The steamer Governor Worth steamed into this port yesterday afternoon under command of Capt. Sam'l Skinner, under whose direction she was raised.
The hull of the steamer has a hole 7x12 feet in her bows and all of her upper wood work has been swept away by the freshets. The engines and boilers have been damaged but very little, in fact not enough to prevent their working. The Worth is now on the Marine Railway where her hull and engines will undergo a thorough overhauling. It is not known whether her owners will have the woodwork done in this city or whether the steamer will be sent to Fayetteville for repairs. The damage to the Worth is estimated at about $5,000.

Personal.
We acknowledge the pleasure of a visit from our whilom friend of the Statesville Landmark, but more recently our energetic and determined friend of the Life Insurance business, Mr. J. D.
Brooks. Mr. B. is the same affable and genial gentleman and staunch thoroughbred North Carolinian that he always was. He and all like him will always find a welcome in our sanctum.

City Court.
His Honor Mayor Smith had two cases to dispose of this morning.
John Ashburn, alias Zich Johnson, who was taken to the guard house on Saturday was the first prisoner. He was caught by Mr. J. H. Strauss stealing barrel hoops and turned over to the police. Mr. Strauss made no charges against the boy but stated he had been very much annoyed by a gang of youngsters and simply wished to break them up. Mayor Smith lectured the little rascal and turned him over to his parents with the understanding that he should be sent out of town.

Jim Clark, alias "Lemonade Jim," was arrested on suspicion last night and taken to the city prison. At the time of his arrest he was taking off a dry goods box from Mr. H. Lueb's store at the corner of Princess and Water streets.
He was reprimanded by His Honor and discharged. This closed the levee.

Abate the Nuisance.
There are 150 cows, more or less, on the tax-list, but these are not all that are subject to taxation. How many owners of cows fail to report them? There would be no grievous objection to cows having the freedom of our wide streets, if they did not also have license to frighten women and children, block up the sidewalks, make raids on provision stores, and steal the forage from country wagons; besides making night hideous with their everlasting little tinkling bell.
Mayor Smith has inaugurated one great improvement and abated a terrible nuisance, that of stopping the all night drum beating at the City Hall every time the Good Samaritans, Independent order of—and the half dozen other so eties that hold their festivals there. Now let him and the present Board of Aldermen show wisdom and backbone enough to pass an ordinance prohibiting cows from running at large, and then stick to it, not repeat it at the very next meeting of the Board, like the previous administration did.

Palm Sunday.
Yesterday, (Palm Sunday) was the anniversary of the day on which our Lord and Saviour made His triumphant entry into the city of Jerusalem, riding upon an ass' colt, when all of the people cried loud "Hosannas unto the Lord our King," and in less than six days thereafter, cried "Crucify him! Crucify him!" The Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches in this city were appropriately dressed with palm leaf.

Palm Sunday is the first day of the closing week of the Lenten season. This solemn week, usually known as "Holy Week," is observed throughout Christendom, and even the Calvinistic churches have latterly relaxed their opposition to it—except, perhaps, in Scotland. In Switzerland Good Friday is an ecclesiastical as well as a civil holiday. In this country Holy Week is kept especially by the Catholics, the Episcopalians and the German Lutherans, less strictly by the Unitarians and the Methodists. Holy Week, which culminates on Good Friday, was first observed in the Latin Church, and the Council of Nice, A. D., 325, ordered its general observance, but not without having met with some opposition on the part of the Asiatic Churches. In Spain it was customary at one time to close the churches on Good Friday, but this was prohibited by the Council of Toledo in 633. The Greek Church, so solemn and formal in all its rites, keeps Holy Week with the strictest fasts. In Catholic and Lutheran Churches it is customary to drape the altar in black throughout the week, and generally no instrument is played in the Churches on Good Friday.
In Rome the week is kept with the utmost solemnity, and in the Sistine chapel the most sublime of all music is sung.
The Lutheran Church has added Bach's Passion Music to the solemnities of the week.

We advise our friends to call at JACOBI'S for Household Hardware of every description. There you get the lowest prices.

An Unpleasant Reminiscence.
The 11th day of April, one year ago to day, the fire on Front Street which destroyed Messrs B. H. J. Ahrens' ice house and Geo. A. Peck's hardware store occurred. It was at the same time the occasion of the fearful catastrophe by which Captain Wm. Ellerbrook lost his life, and several more of our citizens were more or less injured, by being caught beneath the falling walls in Mr. Peck's hardware store.

Big Snake.
Mr. I. M. McKeithan, of Brunswick county caught a very large rattle snake near Lockwood's Holly about two weeks ago, and has brought his snakeship to this city for sale. The reptile is confined in a strong box covered with stout wire netting and is at Mr. T. H. Smith's grocery on Front street. Its dimensions are 6 feet in length 9 inches across the body, and 2 1/2 inches across the head; weighs 50 pounds and sports twelve rattles and a button which it shakes continually.

Mr. McK. says he saw the snake and its mate sunning in the woods near their den, and at his approach they ran in and he plugged up their entrance. He then got a hoe and dug them out. One of the snakes was killed, and the other was captured alive. The snake which was killed had fifteen rattles, but being a female, was not quite as long as the male which he caught. Mr. McK. declines to tell how he managed the capture, as it is a secret which he does not desire should be known. He will sell the snake for $60.

The Sunday Magazine.
The May number of this excellenteriodical contains, as usual, an abundant of interesting and edifying reading matter. Among the articles of particular excellence are a seasonable one entitled "May-day Observances," by Josephine Pollard, with fine illustrations; "Ancient and Modern Church Music," by Alfred Hervey; "Egyptian Houses and Homes," by Sara Keables Hunt; "Medicine and the Missionaries," by L.
A. Ballard M. D.; "The British and the Boers," etc.; each article is admirably illustrated. "Out of the World," Mrs.
O. Reilly's interesting serial, is continued, and there are several short stories and sketches by George J. Hagar, Hans Christain Andersen and other popular writers. The essays are by Farnesius, Rev. Alexander McLeod, Rev. James M.
Whitton, D. D., Hattie N. Morris, Thomas L. Chase, L. L. D., etc. The poems are numerous, and generally of great merit. Besides a large amount of entertaining and instructive miscellany are the following exceedingly interesting features: "The Home Pulpit," sermon by Rev. Joseph Parker, D. D.; "Hard Places in the Bible," by Rev. Dr. Deans; "Temperance Talk," "The Invalid's Pertion and Thoughts for the Afflicted," "Glimpses at the Religious World,"
"International Sunday-school Lessons," etc., etc. There are 128 quarto pages in each number, and nearly 100 illustrations. Price of single copy, 25 cents; annual subscription $3 postpaid. Address, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 59, 65 and 57 Park Place, New York.

MERIT WINS!
IS THERE ANYTHING MORE HANDsome than a nice, well fitting garment? any thing better calculated to delight the human eye, than Gentlemen's Clothing gotten up in the latest designs? and verily we say No!—likewise the world says No! We coincide most conclusively with our old school mate that "the apparel oft proclaims the man." The fact is strange, but nevertheless true, OTTERBOURGH actually clothes two-thirds of Wilmington's fellow-citizens, and clothes them satisfactorily in the bargain. Reader, if this afternoon is a pleasant one, and as you avail yourself of your usual promenade, observe if you please the many well dressed gentlemen you chance to meet. Out of every half dozen, score four of them to OTTERBOURGH. You can bet your last dollar the majority of Spring Suits have been furnished by the POPULAR MEN'S WEAR DEPOT; and as you gaze upon them don't attribute the excellent fits to some Merchant Tailoring Establishment.

OTTERBOURGH'S Clothing, as regards artistic work, is second to none in the whole country, and is often judged to be those made by special measure. You can tell them by the hang of the cloth.
